The Visible and Invisible Group

Yvonne M. Agazarian, 2018-04-17 Understanding the psychodynamics of groups has derived from the two separate strands of theory and practice resulting in two separate disciplines group psychotherapy and group dynamics Present day group psychotherapy derives mainly from psychoanalytic theory and Bion's early experiences with wartime groups and has been developed from the work of clinicians who practice group psychotherapy as a form of treatment Group dynamics theory and practice on the other hand have arisen largely from the work of social scientists like Kurt Lewin have been researched in the field and in the laboratory and have been applied to groups as arenas for leadership training and behavioral change The Visible and Invisible Group synthesizes these psychoanalytic and group approaches to group life and offers practical guidelines to the group psychotherapist The authors advocate the simultaneous use of two perspectives the psychoanalytic perspective for observing the visible group of people and their interactions and a General Systems Field Theory perspective for observing the invisible group as a whole American Lit Remixed Melissa J. Sit on Our Hands, or Stand on Our Feet? Roger Philip Abbott, 2013-01-07 The aim of Sit on Our Hands or Stand on Our Feet is not to present a theology that explains disasters In fact there is no such theology Nor is this work primarily for those who are responded to it is not part of the theological grab bag that Christian responders carry with them to use for the benefit of casualties It is more a part of the Christian's engaged practical theological apprenticeship prior to and during a response This book represents the role of the practical theologian who empowers the church community's legitimization and contribution in disaster response and who encourages individual Christians whose calling into particularly relevant professions whose natural skills and or professional training could find them placed in a major incident responding status paid or voluntary doing their work as unto the Lord It is a serious must read for any Christians who have hearts heavy with compassion but who are not sure what to do or why when disaster strikes
