The Crosswicks Journals Madeleine L'Engle,2017-06-13 The New York Times bestselling author of A Wrinkle in Time takes an introspective look at her life and muses on creativity in these four memoirs Set against the lush backdrop of Crosswicks Madeleine L Engle s family farmhouse in rural Connecticut this series of memoirs reveals the complexity behind the beloved author whose works have long been cherished by children and adults alike

A Circle of Quiet In a deeply personal account L Engle shares her journey to find balance between her career as an author and her responsibilities as a wife mother teacher and Christian

The Summer of the Great Grandmother Four generations of family have gathered at Crosswicks to care for L Engle s ninety year old mother whose health is rapidly declining and whose once astute mind is slipping into senility L Engle takes an unflinching look at diminishment and death all the while celebrating the wonder of life and the bonds between mothers and daughters

The Irrational Season Exploring the intersection of science and religion L Engle uncovers how her spiritual convictions inform and enrich the everyday

The memoir follows the liturgical year from one Advent to the next with L Engle s reflections on the changing seasons in her own life as a writer wife mother and global citizen

Two Part Invention L Engle beautifully evokes the life she and her husband actor Hugh Franklin built and the family they cherished Beginning with their very different childhoods their life in New York City in the 1940s and their years spent raising their children at Crosswicks this is L Engle s most personal work yet Offering a new perspective into her writing and life and how the two inform each other the National Book Award winning author explores the meanings behind motherhood marriage and faith

Semiotics and Visual Communication II Evripides Zantides,2018-04-18 The chapters in this book consist of selected papers that were presented at the 2nd International Conference and Poster Exhibition on Semiotics and Visual Communication at the Cyprus University of Technology in October 2015 They investigate the theme of the Conference Culture of Seduction the seduction of culture and look at Seduction as in deception not sexual enticement but as a mechanism of attraction and appeal which has often been the case in many communication strategies and approaches used by mass and popular culture Seduction has historic and increasing agency in visual communication the urgency to entice viewers is ever more powerful in difficult economic times in an increasingly hyper real world and designers are led to become exceedingly complicit in its strategies

The contributions here cover a range of approaches from theoretical aspects of seduction in verbal and nonverbal communication public spaces design and meaning seductive strategies and advertising design as well as fashion representations and packaging design

James DeKoven John E. Magerus,2025-02-27 Calls for a biography of James DeKoven were voiced soon after his death in 1879 When he died he was considered the best known Episcopalian in the country Yet twenty years later when the first inadequate biography of DeKoven was published he had almost been forgotten This new biography researched and written by the former archivist of the DeKoven Center in Racine Wisconsin follows the trajectory of his life from son of a well established merchant family in Connecticut to his education in New York City and then to his move in 1854 to the frontier of the young state of Wisconsin Previously unavailable sources including letters and memoirs have been used to complete the historical record Most importantly his personal journal has been studied in detail to gain insight into his ideas concerning education religion and leadership American Journal of Hospital Pharmacy ,1988 The Law Times ,1901 New York Magazine ,1996-03-25 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea
