Adam Grant New York Times bestselling author of Originals and Give and Take When it comes to setting and meeting goals we may see quite literally our plans our progress and our potential in the wrong ways We perceive ourselves as being closer to or further from the end than we may actually be depending on our frame of reference We handicap ourselves by looking too often at the big picture and at other times too long at the fine detail But as award winning social psychologist Emily Balcetis explains there is great power in these misperceptions We can learn to leverage perceptual illusions if we know when and how to use them to our advantage Drawing on her own rigorous research and cutting edge discoveries in vision science cognitive research and motivational psychology Balcetis offers unique accounts of the perceptual habits routines and practices that successful people use to set and meet their ambitions Through case studies of entrepreneurs athletes artists and celebrities as well as her own colorful experience of trying to set and reach a goal she brings to life four powerful yet largely untapped visual tactics that can be applied according to the situation

Narrow your focus Closing the aperture of your attention helps you exercise effectively save money and find more time in your day

Widen the bracket Seeing the forest instead of the trees reduces temptations and helps you recognize when a change of course is in order

Materialize your plan and your progress Creating checklists and objective assessments inspires better planning and adjusts your gauge of what's really left to be done

Control your frame of reference Knowing where to direct attention improves your ability to read others emotions negotiate better deals foster stronger relationships and overcome a fear of public speaking

A mind blowing and original tour of perception

Clearer Closer Better will help you see the possibilities in what you can't see now

Inspiring motivating and always entertaining it demonstrates that if we take advantage of our visual experiences they can lead us to live happier healthier and more productive lives every day

Rethinking Higher Education in Post-Apartheid South Africa Emnet Tadesse Woldegiorgis,Logan Govender,Dennis Zami Atibuni,2025-07-25 This book explores the opportunities and epistemological and structural challenges facing higher education in postcolonial South Africa and argues for a fundamental transformation to meet the needs of the 21st century Taking the concept of transformation as a unifying thread this book discusses the evolving trajectories of higher education in South Africa with particular emphasis on the decolonial initiatives that have emerged in the post Apartheid era During this time there have been persistent calls for South Africa to move beyond Eurocentric education programmes and curricula in favour of a system that reflects the continent s culture and identities of all South Africans The book argues that incremental reforms of existing structures are insufficient and that instead a deeper more fundamental shift in higher education structures values and systems is needed Overall the book calls for a comprehensive transformation to expand access for historically disadvantaged communities enhance quality and competitiveness address past injustices and improve the quality and capacity to act together for a more sustainable and just future Also exploring the digital transformations which have accelerated in the wake of the COVID 19 pandemic this book will be an essential read for researchers and policymakers working on higher education in South Africa
