You and Yours Naomi Shihab Nye, 2013-12-20 In You and Yours Naomi Shihab Nye continues her conversation with ordinary people whose lives become through her empathetic use of poetic language extraordinary Nye writes of local life in her inner city Texas neighborhood about rural schools and urban communities she's visited in this country as well as the daily rituals of Jews and Palestinians who live in the war torn Middle East The Day I missed the day on which it was said others should not have certain weapons but we could Not only could but should and do I missed that day Was I sleeping I might have been digging in the yard doing something small and slow as usual Or maybe I wasn't born yet What about all the other people who aren't born Who will tell them Balancing direct language with a suggestive aslantness Nye probes the fragile connection between language and meaning She never shies from the challenge of trying to name the mysterious logic of childhood or speak truth to power in the face of the horrors of war She understands our lives are marked by tragedy inequity and misunderstanding and that our best chance of surviving our losses and shortcomings is to maintain a heightened awareness of the sacred in all things Naomi

Shihab Nye poet editor anthologist is a recipient of writing fellowships from the Lannan and Guggenheim foundations Nye's work has been featured on PBS poetry specials including NOW with Bill Moyers The Language of Life with Bill Moyers and The United States of Poetry She has traveled abroad as a visiting writer on three Arts America tours sponsored by the United States Information Agency In 2001 she received a presidential appointment to the National Council of the National Endowment for the Humanities She lives in San Antonio Texas

The Rooster's Wife Russell Edson, 2005 For the past 40 years Russell Edson has been producing a body of work unique in its perspective and singular in its approach He is arguably America's most distinguished writer of prose poems Here are contorted Darwinian narratives of apes and monkeys exhibiting absurdly human behavior along with his usual menagerie of elephants horses chickens roosters dogs mermaids and mice Along with his trademark humor The Rooster's Wife finds Edson contemplating age mortality and immortality as well Of Memory and Distance It's a scientific fact that anyone entering the distance will grow smaller as he proceeds Eventually becoming so small he might only be found with a microscope if indeed he is found at all But there is a vanishing point where anyone having entered the distance must disappear entirely without hope of his ever returning leaving only the memory of his ever having been But then there is fiction so that one can never really be sure if one is remembering someone who vanished into the distance or simply who had been made of paper and ink Russell Edson has been called a surrealist comic genius a magician of metaphor and imagination He is all of these and a philosophical poet whose zany expeditions into the twisted labyrinths of logic resemble Lewis Carroll's adventures through the wonderlands of paradox and illusion Perhaps that is why even people who do not read significant amounts of contemporary poetry can immediately appreciate the playful accessibility of Russell Edson's writing What he pulls out of the hat of the subconscious is always unpredictable immediate and surprising Russell Edson's books include The Very Thing That Happens 1964 The Childhood of an Equestrian 1973 The Tunnel Selected Poems 1994 and The House of Sara Loo Rain Taxi Chapbook Series 2002 He lives in Darien Connecticut

The Owner of the House Louis Simpson, 2014-07-01 Few poets have so artfully confronted American life as Louis Simpson Persona speakers struggle with everyday issues against a backdrop of larger forces the individual's maladjustment to a culture of materialism and brutal competition the failure of marriage under the pressures of such a society the failure of the American dream Simpson wages a lover s quarrel with the world Louis Simpson has perfect pitch His poems win us first by their drama their ways of voicing our ways of making do with our lives Then his intelligence cajoles us to the brink of a cliff of solitude and we step over into the buoyant element of true poetry Seamus Heaney Educated at Munro College West Indies and at Columbia University Louis Simpson has taught widely most recently at the State University of New York at Stony Brook He is the author of seventeen books of poetry and ten works of prose He has received fellowships from the Academy of American Poetry the Hudson Review the Guggenheim Foundation and received the Pulitzer Prize for Poetry

Lola Haskins, 2004 The poems in Desire Lines both new and selected give shape to the desires we must nourish if we are to retain our compassion The poems collaborate as a series of variations on the theme of desire much like the way a motif weaves through a piece of music or a thread through a tapestry Haskins presents autobiographical poems and poems that give voice to other women both historical and imagined Lola Haskins has published six full length poetry collections A musician and dancer Haskins shared the title role in Mata Hari a full length ballet whose libretto she wrote for Dance Alive a touring dance company She has read her poetry on National Public Radio and BBC radio I'm No Longer Troubled by the Extravagance Rick Bursky, 2015-09-21 I'm No Longer Troubled by the Extravagance is a collection of poems that assign new meanings to the people and things of the past The book moves in three sections through a fantastic landscape that maps human fragility The poems in the first section speak to matters of the heart intimacy and loss punctuated by lovers who leave The second section is comprised of prose poems chronicling misadventures and conspiracies Russian spies on Wilshire Boulevard artichokes that mate for life and secret photographs of God Finally the third section pans out from individual experience hosting the collective in fable like reflections Together the poems in Extravagance mark with fragile acceptance the surreal extravagance of being alive The Relentless One day we ll know how long the dead have to be dead before they feel hunger One day it ll be summer forever In the meantime the weather looking for its cue keeps an eye on me and I keep whatever money s in my pocket crumpled in a ball A relentless responsibility dogs me and the funny thing is these are the lyrics to a happy song Go ahead tap your foot snap your fingers We re roasting a pig in the yard Rick Bursky is the author of Death Obscura Sarabande Books 2010 and The Soup of Something Missing Bear Star Press 2004 winner of the Dorothy Brunsman Poetry Prize He lives in Los Angeles where he works in advertising and teaches poetry in the UCLA Extension Writer s Program
