Reinventing Foreign Aid William R. Easterly, 2008-05-09 Top experts in the field discuss how to improve the effectiveness of foreign aid proposing practical solutions to specific problems rather than a utopian master plan The urgency of reducing poverty in the developing world has been the subject of a public campaign by such unlikely policy experts as George Clooney Alicia Keyes Elton John Angelina Jolie and Bono And yet accompanying the call for more foreign aid is an almost universal discontent with the effectiveness of the existing aid system

In Reinventing Foreign Aid development expert William Easterly has gathered top scholars in the field to discuss how to improve foreign aid. These authors Easterly points out are not claiming that their ideas will to invoke a current slogan Make Poverty History. Rather they take on specific problems and propose some hard headed solutions. Easterly himself in an expansive and impassioned introductory chapter makes a case for the searchers who explore solutions by trial and error and learn from feedback over the planners who throw an endless supply of resources at a big goal as the most likely to reduce poverty. Other writers look at scientific evaluation of aid projects including randomized trials and describe projects found to be cost effective including vaccine delivery and HIV education consider how to deal with the government of the recipient state work through it or bypass a possibly dysfunctional government examine the roles of the International Monetary Fund a de facto aid provider and the World Bank and analyze some new and innovative proposals for distributing aid. Knowledge management Alex Koohang ,Keith

Harman,Johannes Britz,2008 From Schooling Access to Learning Outcomes, an Unfinished Agenda ,2006 This document is an evaluation of World Bank support to primary education. It has two objectives. The first is to assess World Bank assistance to countries in their efforts to improve their basic knowledge and skills base through the provision of quality primary education particularly since the beginning of the Education for All EFA movement in 1990. The second objective is to provide lessons for countries in their development strategies and for the Bank in its support of those strategies. Research

Skills for Policy and Development Alan Thomas,Giles Mohan,2007-05-16 This book is a critical guide to conducting investigations under time and resource pressured conditions equipping readers with the key skills and approaches for research designed to influence or inform development policies. Unlike a simple how to guide Research Skills for Policy and Development also provides a critique of various methods and situates these approaches within real life organisational settings enabling those working in or studying development to locate evaluate and use relevant information quickly but rigorously. The successor to Finding Out Fast SAGE 1998 it reflects the changes in development management theories and practice over the last seven years and includes new material and advice on critical use of the web as a resource and research tool. It is essential reading for development managers in NGOs and public sector agencies as well as students of development management and development studies more generally. Improving Investment Climates Kristin Hallberg,2006-01-01

This evaluation assesses the effectiveness of the World Bank Group in helping its member countries improve their investment climates within the context of the World Bank Group s overall mission of poverty reduction and sustainable development.
