The Value of Hawai'i 3 Noelani Goodyear-Ka'ōpua, Craig Howes, Jonathan Kay Kamakawiwo'ole Osorio, Aiko Yamashiro, 2020-10-31 Huihio refers to massive upheavals that change the landscape overturn the normal reverse the flow and sweep away the prevailing or assumed We live in such days Pandemics Threats to a Political dysfunction cultural appropriation and disrespect But also powerful surges toward sustainability autonomy and sovereignty The first two volumes of The Value of Hawai'i Knowing the Past Facing the Future and Ancestral Roots Oceanic Visions ignited public conversations testimony advocacy and art for political and social change These books argued for the value of connecting across our different expertise and experiences to talk about who we are and where we are going In a world in crisis what does Hawai'i's experience tell us about how to build a society that sees opportunities in the turning and changing times As islanders we continue to grapple with experiences of racism colonialism environmental damage and the costs of modernization and bring to this our own striking creativity and histories for how to live peacefully and productively together

Steered by the four scholars who edited the previous volumes The Value of Hawai'i 3 Huihio the Turning offers multigenerational visions of a Hawai'i not defined by the United States. Community leaders, cultural practitioners, artists, educators, and activists share exciting paths forward for the future of Hawai'i on topics such as education, tourism, and other economies, elder care, agriculture, and food, energy, and urban development, the environment, sports, arts, and culture, technology, and community life. These visions ask us to recognize what we truly value about our home and offer a wealth of starting points for critical and productive conversations together in this time of profound and permanent change. From Kona to Yenan Koji Ariyoshi, 2000-01-01 After returning to Hawai'i, Ariyoshi plunged into union activities and most notably the editing of the Honolulu Record, the voice of labor during the turbulent and bitter postwar conflicts between unions and Hawai'i's ruling elites. Following his 1951 arrest on charges of being a Communist, Ariyoshi became known as one of the Hawai'i Seven and spent the next year writing My Thoughts for which I Stand Indicted for the Record. The present volume gathers together in one place this energetic, thoughtful, and engaging work chronicling a life lived at the center of events that transformed Hawai'i, America, China, and the world. BOOK JACKET The Value of Hawai'i Craig Howes, Jonathan Kay Kamakawiwo'ole Osorio, 2010-07-02 How did we get here? Three and a half day school weeks. Prisoners farmed out to the mainland. Tent camps for the migratory homeless. A blinkered dependence on tourism and the military for virtually all economic activity. The steady degradation of already degraded land. Contempt for anyone employed in education, health, and social service. An almost theological belief in the evil of taxes. At a time when new leaders will be elected and new solutions need to be found, the contributors to The Value of Hawai'i outline the causes of our current state and offer points of departure for a Hawai'i-wide debate on our future. The brief essays address a wide range of topics: education, the environment, Hawaiian issues, media, tourism, political culture, law, labor, economic planning, government, transportation, poverty, but the contributors share a belief that taking stock of where we are right now, what we need to change, and what we need to remember is a challenge that all of us must meet. Written for a general audience, The Value of Hawai'i provides a cluster of starting points for a larger community discussion of Hawai'i that should extend beyond the choices of the ballot box this year. Contributors: Carlos Andrade, Chad Blair, Kat Brady, Susan M. Chandler, Meda Chesney-Lind, Lowell Chun Hoon, Tom Coffman, Sara L. Collins, Marilyn Cristofori, Henry Curtis, Kathy E. Culturally rich education. Holistic health systems. Organic farming and aquaculture. Creative and conscious urban development. Caring for one another across difference. Telling our stories. Continuing the conversation of The Value of Hawai'i.
