Encounter in Pastoral Care and Spiritual Healing Daniël Johannes Louw, Takaaki David Ito, Ulrike Elsdörfer, 2012 The International Council on Pastoral Care and Counseling ICPCC met in August 2011 in Rotorua New Zealand for its 9th International Congress Various discussions in the field arose from actual challenges such as the earthquake in Japan social changes and mainly deprivations all over the world The ICPCC offers guidelines on how to cope with these situations which also include the indigenous traditions of the Maori culture projects on inter religious encounter etc all of which provoke a rethinking of traditional spirituality The Congress proceedings are presented in this book as a state of discussion within this globalized network Series Theologie Forschung und Wissenschaft Vol 33 Prayer in Counselling and Psychotherapy Peter Madsen Gubi, 2008 Gubi argues that philosophically all counselling can be regarded as prayer particularly when working at relational depth that prayer plays an important part in maintaining many mainstream counsellors well being and with considered ethical awareness prayer can be integrated ethically into counselling when working with people of faith Enriching Awareness and Practice in the Pastoral and Reflective Supervision of Clergy Peter Madsen Gubi, 2023-05-12 Enriching Awareness and Practice in the Pastoral and Reflective Supervision of Clergy increases and enriches the awareness knowledge and skills of pastoral and reflective supervisors who work with clergy in a pastoral reflective supervision context The content is also applicable to supervisors within a Clinical Ministerial Education context and to all clergy who want to develop their awareness of and skills in interpersonal dynamics This book explores themes such as theological reflection in pastoral reflective supervision the place of prayer in pastoral reflective supervision working with stuckness in pastoral reflective supervision understanding trauma in pastoral reflective supervision working with shame in pastoral reflective supervision developing an awareness of culture and diversity in pastoral reflective supervision the importance of self care in pastoral reflective supervision and understanding context in pastoral reflective supervision

What Counsellors and Spiritual Directors Can Learn from Each Other

Peter Madsen Gubi, 2017-04-21 This new collection explores the intersection of spiritual direction and counselling. It considers the ways in which they can enhance each other to provide better therapeutic and pastoral care.

Main Challenges for Christian Theology Today Christophe Chalamet, Lit Verlag, 2020-10 In this volume on the basis of three consultations which took place in Seoul and Geneva 2016 2017 2018 theologians from Yonsei University's College of Theology in Seoul South Korea and from the Theological Faculty at the University of Geneva reflect together on three of the main challenges facing Christian theology today. First questions related to religious pluralism and multiple religious belonging are addressed. Second the promise of an enhanced human being through technology and other means is discussed. Third the reality of the threat humanity represents to our ecosystem is considered. Each of these themes is examined from a Korean as well as from a Western European perspective for Christian theology in our day can no longer afford to remain limited to its own geographical context.

Exploring Therapy, Spirituality and Healing

William N. West, 2010-12-13 What place does spiritual need and healing have in the counselling room? Denying the spiritual dimension of personal distress can be potentially hurtful to clients but the issue of spirituality is also fraught with professional and ethical issues for therapists. This book draws on original research to move the debate about spiritual need forwards in relation to therapeutic practice supervision and training. An international team of contributors offer a diverse range of perspectives to critically explore a wide spectrum of spiritual issues including prayer, pastoral care and traditional healing. Edited by a leading figure in the field, this book illuminates experiences of both clients and practitioners through detailed case vignettes. Draws on cutting edge research in this growing field. Invites readers to address their own therapeutic practice with hands-on discussion points. This measured and thoughtful approach provides a fascinating insight to an often complex and controversial topic. As such the book is essential reading for trainees and practitioners of counselling and psychotherapy.

Psychotherapy and Spiritual Direction Lynette Harborne, 2018-03-22 This book explores the similarities and differences between the practice of psychotherapy and spiritual direction and suggests that whilst there may be distinctions between the two activities the process is essentially the same. The purpose of the book is to improve the understanding between therapists and spiritual directors to encourage dialogue and discussion between them as well as to offer challenges and learning to both. In the process of exploring the interface between the practice of therapy and the practice of spiritual direction questions arise about how to address issues of spirituality in a psychological context and psychological issues in a spiritual context. A brief overview of the historical background to spiritual direction is given and attention drawn to the links between this tradition and the development of psychotherapy. Spiritual issues that may arise in therapy together with psychological issues that occur during spiritual direction are discussed leading on to a comparison between dark night of the soul experiences and clinical depression.
