Shattered Gourd:

Gourdfellas Maggie Bruce, 2007-03-06 Brooklyn girl Lili Marino moved to the tiny village of Walden Corners New York to find a place where she could pursue her craft taking gourds from the garden and transforming them into birdhouses bowls and beautiful works of art She never expected to find herself tangled in the vines of some tough mysteries as well The peace that Lili first found in Walden Corners is hard to find lately the townspeople are violently divided over plans for a casino Even Lili s friends are at odds and she s starting to wonder if her beautiful new life is in jeopardy Then her bathroom ceiling springs a leak and when she investigates a rifle comes clattering down on her head A vocal proponent of the casino project has been shot in the woods near her house and all eyes are on Lili If she doesn t want to trade her gourds for license plates she s got to find the real killer and to do that she ll need a little help from her friends Teotihuacan Matthew Robb, 2017-09-26

Founded in the first century BCE near a set of natural springs in an otherwise dry northeastern corner of the Valley of Mexico the ancient metropolis of Teotihuacan was on a symbolic level a city of elements With a multiethnic population of perhaps one hundred thousand at its peak in 400 CE it was the cultural political economic and religious center of ancient Mesoamerica A devastating fire in the city center led to a rapid decline after the middle of the sixth century but Teotihuacan was never completely abandoned or forgotten the Aztecs revered the city and its monuments giving many of them the names we still use today Teotihuacan City of Water City of Fire examines new discoveries from the three main pyramids at the site the Sun Pyramid the Moon Pyramid and at the center of the Ciudadela complex the Feathered Serpent Pyramid which have fundamentally changed our understanding of the city s history With illustrations of the major objects from Mexico City s Museo Nacional de Antropología and from the museums and storage facilities of the Zona de Monumentos Arqueológicos de Teotihuacan along with selected works from US and European collections the catalogue examines these cultural artifacts to understand the roles that offerings of objects and programs of monumental sculpture and murals throughout the city played in the lives of Teotihuacan s citizens Published in association with the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco Exhibition dates de Young San Francisco September 30 2017 February 11 2018 Los Angeles County Museum of Art LACMA March June 2018

The African Burial Ground in New York City Andrea E. Frohne, 2015-10-09 In 1991 archaeologists in lower Manhattan unearthed a stunning discovery Buried for more than 200 years was a communal cemetery containing the remains of up to 20 000 people At roughly 6.6 acres the African Burial Ground is the largest and earliest known burial space of African descendants in North America In the years that followed its discovery citizens and activists fought tirelessly to demand respectful treatment of eighteenth century funerary remains and sacred ancestors After more than a decade of political battle on local and national levels and scientific research at Howard University the remains were eventually reburied on the site in 2003 Capturing the varied perspectives and the emotional tenor of the time Frohne narrates the story of the African Burial Ground and the controversies surrounding urban commemoration She analyzes both its colonial and contemporary representations drawing on colonial era maps prints and land surveys to illuminate the forgotten and hidden visual histories of a mostly enslaved population buried in the African Burial Ground Tracing the history and identity of the area from a forgotten site to a contested and negotiated space Frohne situates the burial ground within the context of late twentieth and early twenty first century race relations in New York City to reveal its enduring presence as a spiritual place

The Age of Wild Ghosts Erik Mueggler, 2001-04-09 In Erik Mueggler's powerful and imaginative ethnography a rural minority community in the mountains of Southwest China struggles to find its place at the end of a century of violence and at the margins of a nation state Here people describe the present age beginning with the Great Leap Famine of 1958-1960 and continuing through the 1990s as the age of wild ghosts Their stories of this age converge on a dream of community a bad dream embodied in the life death and reawakening of a single institution a rotating headman ship system that expired violently under the Maoist regime Displaying a sensitive understanding of both Chinese and the Tibeto Burman language spoken in this region Mueggler explores memories of this institution including the rituals and poetics that once surrounded it and the bitter conflicts that now haunt it To exorcise wild ghosts he shows is nothing less than to imagine the state and its power to trace the responsibility for violence to its morally ambiguous origins and to enunciate calls for justice and articulate longings for reconciliation

SoulStirrers H. Ike Okafor-Newsum,2016-01-19 In SoulStirrers H Ike Okafor Newsum describes the birth and development of an artistic movement in Cincinnati Ohio identified with the Neo Ancestral impulse The Neo Ancestral impulse emerges as an extension of the Harlem Renaissance the Negritude Movement and the Black Arts Movement all of which sought to re represent the primitive and savage Black and African in new terms Central to the dominant racial framework has always been the conception that the Black subject was not only inferior but indeed incapable of producing art The Neo Ancestral impulse posed a challenge to both existing form and content Like its intellectual antecedents the movement did not separate art from life and raised a central question one that the soul stirrers of Cincinnati are engaging in their artistic productions Okafor Newsum defines collapsing of the sacred and the profane as a central tendency of African aesthetics transformed and rearticulated here in the Americas In this volume the artistic productions ask readers to consider the role of those creating and viewing this art by attempting to shift the way in which we view the ordinary The works of these artists therefore are not only about the survival of African derived cultural forms though such remains a central effect of them These extraordinary pieces installations and movements consistently refer to the cultural reality of the Americas and the need for political and intellectual transformation They constitute important intellectual interventions that serve as indispensable elements in the redefinition and reinterpretation of our society Featuring numerous color illustrations and profiles of artists this volume reveals exciting trends in African American art and in the African diaspora more broadly
