New Celibacy:

The New Celibacy Gabrielle Brown, 1980      The Family in America Joseph M. Hawes, Elizabeth F. Shores, 2002-05-22 An incisive multidisciplinary look at the American family over the past 200 years written by respected scholars and researchers Family in America offers two powerful antidotes to popular misconceptions about American family life historical perspective and scientific objectivity When we look back at our early history we discover that the idealized 1950s family characterized by a rising birthrate a stable divorce rate and a declining age of marriage was a historical aberration out of line with long term historical trends Working mothers we learn are not a 20th century invention most families throughout American history have needed more than one breadwinner In the exciting new scholarship described here readers will learn precisely what is new in American family life and what is not and acquire the perspective they need to appreciate both the genuine improvements and the losses that come with change      Sanctified Sexuality Sandra Glahn, C. Gary Barnes, 2020-09-22 Expert biblical and practical advice for handling today's most challenging sexual issues Although modern culture constantly changes its views on sexuality God's design for sexuality remains the same Bringing together twenty five expert contributors in relevant fields of study Gary Barnes and Sandra Glahn address the most important and controversial areas of sexuality that Christians face today From a scriptural perspective and with an irenic tone the contributors address issues such as The theology of the human body Male and female in the Genesis creation accounts Abortion Celibacy Sexuality in marriage Contraception Infertility Cohabitation Divorce and remarriage Same sex attraction Gender dysphoria An ideal handbook for pastors counselors instructors and students Sanctified Sexuality provides solid answers and prudent advice for the many questions Christians encounter on a daily basis      Singleness in Britain, 1960-1990: Identity, Gender and Social Change Emily Priscott, 2020-07-07 This book contributes to an emerging field of research looking at the significance of marital status to debates about identity and gender It examines representations and experiences of single men and women between 1960 and 1990 using a wide variety of sources including digitized British newspapers social research films and lifestyle literature Whilst much existing work focuses on the early to mid 20th centuries such as Katherine Holden's ground breaking work The Shadow of Marriage Singleness in England 1914-1960 this book alternatively examines the impact of the 1960s and the aftermath of changing attitudes to singleness While Holden and others such as Virginia Nicholson in Singled Out focus largely on social status and lived experience often through oral testimony the author is just as interested in finding new ways of looking at gender and sexuality This work starts from the premise that a distinct double standard existed in attitudes towards single men and women which continued even after the wave of legislation to improve women's status during the 1960s Examining these often vastly different expectations reveals a complex web of progress continuity and contradictions highlighting the uneven pace of social change and its frequent compromises and limitations Using theoretical approaches such as feminism and queer theory this work explores the impact of changing gender norms on issues including single fatherhood old maid stereotypes and experiences of homelessness It can be used as a study aid for 20th century British history and gender studies courses and might also interest both established academics and intellectually curious non academic readers The author has made efforts where possible to clearly explain her theoretical approaches and interventions for those who might be unfamiliar with them

International Theological Commission Michael Sharkey,2009-09-03 Foreword by Joseph Cardinal Ratzinger This is one of a two volume collection of texts and documents issued by the International Theological Commission ITC a body of theologians that advises the Vatican s Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith The texts and documents of the ITC address pressing theological issues drawing upon theological experts from around the world who represent differing branches of theology yet who share a common commitment to authentically Catholic theological reflection Volume 1 1969 1985 includes texts and documents exploring the following themes reflections on the objectives and methods of the ITC priestly ministry theological pluralism apostolic succession Christian ethics the relationship of theology to the Magisterium human development and human salvation Christian marriage Christology penance and reconciliation the dignity and rights of the human person ecclesiology and the consciousness of Christ The special contribution of the Commission is to gain a hearing for the common voice of theology amid all the diversities that exist For notwithstanding the legitimate pluralism of theological cultures in the Church the unity of theology must remain and empower theologians to offer some common account of their subject In these pages therefore one will not find the exciting theses of innovative individuals If there is excitement here it lies in the discovery that even in our contemporary situation it is possible to say something together despite all our differences and so to take part together in a further exploration of the one faith of the Church All the texts which follow are the fruit of a long and often difficult dialogue In that dialogue not only have various disciplines methods and ways of thought found a common path Over and above that the wider dialogue of theologians with the bishops as well as between bishops and the Petrine office in the Church has found a voice It is precisely for this reason that the Theological Commission represents an authentic continuation of the great experience of the Council and a clarification of its true bearing
