

Example Literary Essay: The Giver by Lois Lowry

Example Introduction Paragraph:

“The real voyage of discovery consists not in seeking new landscapes, but in having new eyes.” This quote by Marcel Proust speaks of discovering what’s right in front of you by seeing it differently, with “new eyes.” The main character, Jonas, in Lois Lowry’s The Giver goes through a similar experience when he discovers his “Capacity to See Beyond.” Jonas begins to see his Community differently, with an awareness or mindfulness that most people in the Community have lacked. Mindfulness, in fact, is one of central themes in The Giver. Although the book begins with what seems to be a perfect place, it turns out that the people in the Community are living shallow and superficial lives. As Jonas begins his work as the Receiver of Memories, he gains wisdom and through that wisdom, learns that in protecting the Community from the memories, their lives have lacked feeling and understanding. In the end, Jonas learns to value his new way of seeing and chooses to risk everything to restore mindfulness and wisdom to everyone in the Community.

Example Body Paragraph for First Argument (Main Point #1):

The people in Jonas’s Community share their feelings with family members in their dwellings each evening. However, the feelings they share are merely surface feelings shared by mindless people numbly going about their day, shallow and superficial. For example, when Lily expressed anger over the incident at the park with the boy from another community who did not follow the rules, it was not truly anger. Instead, Jonas realized, she felt “impatience and exasperation” (pages

Modern Popular Literature Orestes Augustus Brownson, 1888 Goethe's Literary Essays Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, 2020-09-14 Professor Spingarn has done students of literature a real favor for he has gathered into a single and well made volume golden pages from one of the great masters of literature As divergent minded judges as Carlyle Matthew Arnold and Sainte Beuve acclaimed Goethe the supreme literary critic of all time and whatever might be said against so superlative an opinion certainly Goethe's many sidedness his undoubted genius and his keen insight all conspired to give his judgments on literature a value too great to be ignored All phases of his critical activity are represented in this excellent volume which is the work of several translators all of high standard Goethe was keenly interested in French and in English literature no less than in German and for the English reader there will be much to stimulate thought in his sympathetic appreciation of Shakespeare Those of us who have found the great dramatist's plays strangely failing in power to lift us out of ourselves can find much to ponder over in Goethe's declaration Shakespeare gets his effect by means of the living word and it is for this reason that one should hear him read for then the attention is not distracted either by a too adequate or too inadequate stage setting There is no higher pleasure than to sit with closed eyes and hear a naturally expressive voice recite not declaim a play of Shakespeare's Goethe was no hard and fast critic and as he re-read a book and found that it appealed to him in a new light he did not hesitate to revise his earlier opinions and even to call attention to corrected impressions or reversals of judgments It was because of his open-mindedness to new impressions that his critical dicta appear perennially fresh and stimulate the reader by their frankness and their vitality The task of collecting these admirable and valuable essays required a scholar It found one in Professor Spingarn to whom the lovers of the best in literature owe genuine gratitude for this volume The essays are grouped under The theory of art The theory of literature On Shakespeare On other writers Extracts from the conversations with Eckermann
