Transcultural English Studies Frank Schulze-Engler, Sissy Helff, 2009 What is most strikingly new about the transcultural is its sudden ubiquity Following in the wake of previous concepts in cultural and literary studies such as creolization hybridity and syncretism and signalling a family relationship to terms such as transnationality translocality and transmigration transcultural terminology has unobtrusively but powerfully edged its way into contemporary theoretical and critical discourse The four sections of this volume denote major areas where transcultural questions and problematics have come to the fore theories of culture and literature that have sought to account for the complexity of culture in a world increasingly characterized by globalization transnationalization and interdependence realities of individual and collective life worlds shaped by the ubiquity of phenomena and experiences relating to transnational connections and the blurring of cultural boundaries fictions in literature and other media that explore these realities negotiate the fuzzy edges of ethnic or national cultures and participate in the creation of transnational public spheres as well as transcultural imaginations and memories and finally pedagogy and didactics where earlier models of teaching other cultures are faced with the challenge of coming to terms with cultural complexity both in what is being taught and in the people it is taught to and where target cultures have become elusive The idea of locating culture and literature exclusively in the context of ethnicities or nations is rapidly losing plausibility throughout an English speaking world that has long since been multi rather than monolingual Exploring the prospects and contours of Transcultural English Studies thus reflects a set of common challenges and predicaments that in recent years have increasingly moved centre stage not only in the New Literatures in English but also in British and American studies New Trends in Translation and Cultural Identity Micaela Muñoz-Calvo, Maria del Carmen Buesa Gómez, Maria-Angeles Ruiz Moneva, 2009-03-26 New Trends in Translation and Cultural Identity is a collection of thirty enlightening articles that will stimulate deep reflection for those interested in translation and cultural identity and will be an essential resource for scholars teachers and students working in the field From a broad range of different theoretical perspectives and frameworks the authors provide a multicultural reflection on translation issues fostering intercultural communication knowledge and understanding crucial to effective transfer and intercultural exchange within the global village Exile and Return as Poetics of Identity in Contemporary Anglo-Caribbean Literature Eleonora Natalia Ravizza, 2019-11-25 In contemporary Anglo Caribbean literature the dialectic interrelations of exile and return are essential for conveying meta reflections on literature and language as well as the role they play in the construction of personal and collective identities While this volume focuses on the specificity of a cultural area whose history is marked by colonialism diaspora slavery and racial conflicts it also raises epistemological questions surrounding the complexity of literature and its function in a world which is ever more composite hybrid and transcultural By developing a new systematic approach which combines post colonial studies theories of intertextuality and philosophy of language it explores how contemporary literary texts reflect elaborate and redefine the experiences of societies that are currently dealing with ever growing global interdependencies and newly formed cultural and semiotic context Women Writers in the Twentieth Century Literature Monika Gupta, 2000 The Present Anthology Consisting Of Some Twenty Articles Of Moderate Length By Eminent Scholars At The National Level Is An Attempt In Analysing The Point Of View Of Women As Evinced In The Writings Of The Women Writers Belonging To The Different Genres And The Countries Like India America South Africa Canada The Other Countries Of The Commonwealth And Africa And Also The Writing Branded As Post Modernist Literature And The Literature Of The New Modernity Where The Emphasis Is Laid Particularly Upon The Issues Of Identity Alienation Suppression And Protest Pertaining To The Lot Of Women In The Present Day World The Volume Stresses An Usurping Issue Of Her Dominance Over Men Not Through Her Sexuality But The Far Effective Qualities Of Her Motherhood This Volume Is Brought Out With The Trust That It Would Throw Fresh Light On The Approach Of The Researchers And Make The Literary Critical Art A Pastime In Excavating As Well As Analysing Thoughts Of The Modern Writers On Both Woman And Her Feminity Boundaries (Vol. 2) Carole Boyce-Davies, Molara Oqundipe-Leslie, 1995-04 V 1 International dimensions of Black women s Contemporary Caribbean Women's Poetry Denise deCaires Narain, 2003-08-29 Contemporary Caribbean Women's Poetry provides detailed readings of individual poems by women poets whose work has not yet received the sustained critical attention it deserves These readings are contextualized both within Caribbean cultural debates and postcolonial and feminist critical discourses in a lively and engaged way revisiting nationalist debates as well as topical issues about the performance of gendered and raced identities within poetic discourse Newly available in paperback this book is groundbreaking reading for all those interested in postcolonialism Gender Studies Caribbean Studies and contemporary poetry Pan-Africanism Soyinka, Wole, Amin, Samir, 2016-01-18 In the nineteen 60s and 70s the University of Dar es salaam was recognised internationally as a great academic institution and the site of anti colonialist anti imperialist socialist studies and activism With the onslaught of neo liberalism beginning with Structural Adjustment Programmes in Tanzania in the mid 80s the university was one of its prime targets subjected to numerous pressures designed to extinguish the flames of revolutionary scholarship and activism The establishment in 2008 of the Mwalimu Nyerere Chair on Pan Africanism with Professor Issa Shivji as its first Chairman and the annual Distinguished Nyerere Lectures Series inaugurating annual intellectual festivals was in Professor Shivji s introduction to this volume of collected lectures the resurrection of radical Pan Africanism at the University of Dar es salaam The impact of the festivals and the lectures went well beyond the university community as substantial number of the participants at these lectures and debates were citizen intellectuals not part of the university community The calibre of the distinguished lecturers speaks for itself there could be no better representation of progressive African intellectuals honouring the legacy of Mwalimu Nyerere than Professors Wole Soyinka Samir Amin
