Shell And The Kernel Renewals Of Psychoanalysis:

The Shell and the Kernel Nicolas Abraham, Maria Torok, 1994-09 This volume is a superb introduction to the richness and originality of Abraham and Torok's approach to psychoanalysis and their psychoanalytic approach to literature. Abraham and Torok advocate a form of psychoanalysis that insists on the particularity of any individual's life story, the specificity of texts, and the singularity of historical situations. In what is both a critique and an extension of Freud, they develop interpretive strategies with powerful implications for clinicians, literary theorists, feminists, philosophers, and all others interested in the uses and limits of psychoanalysis. Central to their approach is a general theory of psychic concealment, a poetics of hiding. Whether in a clinical setting or a literary text, they search out the unspeakable secret as a symptom of devastating trauma revealed only in linguistic or behavioral encodings. Their view of trauma provides the linchpin for new psychic and linguistic structures such as the transgenerational phantom, an undisclosed family secret handed down to an unwitting descendant, and the intra-psychic secret or crypt which entombs an unspeakable but consummated desire. Throughout, Abraham and Torok seek to restore communication with those intimate recesses of the mind which are for one reason or another denied expression. Classics of French theory and practice: the essays in volume one include four previously uncollected works by Maria Torok. Nicholas Rand supplies a substantial introductory essay and commentary throughout. Abraham and Torok's theories of fractured meaning and their search for coherence in the face of discontinuity and disruption have the potential to reshape not only psychoanalysis but all disciplines concerned with issues of textual, oral, or visual interpretation. The attention in the training and skill set required for mental health clinicians Drawing on personal experience and clinical expertise as well as film memoir and literature Dr Kathryn Zerbe shares how secrets come to light in both life and treatment demonstrating the powerful hold that secrets can have on our lives This book offers a fresh take on how we view our secrets and how we can use them as a tool to sustain our most intimate and valued connections over the course of a lifetime Using cutting edge research as well as honed clinical expertise the author suggests how one might go about managing the secrets of everyday living that we must keep as well as how we can identify which we can let go Particular attention is paid to the mind body relationship and somatic countertransference reactions Each chapter suggests guidelines to promote wellness and resilience in the secret keeper whether that be the psychotherapist or their patient Written with compassion and in a user friendly style Secrets in Psychotherapy will benefit anyone who is navigating the thorny terrain of keeping a secret for themselves or someone they know It is an essential read for psychotherapists psychoanalysts and practicing mental health professionals of all disciplines

Exploring the Affective Dimensions of Educational Leadership Alysha J. Farrell, 2019-08-22 Bridging the gap between academic parlance and arts based inquiry this unique text presents a socio affective exploration of educational leadership The text challenges inherited ideological and normative assumptions and invites its reader to reimagine leadership as a dynamic emotional and relational process Exploring the Affective Dimensions of Educational Leadership combines the ambiguity of arts based work with the interpretative power of psychoanalysis to illustrate the role of mutuality personal interpretations and formative relations on leadership practices By emphasizing leadership as the constant striving for recognition the chapters expose the affective dimensions that infuse educational leadership practice and in doing so propose a new way for educational leaders to respond to complex and emotionally charged incidents in school contexts thereby promoting democratic practice and positive collegial relations An engaging and insightful text this book will be of great interest to graduate and postgraduate students researchers academics and professionals in the fields of educational leadership educational research and psychoanalysis

Parents and Children in the Mid-Victorian Novel Madeleine Wood, 2020-10-30 This book produces an original argument about the emergence of trauma in the nineteenth century through new readings of Dickens Emily and Charlotte Bronte Collins Gaskell and Elliot Madeleine Wood argues that the mid Victorian novels present their protagonists in a state of damage provoked and defined by the conditions of the mid century family the cross generational relationship is presented as formative and traumatising By presenting family relationships as decisive for our psychological state as well as our social identity the Victorian authors pushed beyond the contemporary scientific models available to them Madeleine Wood analyses the literary and historical conditions of the mid century period that led to this new literary emphasis and which paved the way for the emergence of psychoanalysis in Vienna at the fin de siècle Analysing a series of theoretical texts Madeleine Wood shows that psychoanalysis shares the mid Victorian concern with the unequal relationship between adult and child focusing her reading through Freud's early writings and Jean

Laplanche's general theory of seduction Dark Matter Richard Langston, 2020-08-04 Unravelling the thought of Alexander Kluge and Oskar Negt Collaborators for more than four decades lawyer author filmmaker and multimedia artist Alexander Kluge and social philosopher Oskar Negt are an exceptional duo in the history of Critical Theory precisely because their respective disciplines think so differently Dark Matter argues that what makes their contributions to the Frankfurt School so remarkable is how they think together in spite of these differences Kluge and Negt's gravitational thinking balances not only the abstractions of theory with the concreteness of the aesthetic but also their allegiances to Frankfurt School mentors with their fascination for other German French and Anglo American thinkers distinctly outside the Frankfurt tradition At the core of all their adventures in gravitational thinking is a profound sense that the catastrophic conditions of modern life are not humankind's unalterable fate In opposition to modernity's disastrous state of affairs Kluge and Negt regard the huge mass of dark matter throughout the universe as the lodestar for thinking together with others for dark matter is that absolute guarantee that happier alternatives to our calamitous world are possible As illustrated throughout Langston's study dark matter's promise its critical orientation out of catastrophic modernity finds its expression above all in Kluge's multimedia aesthetic Language of Ruin and Consumption Juliane Prade-Weiss, 2020-07-09 Laments and complaints are among the most ancient poetical forms and ubiquitous in everyday speech Understanding plaintive language however is often prevented by the resentment and fear it evokes Lamenting and complaining seems pointless irreconcilable and destructive Language of Ruin and Consumption examines Freud's approaches to lamenting and complaining the heart of psychoanalytic therapy and theory and takes them as guidelines for reading key works of the modern canon The re negotiation of older ritual dramatic and juridical forms in Rilke Wittgenstein Scholem Benjamin and Kafka puts plaintive language in the center of modern individuality and expounds a fundamental dimension of language neglected in theory reciprocity is at issue in plaintive language Language of Ruin and Consumption advocates that a fruitful reception of psychoanalysis in criticism combines the discussion of psychoanalytical concepts with an adaptation of the hermeneutical principle ignored in most philosophical approaches to language or relegated to mere rhetoric speech is not only by someone and on something but also addressed to someone Ecosophy and Educational Research for the Anthropocene Alysha J. Farrell, 2021-12-23 Problematizing the aims of education in the Anthropocene this text illustrates the value of relational psychoanalytic theory in the study and practice of education amidst the climate crisis Illustrating how dominant educational theory fails to acknowledge climate precarity and the consequences of living beyond the Earth's carrying capacity Ecosophy and Educational Research for the Anthropocene calls for a reorientation of scholarship to decentre the human subject The author discusses the evolution of intersubjective psychoanalysis to make a case for a turn to relational and psychoanalytically informed educational research Chapters foreground areas for educational researchers to consider in pursuing intersubjective inquiries into the affective dimensions of curriculum and pedagogy to foster an emergence of eco attunement and ecosophical educational research EER By framing

an ecosophical approach this book enables educational leaders researchers and educators to fulfil their responsibility to engage in educational praxis which is contextually responsive relationally attuned and recognizant that we cannot be studied apart from our connections to the planet

The Spectral Metaphor E. Peeren, 2014-01-30 What does it mean to live as a ghost Exploring spectrality as a metaphor in the contemporary British and American cultural imagination Peeren proposes that certain subjects migrants servants mediums and missing persons are perceived as living ghosts and examines how this figuration can signify both dispossession and empowerment or agency

The Trauma of Gender Helene Moglen, 2001-02-15 Helene Moglen offers a revisionary feminist argument about the origins cultural function and formal structure of the English novel While most critics and historians have associated the novel's emergence and development with the burgeoning of capitalism and the rise of the middle classes Moglen contends that the novel principally came into being in order to manage the social and psychological strains of the modern sex gender system Rejecting the familiar claim that realism represents the novel's dominant tradition she shows that from its inception in the eighteenth century the English novel has contained both realistic and fantastic narratives which compete for primacy within individual texts

After Evil Robert Meister, 2011-01-05 Mainstream human rights discourse speaks of such evils as the Holocaust slavery or apartheid in ways that put them solidly in the past Its elaborate techniques of transitional justice encourage future generations to move forward but the false assumption of closure enables those who are guilty to elude responsibility This approach to history common to late twentieth century humanitarianism doesn't presuppose that evil ends only when justice begins Rather it assumes that a time before justice is the moment to put evil in the past Merging examples from literature and history Robert Meister confronts the problem of closure and the resolution of historical injustice He boldly challenges the empty moral logic of never again or the theoretical reduction of evil to a cycle of violence and counterviolence that is broken once evil is remembered for what it was Meister calls out such methods for their deferral of justice and susceptibility to exploitation Specifically he spells out the moral logic never again in relation to Auschwitz and its evolution into a twenty first century doctrine of the Responsibility to Protect

On Spectrality David Ratmoko, 2006 Ratmoko English literature U of Zurich and comparative literature Yale U traces the genealogy of ghosts through philosophical literary and religious texts of the Western canon He discusses the spectral history of guilt in law the historical truth of spectrality spectrality in the era of Christianity and Greek tragedy and phantom formations after the Renaissance Annotation 2006 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews.com

On Freud's "Remembering, Repeating and Working-Through" Udo Hock, Dominique Scarfone, 2024-04-22 In On Freud's Remembering Repeating and Working Through international contributors from a range of psychoanalytic backgrounds reflect on this key 1914 paper Each chapter considers an aspect of Freud's original work addressing both the theoretical and clinical dimensions of the paper and incorporating contemporary perspectives Bringing out all three aspects of the paper's title the contributors consider the issues raised by the so called change in psychoanalytic paradigm from the classic central concern of remembering to a clinical experience which prioritises enactment and repetition The reflections on this important paper demonstrate how it goes beyond technique to open new vistas on the conception of psychoanalysis as a whole On Freud's Remembering Repeating and Working Through will be essential reading for psychoanalysts and psychoanalytic psychotherapists in practice and in training It will also be of interest to readers seeking a deeper understanding of current Freudian thinking

Cryptomimesis Carla Jodey Castricano, 2001 In the last thirty years the living dead the revenant the phantom and the crypt have appeared with increasing frequency in Jacques Derrida's writings and for the most part have gone unaddressed In Cryptomimesis Jodey Castricano examines the intersection between Derrida's writing and the Gothic to theorize what she calls Derrida's poetics of the crypt

The Wolf Man's Burden Lawrence Johnson, 2001 The Wolf Man was Sigmund Freud's most famous patient a man whose enigmatic childhood dream of being gazed at by wolves outside his bedroom window bedeviled the founding practitioners of psychoanalysis More than simply a rich source of imagery and meaning though the Wolf Man case might be interpreted as the primal scene of psychoanalysis itself Lawrence Johnson regards the creation of the psychoanalytic case study as the writing of two lives those of the analys and and the analyst so Freud's own biography and subjective viewpoint could hardly fail to bear a direct influence on the institution of psychoanalysis When Freud met the patient known as the Wolf Man Johnson maintains psychoanalysis was at an impasse because of Freud's inability to work through repressed material from his own childhood Freud overcame this impasse through a countertransference that cast his patient in the role of a rival for the control of psychoanalysis his means for vanquishing him set the terms for Freud's legacy to psychoanalysis Johnson offers a rigorous methodological framework for discussing the relationship between psychoanalytic writing and the lives of those who engage in it He fruitfully extends the work of Nicholas Abraham Maria Torok and Jacques Derrida into the realm of Freud's own life The result is both sophisticated psychobiography and psychoanalytic theory grounded firmly in historical lives

The Poetics of Transgenerational Trauma Meera Atkinson, 2017-07-27 The first decades of the twenty first century have been beset by troubling social realities coalition warfare global terrorism and financial crisis climate change epidemics of family violence violence toward women addiction neo colonialism continuing racial and religious conflict While traumas involving large scale or historical violence are widely represented in trauma theory familial trauma is still largely considered a private matter associated with personal failure This book contributes to the emerging field of feminist trauma theory by bringing focus to works that contest this tendency offering new understandings of the significance of the literary testimony and its relationship to broader society The Poetics of Transgenerational Trauma adopts an interdisciplinary approach in examining how the literary testimony of familial transgenerational trauma with its affective and relational contagion illuminates transmissive cycles of trauma that have consequences across cultures and generations It offers bold and insightful readings of works that explore those consequences in story Alison Bechdel's Fun Home: A Family Tragicomic 2006 Hélène Cixous's Hyperdread 2009 Marguerite Duras's The Lover 1992 Pat Barker's Regeneration Trilogy 1999 and Alexis Wright's Carpentaria 2006 and The Swan Book 2013 concluding that such testimony constitutes a fundamentally feminist experiment and encounter The Poetics of Transgenerational Trauma challenges the casting of familial trauma in ahistorical terms and affirms both trauma and writing as social forces of political import
