The Resilient City Lawrence J. Vale, Thomas J.

Campanella, 2005-01-20 In 1871 the city of Chicago was almost entirely destroyed by what became known as The Great Fire Thirty five years later San Francisco lay in smoldering ruins after the catastrophic earthquake of 1906 Or consider the case of the Jerusalem the greatest site of physical destruction and renewal in history which over three millennia has suffered wars earthquakes fires twenty sieges eighteen reconstructions and at least eleven transitions from one religious faith to another Yet this ancient city has regenerated itself time and again and still endures Throughout history cities have been sacked burned torched bombed flooded besieged and leveled And yet they almost always rise from the ashes to rebuild Viewing a wide array of urban disasters in global historical perspective The Resilient City traces the aftermath of such cataclysms as the British invasion of Washington in 1814 the devastation wrought on Berlin Warsaw and Tokyo during World War II the late 20th century earthquakes that shattered Mexico City and the Chinese city of Tangshan Los Angeles after the 1992 riots the Oklahoma City bombing the destruction of the World Trade Center Revealing how traumatized city dwellers consistently develop narratives of resilience and how the pragmatic process of urban recovery is always fueled by highly symbolic actions The Resilient City offers a deeply informative and unsentimental tribute to the dogged persistence of the city and indeed of the human spirit

Changing anarchism Jonathan Purkis, James Bowen, 2018-07-30 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license The massive protests against globalisation in recent years have re awoken interest in anarchism Changing anarchism sets out to reposition anarchist theory and practice by documenting contemporary anarchist practice and providing a viable analytical framework for understanding it The contributions here from both academics and activists raise challenging and sometimes provocative questions about the complex nature of power and resistance to it The areas covered include sexuality and identity psychological dependency on technology libertarian education religion and spirituality protest tactics mental health and artistic expression and the ongoing metaphorical wars against drugs and terror This collection epitomises the rich diversity that exists within contemporary anarchism as well as demonstrating its ongoing relevance as a sociological tool The Transatlantic Dialogue on Higher Education Ulla Krieburnegg,2011 Comparing apples and oranges frequently this is what we do when we talk about similarities and differences regarding higher education in the United States and Europe Based on the assumption that higher education policy texts are cultural texts to be interpreted this book deconstructs four US American cultural narratives within higher education co opetition the frontier myth McDonaldization and the narrative of security and compares these to discourses prevailing in Europe Disputing the prevalent claim that both the recent European higher education transformation initiative the Bologna Process and the establishment of the European Higher Education Area EHEA have had absolutely no impact on US institutions of higher learning this study proves that cultural narratives in the last decade have strongly determined political and structural developments in higher education on both sides of the Atlantic This book therefore adds another facet to the transatlantic dialogue on higher education by providing a cultural critical perspective including the Foucauldian theory of governmentality as well as aspects of postcolonial theory Dark Times, Dire Decisions Jonathan Frankel,2005-05-19 The newest volume of the annual Studies in Contemporary Jewry series features essays on the varied and often controversial ways Communism and Jewish history interacted during the 20th century The volume s contents examine the relationship between Jews and the Communist movement in Poland Russia America Britain France the Islamic world and Germany
