Looking At Architecture:

Architects Make Zigzags Diane Maddex, 1986-08 An alphabet book of twenty six architectural concepts with drawings and definitions of such terms as dormer facade and newel post Looking Around Witold Rybczynski, 1993 An inspired engaging look at what architecture is and how we live and work in it by the acclaimed author of Home and The Most Beautiful House in the World Rybczynski discusses buildings like the Wexner Center for the Visual Arts demonstrates how architecture actually works and more The Look of Architecture Witold Rybczynski, 2001 A bestselling author offers a highly entertaining and insightful look at the meaning and importance of style to architecture This is a book brimming with sharp observations as it shows the connection between architecture interior decoration and fashion 10 line illustrations

Architects Make Zigzags Roxie Munro, Diane Maddex, 1995-06 An alphabet book of twenty six architectural concepts with drawings and definitions of such terms as dormer facade and newel post Archi-Graphic Frank Jacobus, 2015-10-27 This informative and engaging book uses a variety of inventive infographics to take an unusual look at architecture in a way that would not be possible with words and images alone Through a variety of different infographics it compares for example the range of materials and colours used by different architects the relative locations of their buildings who influenced who and which architects are the most discussed It also approaches architecture from more unconventional angles with spreads that show the kinds of architecture favoured by dictators the networks of love affairs that architects got entangled in the defining facial features of famous architects and so on Irreverent and entertaining this book will appeal to all those with an interest in architecture or infographics Experiencing Art and Architecture Sanda Iliescu, 2022-03-22 In this multidisciplinary book Sanda Iliescu articulates a rich multi faceted approach to the aesthetic experience Through in depth discussions of her own lived encounters with art architecture and the world around her she advocates a way of looking that blends sensory perception formal analysis social and political consciousness and personal memory Focusing special attention on the aesthetic concept of the figure ground problem the author challenges this foundational principle s presumed hierarchies and shows how a new and more dynamic understanding of it can enhance our way of looking at and understanding art and architecture Works discussed in the book include a wide range of contemporary and historic art and architecture among them artworks by Rembrandt Matisse Eva Hesse and David Hammons architecture by Zaha Hadid Peter Zumthor and Weiss Manfredi and non Western works such as a thirteenth century Chinese vase and the Ry anji dry garden in Kyoto Japan Personal and engaging this book is for a wide audience of those practicing studying or with an interest in the creative fields from beginners to seasoned professionals A Life in Architecture James Birrell, 2014-04-01 In A Life In Architecture James Birrell reflects on his life in architecture the influence of architect Roy Grounds his respect for Walter Burley Griffin s original Canberra plan and his emphasis on the value of incorporating the landscape in its entirety into building design and planning and his own significant contribution to Australia s post war architecture Birrell writes candidly about Queensland s lacklustre approach to town planning during the 1950s the iconic buildings he designed in his years as Chief Architect for Brisbane City Council and the revolutionary planning schemes he developed at The University of Queensland and James Cook University in Papua New Guinea and regional Queensland Now at the age of 84 Birrell comments on Robin Boyd's 1960 book The Australian Ugliness While acknowledging the influence Boyd had on Australian architecture he prompts readers to take a moment to consider their built environment in the light of the architectural legacy and lineage created by Griffin Grounds and others

Why Architecture Matters Paul Goldberger, 2009-11-03 Why Architecture Matters is not a work of architectural history or a guide to the styles or an architectural dictionary though it contains elements of all three The purpose of Why Architecture Matters is to come to grips with how things feel to us when we stand before them with how architecture affects us emotionally as well as intellectually with its impact on our lives Architecture begins to matter writes Paul Goldberger when it brings delight and sadness and perplexity and awe along with a roof over our heads He shows us how that works in examples ranging from a small Cape Cod cottage to the vast flowing Prairie houses of Frank Lloyd Wright from the Lincoln Memorial to the highly sculptural Guggenheim Bilbao and the Church of Sant Ivo in Rome where simple geometries create a work of architecture that embraces the deepest complexities of human imagination Based on decades of looking at buildings and thinking about how we experience them the distinguished critic raises our awareness of fundamental things like proportion scale space texture materials shapes light and memory Upon completing this remarkable architectural journey readers will enjoy a wonderfully rewarding new way of seeing and experiencing every aspect of the built world The Architect ,1921 Neo-liberalism and the Architecture of the Post Professional Era Hossein Sadri,2018-04-27 This book discusses the effects of Neo Liberal policies on the transformations of architectural and urban practices and education in the transition from the era of professionalism to post professionalism Building on previous literature in the field of contemporary theory of architecture it provides the necessary resources for the study of contemporary architecture and urban politics urban sociology local administration and urban geography Further it develops a political and critical perspective on contemporary practices of architecture and urbanism their implementation legal background political effects and social results The book will interest readers from a wide range of academic disciplines from political science to architecture and from urban studies to sociology

Architect Knows Best Simon Richards,2016-04-15 The idea that buildings could be used to reform human behaviour and improve society was fundamental to the modernist architecture and planning of people like Walter Gropius Le Corbusier and Jos Luis Sert in the first half of the 20th century Their proposals for functional zoning multi level transport high rise living and machine inspired aesthetics came under attack from the 1950s onwards and many alternative approaches to architecture and planning emerged It was thought that the environmental determinist strand of the discourse was killed off at this time as well This book argues that it was not but on the contrary that it has deepened and diversified Many of the most prominent architect planners continue to design with a view to improving the behaviour of individual people and of society at large By looking at and interviewing major figures and movements of recent years in Britain Europe and America including L on Krier Peter Eisenman Andr s Duany Jane Jacobs Robert Venturi and Denise Scott Brown it demonstrates the myriad ways that architect planners seek to shape human behaviour through buildings In doing so the book raises awareness of this strand within the discourse and examines its different purposes and manifestations It questions whether it is an ineradicable and beneficial part of architecture and planning or a regrettable throwback to a more authoritarian phase discusses why is it seldom acknowledged directly and whether it could be handled more responsibly and with greater understanding Richards does not provide any simple solutions but in conclusion is critical of architect planners who abuse the rhetoric of social reform simply to leverage their attempts to secure building commissions while being more sympathetic towards those who appear to have a sincere desire to improve society through their buildings The Conservator ,1906
