

The background of the book cover is a photograph of a person seen from behind, standing on a wide, light-colored stone staircase. The person is wearing a long, black, flowing robe and has their arms outstretched horizontally to the sides. They are looking up towards a very bright, glowing light source at the top of the stairs, which creates a strong lens flare effect. The walls on either side of the stairs are a warm, light brown or tan color. The overall mood is one of spiritual ascent and openness.

accurate aesthetic of rural African Americans and their connection to the historical moment This in depth perspective captures the spectrum of African American experiences that contradict and refine how historians write analyze and interpret southern African American life in the post slavery era The Georgia of the North Hettie V. Williams,2024-07-12 The Georgia of the North is a historical narrative about Black women and the long civil rights movement in New Jersey from the Great Migration to 1954 Specifically the critical role played by Black women in forging interracial cross class and cross gender alliances at the local and national level and their role in securing the passage of progressive civil rights legislation in the Garden State is at the core of this book This narrative is largely defined by a central question How and why did New Jersey s Black leaders community members and women in particular affect major civil rights legislation legal equality and integration a decade before the Brown v Board of Education Topeka Kansas decision In this analysis the history of the early Black freedom struggle in New Jersey is predicated on the argument that the Civil Rights Movement began in New Jersey and that Black women were central actors in this struggle Religious Education in the African American Tradition Kenneth H. Hill,2012-11 Schweitzer s goal in this book is to explore what postmodernity actually means for theology and how theology and the church may respond to its challenges He focuses on the life cycle as it is changing with the advent of postmodernity looking sequentially at segments of the life cycle using different lenses modernity postmodernity and responses from church and theology Schweitzer concludes with a theology of the life cycle The Missionary Seer ,1995 Encyclopedia of Religion in the South Samuel S. Hill,Charles H. Lippy,Charles Reagan Wilson,2005 The publication of the Encyclopedia of Religion in the South in 1984 signaled the rise in the scholarly interest in the study of Religion in the South Religion has always been part of the cultural heritage of that region but scholarly investigation had been sporadic Since the original publication of the ERS however the South has changed significantly in that Christianity is no longer the primary religion observed Other religions like Judaism Buddhism and Hinduism have begun to have very important voices in Southern life This one volume reference the only one of its kind takes this expansion into consideration by updating older relevant articles and by adding new ones After more than 20 years the only reference book in the field of the Religion in the South has been totally revised and updated Each article has been updated and bibliography has been expanded The ERS has also been expanded to include more than sixty new articles on Religion in the South New articles have been added on such topics as Elvis Presley Appalachian Music Buddhism Bill Clinton Jerry Falwell Fannie Lou Hamer Zora Neale Hurston Stonewall Jackson Popular Religion Pat Robertson the PTL Sports and Religion in the South theme parks and much more This is an indispensable resource for anyone interested in the South religion or cultural history Equipping Laity For Servant Leadership Iii Taylor,2009-12 As a senior pastor and former deacon Dr James H Taylor III has many years of experience with the grain of tradition paradigm of rural ministry His passion to make a contribution to the betterment of rural ministry through the equipping of laity for servant leadership and excellence in ministry lies within this vital resource This book which is part research project and part servant leadership resource equipping guide provides the theological foundation state of the art in servant leadership and step by step training modules for equipping the laity for the role of servant leader This book explores basic leadership principles and contrasts leadership and servant leadership and its intricate and important role in excellence in ministry The ten module training guide systematically unfolds laity s spiritual undergirding in preparation for embracing the ranks of servant leadership specifically the diaconate This resource will benefit any church who desire to better equip its laity for servant leadership and strive for excellence in ministry Dr James H Taylor III is the senior pastor of the Race Street Baptist church in historic Farmville VA He is a graduate of the Samuel DeWitt Proctor School of Theology in Richmond Virginia and the United Theological Seminary in Dayton Ohio
