Bookman's Weekly ,1994 Sharpe Bernard Cornwell,1995 Twisted John Glatt,2003-01-20 He Had A Successful Career A Selfless Wife And Three Loving Children When high school sweethearts Karen and Richard Sharpe married they shared an interest in medicine a desire for family and a dream for the future For Karen that dream became a nightmare After years of abuse at the hands of her physician husband she put an end to their 26 year marriage Fearing a crushing divorce settlement Richard ended the marriage first by unloading a 22 caliber rifle into Karen s chest The murder revealed more about the millionaire doctor and his double life than polite Boston society was prepared for He Also Had A Secret That Shot His Picture Perfect World To Hell Behind the doors of their upscale Massachusetts home Dr Sharpe was a compulsive cross dresser with a penchant for his own daughter s underwear a respected family man who had not only been taking hormones to grow breasts but who stole his wife s birth control pills to supplement them But not even his own family could have imagined that it would take cold blooded murder to finally reveal the good doctor s disturbing secrets and shatter forever the prosaic facade of an all American family

From the Mountaintop Campbell Bolwell,2012-04-20 From the Mountaintop is a story about a solitary individual who spends his lifetime searching for the deeper meaning to life and trying to understand its purpose Not satisfied with the explanations of existing religions he embarks on a lone journey of study and experience unwilling to accept anything on faith alone and searching for evidence to support his emerging theories about reality Against the background of his extraordinary adventures which influenced his search and shaped his character a vast and radically different reality is revealed

Augusta's Journal Ralph Crump,Marjorie Crump,2010-07 This volume brings to a close our four volumes on the chronicled life of Augusta during a very turbulent and pivotal period in the History of the United States the opening up of the West the question of whether slavery would prevail nationally with political attempts to legitimize it in the new territories starting with Kansas a serious depression brought on by over expansion of our then growth industry the railroads the explosive discoveries of gold in most of the Western Territories one of the worst wars in our history to settle once and for all whether we were to be one nation indivisible with slavery or not Augusta s original three bound journals which I inherited with some 2 000 entries beginning before she was seventeen records not only her personal and occasionally tragic involvement in all of these events but the influence these events had on her life at the time Her journal entries from 1857 to 1860 present a record of the founding by her father and a few other abolitionists the town of Eldorado Kansas that is better and more authentic than any professional early history of the city we ve seen She described in detail these two or three dozen mostly young pioneers that were willing to go far beyond the Frontier to establish a voting district free of proslavery domination

The Sharpe Family Magazine ,1993 Death and Deprivation on the Forgotten Sumatra Railway James H. Banton,2021-09-15 James Henry Banton was born in Burton on Trent in 1920 He worked as a driver of a steam locomotive used to transport beer and supplies to breweries around the town When war broke out Jim joined the RAF eventually becoming a Leading Aircraftsman as part of the RAF s ground crew During this time Jim had met the love of his life Dorothy Mason Jim didn t know that when he left Gladstone Dock in Liverpool he would not see home or his family including Dorothy for another four and a half years Eventually posted to the Far East he was captured by the Japanese in the hills on the island of Java Used as slave labour starved beaten and witnessing death on a daily basis he was later put to work on the building of the Sumatra Railway The Far East Prisoners of war became known as the Forgotten Army however there has been little reference paid to the Sumatra Railway compared with other theatres of WW2 With this in mind the prisoners who worked on the Sumatra Railway could be considered to be the Forgotten of the Forgotten Army In August 1945 the world celebrated victory in Europe however for the FEPOW s the war dragged on As parts of the world were trying to return to normality Jim and his colleagues were being made to dig their own graves in the Sumatra jungle The FEPOW s lives hung in the balance as orders had been issued to murder all POW s should mainland Japan be invaded by the Allies This book is Jim s story and it is hoped it will also be a reminder not only of the sacrifice of the Forgotten Army but also highlight the suffering of the Forgotten of the Forgotten Army The Sumatra Railway POW s
