New Directions In Education Selections From Holistic Education Review:

New Directions in Education Ron Miller, 1991 Resources in Education , 1997 Integral Education Sean Esbjörn-Hargens, Jonathan Reams, Olen Gunnlaugson, 2010-08-01 The educational challenges being faced today are driving us toward a new step in the evolution of educational theory and practice Educators are called to go beyond simply presenting alternatives to integrating the best of mainstream and alternative approaches and taking them to the next level Integral Education accomplishes this by bringing together leading researchers and practitioners from higher education who are actively exploring the frontiers of education from an integral perspective It presents an overview of the emerging landscape of integral education from a variety of theoretical and applied perspectives Key characteristics of integral education include exploring multiple perspectives employing different pedagogical techniques e g reflective dialogical empirical combining conceptual rigor with embodied experience drawing on developmental psychology and cultivating a reflective and transformative space for students and teachers alike Integral Education provides the most comprehensive synopsis of this exciting new approach and serves as a valuable resource for any integral effort within education New Visions and New Voices Clifford Mayes, Susan Persing, Cynthia Schumacher, 2021-12-09 In this book Clifford Mayes and his associates take archetypal pedagogy a Jungian approach to teaching and learning and extend it beyond just the educational processes that take place in classrooms which are those spaces that a culture dedicates to the generation and acquisition of codified scholastic knowledge It looks at the archetypal dynamics of teaching and learning as fundamental to human existence itself From the cradle to the grave we are involved in informing and shaping the worldviews of others just as they are involved in impacting ours Deep relationship an I Thou relationship not only allows but requires this to be the case so that the discussants can become what Martin Buber called dialogical partners engaged in both mutual critique and mutual affirmation as they reach new planes of knowledge and even presence Such teaching and learning are what Mayes calls educative acts This book explores educative acts in a wide range of venues and concerning a variety of issues Teaching Competencies for 21st Century Teachers Pradeep Kumar Misra, 2023-12-12 A must read for every teacher in the 21st century this book provides a comprehensive guide to facilitating joyful sustainable holistic multidisciplinary and active learning The book discusses different approaches principles techniques and activities for creating a classroom where different learning types can thrive The methods outlined in this volume help teachers ensure that every learner regardless of background or orientation can engage in participatory reflective self directed experiential entrepreneurial and collaborative learning and develop holistically Essential for the 21st century the book highlights the significance of digital technologies and examines how teachers can easily use digital technologies to offer personalized and blended learning This book is a vital resource for teachers who want to improve their teaching skills and create a positive and engaging learning environment for their learners This book helps teachers across the globe to enhance learning outcomes in classrooms and subsequently develop the quality of their education systems This volume is useful to students researchers and teachers in education psychology development studies social work and sociology It is also an invaluable companion to policymakers and professionals from government and non government organisations working in the education and social development sectors

Seven Curricular Landscapes Clifford Mayes,2003 Seven Curricular Landscapes offers a holistic presentation and critique of what the author considers to be the seven major types of curricula This book which is suitable for both upper division and graduate education courses differs from previous holistic approaches in that it closely considers the holistic implications of postmodernism adds new categories and terms to the holistic repertoire includes the latest developments in transpersonal theory examines the Existentialist curriculum as a spiritual phenomenon and discusses the curricular implications of both Eastern and Western spirituality

EcoJustice Education Rebecca A. Martusewicz,Jeff Edmundson,John Lupinacci,2014-08-21 EcoJustice Education offers a powerful model for cultural ecological analysis and a pedagogy of responsibility providing teachers and teacher educators with the information and classroom practices they need to help develop citizens who are prepared to support and achieve diverse democratic and sustainable societies in an increasingly globalized world Readers are asked to consider curricular strategies to bring these issues to life in their own classrooms across disciplines Designed for introductory educational foundations and multicultural education courses the text is written in a narrative conversational style grounded in place and experience but also pushes students to examine the larger ideological social historical and political contexts of the crises humans and the planet we inhabit are facing Pedagogical features in each chapter include a Conceptual Toolbox activities accompanying the theoretical content examples of lessons and teacher reflections and suggested readings films and links The Second Edition features a new chapter on Anthropocentrism new material on Heterosexism updated statistics and examples throughout new and updated Companion Website content

Sustaining the Writing Spirit Susan A. Schiller,2014-03-04 Sustaining the Writing Spirit Holistic Tools for School and Home second edition is aimed at all educators at school or home seeking non traditional ways to enliven the growth potential of the whole learner Schiller urges educators to accept a holistic orientation for learning one that combines the physical social emotional and spiritual with the intellect rather than primarily basing learning on the intellect Included are details on background historical development and philosophical explanations of holistic education including a timeline of key people and ideas This new edition also addresses sustainability and spirituality as the core of holistic learning and the teaching activities provide context and processes for writing that encourage activating multiple intelligences It also has a cross disciplinary quality and could be used in a number of educational settings

Participation and the Mystery Jorge N. Ferrer, 2017-04-12 A groundbreaking and hopeful new look at contemporary spirituality transpersonal psychology integral education and religious diversity and pluralism Participation and the Mystery is both an introduction to and expansion of Jorge N Ferrer's groundbreaking work on participatory spirituality which holds that human beings are active cocreators of spiritual phenomena worlds and even ultimates After examining the impact of his work since the publication of Revisioning Transpersonal Theory Ferrer discusses the relationship between science and transpersonal psychology the nature of a fully embodied spirituality and the features of integral spiritual practice The book also introduces a participatory philosophy of education and applies it to the academic teaching of mysticism and a novel approach to embodied spiritual inquiry Critically engaging the influential work of Stanislov Grof Ken Wilber and A H Almaas Ferrer concludes with an original solution to the problem of religious pluralism that affirms the ontological richness of religious worlds while avoiding the extremes of perennialism and contextualism offering a hopeful vision for the future of world religion Participation and the Mystery is an invaluable resource to anyone seeking to deepen their understanding of participatory approaches to transpersonal psychology integral and contemplative education contemporary spirituality and religious studies In Participation and the Mystery we are given the opportunity to dive into the engaging provocative and stunningly erudite thought of Jorge N Ferrer arguably one of the premier transpersonal theorists of our time Building on the key essays written after the publication of his seminal work Revisioning Transpersonal Theory Ferrer shows us how his compelling and extremely fertile participatory model can be applied with intriguing and rewarding results to multiple highly distinct fields of discourse Read this book if you want your worldview to be both challenged and enriched G William Barnard author of Living Consciousness The Metaphysical Vision of Henri Bergson Ferrer is a leading figure in transpersonal psychology His participatory perspective explains both the deep commonalities and the creative diversity of spiritual traditions It provides a way to understand the general phenomenon of spirituality without falling prey to ideological dogmatism or the tendency to privilege one's own spiritual tradition or practice over others Ferrer's work deserves to be widely read Michael Washburn author of Transpersonal Psychology in Psychoanalytic Perspective This is an important collection of essays from one of the leading contemporary thinkers in transpersonal studies Ferrer's participatory approach represents the most significant development in transpersonal theory and practice to have emerged this century and this book is the ideal introduction to Ferrer's work It will become required reading for all students of transpersonal psychology as well as for anyone seeking to deepen their understanding of transformational practice transpersonal education spirituality and religion Michael Daniels author of Shadow Self Spirit Essays in Transpersonal Psychology Rich and thought provoking this book ranges widely through Ferrer's reflections on the participatory worldview in relation to psychology education and religion Andrew O Fort Texas Christian University

Teaching for EcoJustice Rebecca A. Martusewicz, Jeff Edmundson, John Lupinacci, 2011-05-20 This text offers a powerful model for cultural ecological analysis and pedagogy of responsibility providing educators with information and classroom practices they need to educate future citizens for diverse democratic and sustainable communities

Understanding the Whole Student Clifford Mayes, Ramona Maile Cutri, Neil Goslin, Fidel Montero, 2016-03-03 Understanding the Whole Student presents a holistic approach to multicultural educational issues by viewing them in terms of the student as a physical psychosocial cognitive ethical and spiritual being Conversely these levels of a student's being cannot be seen apart from the student's cultural identities This unique book demonstrates that in a pluralistic democracy good teaching and deep learning must be multicultural and must look at the student as a whole being not just as a future worker in a transnational corporate economy as is currently the case with both neo liberal and neo conservative programs for reform The authors contend that good education is and must be multicultural in order to gain a deeper perspective on issues under analysis in the classroom through the sharing and negotiating of many different cultural perspectives

Learning and Teaching for the Twenty-First Century Rupert Maclean, 2007-10-05 This book stresses learning and teaching over teaching and learning The contributors contend that education should not focus primarily on teachers and teaching but on learners how best to facilitate learning in the most effective enjoyable relevant and cost effective ways for learners at any age The book brings together thoughts and insights by international leaders in the fields of teaching and learning It seeks to build bridges between researchers policy makers and practitioners

Developing the Whole Student Clifford Mayes, 2019-12-31 This book proposes a new way of categorizing curricula in the holistic educational tradition This is an idea that goes back in the Western tradition at least as far as Plato and Lao Tzu in the Eastern tradition It is certainly present in Spinoza and Schopenhauer It is called a holarchy The idea of a holarchy gives rise to Integrative Curriculum Theory which with major modifications draws on Ken Wilber's in his evolutionary model of the development of consciousness at personal cultural and ontological realms Integrative Curriculum Theory will 1 Prove a useful addition to the holistic repertoire of systematic and above all humane terminologies and technologies for making and evaluating specific curricula as well as for theorizing the curriculum at a time when scientific technist and profit driven views of education have commandeered the podium policy and praxis and 2 address some areas of concern that with certain holistic models of education and 3 address some problems in Wilber's integral model of psychological cultural and spiritual evolution

Nurturing Young Children as Spiritual Beings in a Globalized World Elizabeth Rouse, Brendan Hyde, Tony Eade, 2024-10-17 This book brings together leading academics and practitioners to provide research informed strategies for nurturing young children as spiritual beings Globalization and performativity have led to a narrowing of education in early years settings and schools and this book considers the types of knowledge and capabilities children and educators need to address the challenges this presents The chapters explore and critique existing practices in a range of areas including sustainability inclusion relationships with parents ethics of care and the role of the arts Written by contributors based in Australia Canada Malta the UK and the USA the book offers theoretical discussion and practical strategies to help educators nurture young children's spirituality emphasising holistic approaches and caring relationships as an antidote to current neoliberal discourse A Journey in Search of Wholeness and Meaning Rupert Clive Collister, 2010 This book explores the concept that the reality which is created by the consciousness inherent in the Western worldview is exceptionally limiting and probably unsustainable After describing the contexts within which the book was written the author documents his personal journey in search of wholeness and meaning From his experience of this journey he suggests that the wisdom insight and praxis contained within what he describes as the meta narratives of Holism Indigenous cultures and Eastern traditions are manifestations of a holistic consciousness The author explores the concept that a shift to such a holistic consciousness is required in order to redress the imbalance that is evident in all humanity's relationships and he suggests that enabling such a shift in consciousness would have deep implications for the concepts and contexts of community adult learning meaningful work and sustainability Education on the Edge of Possibility Renate Nummela Caine, Geoffrey Caine, 1997 In this book educators will find out what happened when authors took their theory of learning which is based on a wholistic interpretation of brain research and strived to bring it to life in two schools

Environmental Liberation Education Micaela Rubalcava, 2024-08-19 Environmental Liberation Education offers an easy to use culturally responsive and student centered teaching approach to academic engagement and systemic change It explains social emotional tools and inquiry practices to discuss reflect and act for superdiverse student success happiness and global citizenship in a challenging biodiverse world The book presents three Transformative Tools Diversity Circles to organize Multicultural Mindfulness to process and Approach in Dimension to assess The Tools show educators at all levels across disciplines how to reduce bias and make sustainability decisions daily They empower teachers to develop peace for academic concentration in busy classrooms through a holistic understanding of body mind culture and environment The book offers a range of classroom based and professional development exercises for critical consciousness including mindfulness practices transformative journal worksheets cultural actions and a self survey to establish a baseline for hands on diversity well being and sustainability competencies Synthesizing multicultural and environmental education through mindfulness practices Environmental Liberation Education is an invaluable resource for educators in training and practicing teachers The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
