Reeve, Jory Johnson, 1986      New Landscape Design Robert Holden, 2003 In addition the book provides the reader with insight into many of the other concerns facing landscape architects such as the image and the function of urban spaces ecological survival sustainability native people and their settlements environmental education and the role and nature of human settlement Detailed technical information presented in accessible format with full color illustrations Careful examination of past designs provides unique resource for landscape architects to learn and improve their own work Clear focus on modern examples helps architects meet uniquely modern challenges such as urban sprawl and environmental concerns      Energy-Wise Landscape Design Sue Reed, 2010-04-01 An inspiring instructional handbook for transforming idealism into social change The pursuit of freedom and justice is a timeless one but new activists may not know where to begin while more experienced ones often become jaded or fatigued The task of constructing a new society free from oppression and inequality can be overwhelming Tools for facilitating motivation engagement and communication can mean the difference between failure and success for activists and social movements Educating for Action collects the voices of activists whose combined experience in confronting injustice has generated a wealth of key insights for creating social change This practical guide explores such topics as Community activism and direct democracy Conflict negotiation communication and rhetoric Law the educational system and lifestyle activism Social media skills conference planning and online organizing Written in an inspirational tone Educating for Action consciously straddles the line between street activism and classroom instruction Bridging the gap between these two worlds makes for an engaging and instructive manual for social justice helping students teachers and larger activist communities turn their idealism into action Jason Del Gandio is a scholar activist and assistant professor of rhetoric and public advocacy at Temple University He is the author of Rhetoric for Radicals A Handbook for 21st Century Activists Anthony J Nocella II is a scholar activist and senior fellow of the Dispute Resolution Institute at the Hamline Law School He is a long time anti racism youth justice prison abolition hip hop animal disability and Earth liberation activist and has published over fifty scholarly articles and book chapters and sixteen books      The Front Garden Mary Riley Smith, 2001-02-27 The front yard is the stepchild of landscape design ignored in the current enthusiasm for gardening Typically with its high maintenance lawn and overgrown foundation planting the front yard doesn't enhance the house or provide useful living space for the homeowner Yet as new properties become smaller and old ones grow shadier the front garden may be the best place to grow vegetables or flowers to sit outside in comfort and privacy or even to swim or play tennis Mary Riley Smith a landscape designer who has often dealt with poorly planned and underused front properties has filled this book with creative ways to make your own front garden beautiful and functional She shows how to design paths driveways and parking areas and how to camouflage unattractive but necessary structures For privacy she describes the different virtues of fences clipped hedges and loose flowing hedgerows When it comes to planting in front of the house the choices are surprising instead of a lawn you might create a colorful cottage garden an edible landscape a drought tolerant meadow of regional native plants a sea of ornamental grasses or even a romantic orchard All of these landscapes and dozens more from all parts of the country are illustrated with beautiful photographs THE FRONT GARDEN concludes with nine case histories including the landscape designers plans that will give you even more ideas for turning your front yard into a beautiful garden
