curator Dominic Molon who concentrates on the artist's transformation of conceptual photography and structuralist film and art historian Norman Bryson who presents a compelling examination of Lockhart's nuanced approach to narrative and the gaze this richly illustrated volume focuses on Lockhart's photographic and cinematic work since 1994 including her major film projects Goshogaoka 1997 and Teatro Amazonas 1999 BOOK JACKET Sharon Lockhart /Noa Eshkol Sharon Lockhart, Noa Eshkol, Stephanie Barron, Talia Amar, Britt Salvesen, 2012 Sharon Lockhart Dana Self, 1998 Sharon Lockhart Adam Budak, Fanni Fetzner, Camilla Larsson, 2015 In this publication American artist and filmmaker Sharon Lockhart born 1964 collaborates with her friend Milena a Polish teenager who had planned to write an autobiography Instead together they have crafted this photographic portrait of leaving childhood and the difficulties in facing adulthood Expanded Visions Arnd Schneider, 2021-06-01 This book argues for a new anthropology of the moving image bringing together an important range of essays on time based media in the contemporary arts and anthropology It builds on recent attempts to develop more experimental formats and engages with debates on epistemologies of ethnography relational aesthetics materiality sensory ethnography and observational and participatory cinema Arnd Schneider critically revisits Baudrillard's idea of the simulacrum and the hyperreal engages with new media theory and elaborates on the potential of the Writing Culture critique for moving image practices bordering art and anthropology This collection of essays is essential reading for anybody working across the fields of visual anthropology film and media studies and visual studies Schneider ambitiously considers the complex relationship between the moving image and anthropology highlighting the potential for innovative approaches experimental methods and expanded perspectives in both fields Los Angeles Magazine , 1999-11 Los Angeles magazine is a regional magazine of national stature Our combination of award winning feature writing investigative reporting service journalism and design covers the people lifestyle culture entertainment fashion art and architecture and news that define Southern California Started in the spring of 1961 Los Angeles magazine has been addressing the needs and interests of our region for 48 years The magazine continues to be the definitive resource for an affluent population that is intensely interested in a lifestyle that is uniquely Southern Californian A Critical Cinema 5 Scott MacDonald, 2006 A Critical Cinema 5 is the fifth volume in Scott MacDonald's Critical Cinema series the most extensive in depth exploration of independent cinema available in English □□□□□ □□□ ,□□□□□□ □□□□ Sharon Lockhart, 2012 Published on the occasion of the exhibition Sharon Lockhart Noa Eshkol organized by the Israel Museum and the Los Angeles County Museum of Art Sharon Lockhart Janine Mileaf, Noura Wedell, 2016-05-12 Exhibition catalogue Lateness and Longing George Baker, 2023-05-23 How a generation of women artists is transforming photography with analogue techniques Beginning in the 1990s a series of major artists imagined the expansion of photography intensifying its ideas and effects while abandoning many of its former medium constraints Simultaneous with this development in contemporary art however photography was moving toward total digitalization Lateness and Longing presents the first account of a generation of artists focused on the work of Zoe Leonard Tacita Dean Sharon Lockhart and Moyra Davey who have collectively transformed the practice of photography using analogue technologies in a dissident way and radicalizing signifiers of older models of feminist art All these artists have resisted the transition to the digital in their work Instead in what amounts to a series of feminist polemics they return to earlier incomplete or unrealized moments in photography s history gravitating toward the analogue basis of photographic mediums Their work announces that photography has become not obsolete but late opened up by the potentially critical forces of anachronism Through a strategy of return of refusing to let go the work of these artists proposes an afterlife and survival of the photographic in contemporary art a formal lateness wherein photography finds its way forward through resistance to the contemporary itself Indefinite Visions Martine Beugnet, 2017-07-07 Moving image culture seems to privilege the instantly identifiable the recognizable face the well timed stunt the perfectly synchronized line of dialogue Yet perfect in focus visibility does not come naturally to the moving image and if there is one visual effect the eye of the camera can record better than the human eye it is blur Looking beyond popular media to works of experimental cinema and video art this groundbreaking collection addresses the aesthetics and politics of moving images in states of decay distortion indistinctness and fragmentation A range of international scholars examines what is at stake in these images sometimes radical foregrounding of materiality and mediation or of evanescence and spectrality as well as their challenging of the dominant position accorded to legible images How have artists and filmmakers rendered the indefinite image and what questions does it pose With a range of approaches from aesthetics to phenomenology to production studies the authors in this volume investigate techniques themes and concepts that emerge from this wilful excavation of the moving image s material base The Long Take John Gibbs, Douglas Pye, 2017-10-27 This is the first book in English exclusively devoted to the long take one of the key elements of film style Increasingly visible in contemporary international media the long take currently attracts a good deal of attention in criticism and commentary There are also significant strands of film theory in which duration has become a recurrent concern In keeping with the approach of Palgrave Close Readings in Film and Television this collection is devoted to the detailed critical analysis of specific long takes explored in terms of how they function within their contexts how they shape the visual field the meanings they generate and the effects they create The Long Take Critical Approaches brings together essays by established and emerging scholars all but one essay commissioned for this volume in an exciting collection that analyses works from a range of filmmaking traditions from the 1930s to the present day selected to represent varied long take practices and to explore associated debates Owens, Laura Scott Rothkopf, 2017-01-01 A richly illustrated expansive mid career survey of the stand out American artist s pioneering and influential work with each copy featuring a unique silk screen cover printed in Owens s studio Since the early 1990s Laura Owens b 1970 has challenged traditional assumptions about figuration and abstraction in her pioneering approach to painting Created in close collaboration with the artist on the occasion of her mid career survey at the Whitney Museum of American Art this inventive and comprehensive book features an incisive introduction by Scott Rothkopf critical essays literary texts and short commentaries on a variety of subjects related to Owens s broad interests which range from folk art and needlework to comics and wallpaper Reflections by more than twenty of Owens s fellow artists collaborators assistants dealers family members and friends offer an array of perspectives on her work at different periods in her life beginning with her high school years in Ohio and ending with her current exhibition A rich trove of more than a thousand images drawn from the artist s personal archive and largely unpublished before now includes personal correspondence journals academic transcripts handwritten notes source material exhibition announcements clippings and installation photographs Strikingly each copy also features a unique silk screen cover printed in Owens s studio giving readers the opportunity to own an original work of art Together all of these elements provide a rare and intimate look at how an artist might make her way in the world as well as how art gets made movements take hold and relationships evolve over time Merce Cunningham

Carrie Noland, 2020-01-23 One of the most influential choreographers of the twentieth century Merce Cunningham is known for introducing chance to dance Far too often however accounts of Cunningham s work have neglected its full scope focusing on his collaborations with the visionary composer John Cage or insisting that randomness was the singular goal of his choreography In this book the first dedicated to the complete arc of Cunningham s career Carrie Noland brings new insight to this transformative artist s philosophy and work providing a fresh perspective on his artistic process while exploring aspects of his choreographic practice never studied before Examining a rich and previously unseen archive that includes photographs film footage and unpublished writing by Cunningham Noland counters prior understandings of Cunningham s influential embrace of the unintended demonstrating that Cunningham in fact set limits on the role chance played in his dances Drawing on Cunningham s written and performed work Noland reveals that Cunningham introduced variables before the chance procedure was applied and later shaped and modified the chance results Chapters explore his relation not only to Cage but also Marcel Duchamp Robert Rauschenberg James Joyce and Bill T Jones Ultimately Noland shows that Cunningham approached movement as more than movement in itself and that his work enacted archetypal human dramas This remarkable book will forever change our appreciation of the choreographer s work and legacy
