My Year of Buying Nothing Lee Simpson,2015-09-29 Lee Simpson may seem like an unlikely candidate to don the mantle of anti consumerist prophet She is after all the former publisher of Canada s most successful women s lifestyles magazine Chatelaine But that is just the first of many surprising things about her new book My Year of Buying Nothing In the 1980s and 90s Simpson oversaw the heady days of women s magazine publishing Although proud of the excellent journalism featured in her magazines and of the pioneering work of the editors she worked with her primary role as senior executive was to ensure that a maximum number of advertising pages got sold I was part of the data analysis and market research conglomerate that helped consumer predators know your weaknesses and exploit them mercilessly In My Year of Buying Nothing Simpson invites readers into her world to witness first hand the struggles she faced the decisions and compromises she had to make and the epiphanies and wisdom she won during her year long attempt to shed her consumer skin and live a more sustainable more authentic more earth friendly life Who better to choose as a guide to a new healthier post consumer lifestyle than someone who is intimately familiar with the pitfalls and dangers of the starting place and the challenges of the way forward

Culinary Landmarks Elizabeth Driver,2008-01-01 Culinary Landmarks is a definitive history and bibliography of Canadian cookbooks from the beginning when La cuisini re bourgeoise was published in Quebec City in 1825 to the mid twentieth century Over the course of more than ten years Elizabeth Driver researched every cookbook published within the borders of present day Canada whether a locally authored text or a Canadian edition of a foreign work Every type of recipe collection is included from trade publishers bestsellers and advertising cookbooks to home economics textbooks and fund raisers from church women's groups The entries for over 2 200 individual titles are arranged chronologically by their province or territory of publication revealing cooking and dining customs in each part of the country over 125 years Full bibliographical descriptions of first and subsequent editions are augmented by author biographies and corporate histories of the food producers and kitchen equipment manufacturers who often published the books Driver's excellent general introduction sets out the evolution of the cookbook genre in Canada while brief introductions for each province identify regional differences in developments and trends Four indexes and a Chronology of Canadian Cookbook History provide other points of access to the wealth of material in this impressive reference book Maclean's, 1955

Canada's national magazine Quill & Quire, 1999 Sisters Or Strangers Franca Iacovetta, Frances Swyripa, Marlene Epp, 2004-01-01 Spanning two hundred years of history from the nineteenth century to the 1990s Sisters or Strangers explores the complex lives of immigrant ethnic and racialized women in Canada The volume deals with a cross section of peoples including Japanese Chinese Black Aboriginal Irish Finnish Ukrainian Jewish Mennonite Armenian and South Asian Hindu women and diverse groups of women including white settlers refugees domestic servants consumer activists nurses wives and mothers The central themes of Sisters or Strangers include discourses of race in the context of nation building encounters with the state and public institutions symbolic and media representations of women familial relations domestic violence and racism and analyses of history and memory In different ways the authors question whether the historical experience of women in Canada represents a sisterhood of challenge and opportunity or if the racial class or marginalized identity of the immigrant and minority women made them in fact strangers in a country where privilege and opportunity fall according to criteria of exclusion Using a variety of theoretical approaches this collaborative work reminds us that victimization and agency are never mutually exclusive and encourages us to reflect critically on the categories of race gender and the nation
