Go Now! Wendell Martin, 2023-08-01 Go Now is the true story of Wendell Martin and the amazing adventure he found himself caught up in when he dared to answer God's call to Go to Hong Kong Now. The book is filled with bold faith and miracle stories that take you among the wild head hunters in northern Philippines to Communist China where Wendell and his wife Daisy made over 1000 border crossings with suitcases loaded with Bibles. It is the story of how God miraculously opened the way to deliver the gospel into every home in Hong Kong and the surprising miracle that launched a ministry among thousands of Vietnamese Boat People detained in refugee camps in Hong Kong. However, this book is more than just amazing missionary stories. Wendell gives you an intimate inside look at how God worked deep in his heart, the lessons learned in God's School of Hard Knocks, and how the power of God rescued a discontented young man and crafted him into an effective tool for His service.

Disciplinary and Dissent in Cultural Studies Cary Nelson, Dilip Gaonkar, 2013-10-28 First published in 1996. As recently as the early 1990s, people wondered what was the future of cultural studies in the United States and what effects its increasing internationalization might have. What type of projects would cultural studies inspire people to undertake? Would established disciplines welcome its presence and adapt their practices accordingly? Disciplinary and Dissent in Cultural Studies answers such questions. It is now clear that while striking and innovative work is underway in many different fields.

most disciplinary organizations and structures have been very resistant to cultural studies. Meanwhile cultural studies has been subjected to repeated attacks by conservative journalists and commentators in the public sphere. Cultural studies scholars have responded not only by mounting focused critiques of the politics of knowledge but also by embracing ambitious projects of social political and cultural commentary by transgressing all the official boundaries of knowledge in a broad quest for cultural understanding. This book tracks these debates and maps future strategies for cultural studies in academia and public life. The contributors to Disciplinary and Dissent in Cultural Studies include established scholars and new voices. In a series of polemic and exploratory essays written especially for this book they track the struggle with cultural studies in disciplines like anthropology literature and history and between cultural studies and very different domains like Native American culture and the culture of science. Contributors include Arjun Appadurai Michael Denning Lawrence Grossberg Cary Nelson Constance Penley Andrew Ross and Lynn Spigel. Children's Books In Print 1998 Bowker Editorial Staff, R. R.
