March, 2002 Rewriting Scotland examines six of the most influential and cutting edge contemporary Scottish writers as they redefine outmoded notions of Scottish identity From Irvine Welsh's windows into Scottish youth culture in Trainspotting to Janice Galloway's examinations of the duality of female isolation and empowerment this unique work reveals new explorations of Scottish gender politics sexuality voice and self awareness Scottish

Literature in English and Scots Douglas Gifford, Sarah Dunnigan, Alan MacGillivray, Beth Dickson, 2002 This substantial new volume is a stimulating yet in depth introduction to Scottish literature in English and Scots From medieval to modern the entire range of literature is introduced examined and explored Aimed primarily at those with an interest in Scottish literature this guide also responds to the need for students and teachers to have detailed discussions of individual authors and texts The volume looks at Scottish literature in six period sections Early Scottish Literature Eighteenth Century The Age of Scott Victorian and Edwardian The Twentieth Century Scottish Literary Renaissance and Scottish Literature since 1945 Each section begins with an overview of the period followed by several chapters examining exemplary authors and texts Each section finishes with an extensive discussion including suggestions as to how to further explore the rich and often neglected hinterlands of Scottish writing Extensive reading lists identify primary texts of the period as well as details of a wide range of additional authors Opening up neglected areas of study as well as responding to the burgeoning interest in novelists modern poets and dramatists this book serves as an invaluable guide to Scottish Literature Ethically Speaking James
