Formational Children's Ministry (ēmersion: Emergent Village resources for communities of faith) Ivy Beckwith,2010-01-01 Much ministry to children looks more like mere entertainment than authentic spiritual formation But what if children s ministries were rooted in a mind set whereby we taught children with our words and actions how the story of God the story of church history the story of the local community and the story of the child intersect and speak to one another What if children s ministry was less about downloading information into kids heads and more about leading them into these powerful compelling stories Beckwith aims to help ministers and parents create a ministry that captures children s imaginations not just to keep them occupied but to live as citizens of the kingdom of God In addition to providing theological reasons for formational children s ministry the book offers examples of how Ivy and other practitioners are implementing a formational model

For Such a Time as This Risher, Sharon, Emmons, Sherri Wood, 2019-06-11 The instant her phone rang, Reverend Sharon Risher sensed something was horribly wrong. Something had happened at Emanuel AME Church, the church of her youth in Charleston, South Carolina, and she knew her mother was likely in the church at Bible study. Even before she heard the news, her chaplain's instinct told her the awful truth: her mother was dead, along with two cousins. What she couldn't imagine was that they had been murdered by a white supremacist. Plunged into the depths of mourning and anger and shock, Sharon could have wallowed in the pain. Instead, she chose the path of forgiveness and hope, eventually forgiving the convicted killer for his crime. In this powerful memoir of faith, family, and loss, Sharon begins the story with her mother, Ethel Lee Lance, seeking refuge in the church from poverty and scorn and raising her family despite unfathomable violence that rattled Sharon to her core. Years later, how Sharon overcame her own struggles and answered the call to ministry, and how in the loss of her dear mother, Sharon has become a nationally known speaker as she shares her raw, riveting story of losing loved ones to gun violence and racism. Sharon's story is a story of transformation. How an anonymous hospital chaplain was thrust into the national spotlight, joining survivors of other gun-related horrors as reluctant speakers for a heartbroken social justice movement. As she recounts her grief and the struggle to forgive the killer, Risher learns to trust God's timing and lean on God's loving presence to guide her steps. Where her faith journey leads her is surprising and inspiring as she finds a renewed purpose to her life in the company of other survivors. Risher has been interviewed by Time Magazine, Marie Claire, Essence, Guardian, BBC Radio, CNN, and other media sources. She regularly shares her story on American college campuses and racial reconciliation events. To Forgive a Killer, her essay as told to Abigail Pesta, published in Notre Dame Magazine, won the 2018 Front Page Award for Essay, published in a Magazine awarded by the Newswomen's Club of New York. NKJV Life Application Study Bible, Third Edition Tyndale, 2022-10-18 Trusted and treasured by millions of readers over 30 years, the Life Application Study Bible is today's #1 selling study Bible.
