The First Discovery of Australia and New Guinea George Collingridge, 2019-11-26 In The First Discovery of Australia and New Guinea George Collingridge meticulously chronicles the early European encounters with these two pivotal regions Through a combination of cartographic analysis and vivid historical narrative Collingridge explores the voyages of explorers such as Marco Polo and the impacts of colonial ambitions His literary style seamlessly intertwines meticulous research with imaginative storytelling offering readers both factual rigor and engaging prose The work occupies a significant place in the historiography of early Australian exploration challenging conventional narratives and opening a dialogue on the shifting perceptions of geography and discovery in the 19th century George Collingridge a British born writer and cartographer who immigrated to Australia in the late 19th century was profoundly influenced by the landscapes and cultures he encountered His deep interest in exploration and navigation coupled with his own experiences as an immigrant shaped his perspectives on identity and place Collingridge's extensive background in cartography provided him with a unique lens through which to scrutinize the historical narratives surrounding Australia and New Guinea This book is an essential read for anyone interested in the early history of Australia and New Guinea as well as in the broader themes of discovery and colonialism Collingridge's blend of scholarship and storytelling not only educates but captivates ensuring that readers appreciate the complexities of history through a fresh and insightful lens

Trees as Symbol and Metaphor in the Middle Ages Michael D. J. Bintley, Pippa Saloni, 2024 WINNER AFCEMS Prize 2024 Highlights human encounters with the forest and its trees at the time of the European Middle Ages when their lofty boughs were weighted with meaning Forests with their interlacing networks of trees and secret patterns of communication are powerful entities for thinking with A majestic terrestrial community of arboreal others their presence echoes entangles and resonates deeply with the human world The chapters interrogate the pre Anthropocene environment reflecting on trees as metaphors for kinship and knowledge as they appear in literary historical art historical and philosophical sources They examine images of trees and trees in themselves across a range of environmental material and intellectual contexts and consider how humans used arboreal and rhizomatic forms to negotiate bodies of knowledge and processes of transition Looking beyond medieval Europe they include discussion of parallel developments in the Islamic world and that of the M ori the indigenous people of New Zealand

a copy of his chart and journal The motivation behind Tasman s voyage was profit He was not voyaging into the unknown for fame glory or fortune he was a salaried employee of the Dutch East India Company a multinational trading company His mission was to find new lands with goods to trade He first saw New Zealand on 13th December 1642 Five days later he had a dramatic encounter with the locals a tribe of M ori called Ng ti T matak kiri This was the first meeting of M ori and Europeans Tasman had not found an empty land it had already been discovered and settled New Zealand was discovered by Polynesians from the Central Pacific around 950 AD but remained only sparsely populated for three hundred years In approximately 1300 AD a wave of Polynesian migration began The immigrants that went to New Zealand did so for self preservation They risked the voyage to New Zealand to escape warfare death or starvation On 19th December 1642 Abel Tasman s crews met the locals with fatal consequences Those local M ori were descendants of the crew of the waka Kurahaup who had arrived in New Zealand about 300 years earlier Two Voyages follows the journeys of the waka Kurahaup its occupants and their descendants and Abel Tasman and his crew It follows the journeys from their origins to their point of coincidence in Golden Bay This wonderfully illustrated book explores the discovery of New Zealand by the Polynesians and by the Europeans after them It looks at the factors giving impetus to the two journeys the people who undertook them their routes the means by which they travelled and their tragic first meeting There are many books about the history of New Zealand that begin with the arrival of Europeans this one ends there
