Shared Sorrows A Gypsy Family Remembers The Holocaust:

Shared Sorrows Toby Sonneman, 2002-10-01 On the morning after Kristallnacht Toby Sonneman's father walked through broken glass to apply for the visa that saved him from the fate of so many during the Third Reich In examining her own family history the author discovered the similarities between the fate of the Jews and the Gypsies in the Holocaust both peoples selected on racial grounds for extermination by the Nazis She traveled with an American Gypsy survivor to Munich where she stayed with the formidable Rosa Mettback This is the story of Rosa and other members of an extended family who survived the Holocaust Shared Sorrows tells the story of a Gypsy family against the backdrop of a Jewish one detailing and examining their shared sufferings under the Nazis My father brought a spool of thread with him from Germany when he came to America in 1939 And another spool of thread one in my imagination unwinds slowly and unpredictably sometimes fraying or tangling It's a thin and delicate thread that leads me to the Gypsies to the family that I meet in Germany the country of so many tangled memories and emotions And as I talk to them and I listen following the threads of their stories backwards in time to the 1930s and 40s and before their memories start to become mine as well Women and Genocide

Elissa Bemporad, Joyce W. Warren, 2021-12-22 Essays that use gender as a critical lens for staging intersectional multidisciplinary investigations of genocide in the 20th and 21st centuries Reading Religion The genocides of modern history Rwanda Armenia Guatemala the Holocaust and countless others and their effects have been well documented but how do the experiences of female victims and perpetrators differ from those of men In Women and Genocide human rights advocates and scholars come together to argue that the memory of trauma is gendered and that women's voices and perspectives are key to our understanding of the dynamics that emerge in the context of genocidal violence The contributors of this volume examine how women consistently are targets for the sexualized violence that serves as an instrument of ethnic cleansing how female perpetrators take advantage of the new power structures and how women are involved in the struggle for justice in post genocidal contexts By placing women at center stage Women and Genocide helps us to better understand the nexus existing between misogyny and violence in societies where genocide erupts It elegantly bridges the historical divide between the study of political violence and the study of gendered violence in the so called domestic sphere Women and Genocide is an immense scholarly accomplishment that has the potential to fund creative advances in each of the scholarly disciplines it engages as well as human rights peace and anti violence programs of advocacy Reading Religion The Roma and the Holocaust María Sierra, 2024-04-18 Half a million European Roma were exterminated by the Nazi regime many more were subjected to a policy of racial discrimination similar to that suffered by the Jewish people However the persecution and torment of Roma in Hitler's Europe has little presence in the history books The Roma and the Holocaust places the Roma genocide in the context of the widespread violence of the Second World War while offering an explanation that places it within a broader trajectory of anti Roma persecution in modern societies The book explores the separation and destruction of families the sterilisation of adults and children the plunder of property and deprivation of livelihoods slave labour medical experiments the horror of extermination camps and the mass murder that the Romani people were subjected to Mar a Sierra uses the first section of the book to provide a much needed critical overview and synthesis of the fragmented research and scholarship in the area that has been conducted in various languages In the second section Sierra shines a light the autobiographical accounts of several Roma survivors of the Nazi genocide in order for the voices of the victims who have claimed recognition and rights for the Roma people to be heard This journey through the memories of Philomena Franz Ceija Stojka Lily Van Angeren Otto Rosenberg Walter Winter and Ewald Hanstein in addition to other testimonies is contextualized within the framework of other Holocaust survivors memoirs and has been approached from a history of emotions perspective With the Romani people having been denied recognition as victims of Nazism after the end of the war this book crucially helps to bring about agency for the survivors supporting their struggle for the right to memory in the process
