Religion Reason And Revelation:

Religion, Reason, and Revelation Gordon H. Clark, 1986 Revelation and Reason: The Christian Doctrine of Faith and Knowledge Emil Brunner, 1946 Religion, Revelation & Reason Eric Charles Rust, 1981 This book begins with a general consideration of religious experience and moves to a defense of the Christian revelation as the normative one for all other divine disclosures This means that increasingly the book moves towards a defense of theistic thought as contrasted with other religious systems This emphasis on the approach to the understanding of God typical of the Judaeo Christian and Islamic traditions has meant a preoccupation with issues particularly significant for this way of thinking the nature of man the understanding of the creative process the problem of human survival beyond death and the mystery of evil I have however brought in the views of other religious systems and offered a critique of their relationship to the theistic position Wherever thought has moved to the specific content of the Christian disclosure in Jesus Christ I have stopped short Philosophy of religion and theistic philosophy in particular are only prolegomena to the task of the Christian theologian

Revelation and Reason in Christian Theology Christopher C. Green, David I. Starling, 2018-07-11 Do revelation and reason contradict Throughout the church's history Christians have been tempted to make revelation and reason mutually exclusive But both are essential to a true understanding of the faith The inaugural Theology Connect conference held in Sydney in July 2016 was dedicated to surveying the intersection of revelation and reason In Revelation and Reason in Christian Theology Christopher C Green and David I Starling draw together the fruit of this conference to provoke sustained deep reflection on this relationship The essays filtered through epistemological biblical historical and dogmatic lenses critically and constructively contribute to this important and developing aspect of theology Each essayist approaches revelation and reason according to the psalmist's words In your light we see light Ps 36 9 The light of faith does not obscure truth rather it enables us to see truth

Faith, Reason, and Revelation in Theodore Beza, 1519-1605 Jeffrey Mallinson, 2003 Faith Reason and Revelation in the Thought of Theodore Beza investigates the direction of religious epistemology under a chief architect of Calvinism 1519 1605 Mallinson contends that Beza consolidated his tradition by balancing the subjective and objective aspects of faith and knowledge Making use of new editions of Beza's class notes and correspondence and examining the theological ideas found in Beza's long neglected New Testament annotations this study clarifies the thought of Calvin's successor The nature of Protestant scholasticism and the relationship between faith and philosophy are observed in context rather than from the anachronistic perspectives of modern schools that seek to establish their own continuity with Calvinism

Reason, Revelation, and Devotion William J. Wainwright, 2016 The book presents a novel defense of the beneficial epistemic effect that extra logical features can have on the assessment of religious arguments Religion, Revelation & Reason Eric Rust, 1981 This book begins with a general consideration of religious experience and moves to a defense of the Christian revelation as the normative one for all other divine disclosures This means that increasingly the book moves towards a defense of theistic thought as contrasted with other religious systems This emphasis on the approach to the understanding of God typical of the Judaeo Christian and Islamic traditions has meant a preoccupation with issues particularly significant for this way of thinking the nature of man the understanding of the creative process the problem of human survival beyond death and the mystery of evil I have however brought in the views of other religious systems and offered a critique of their relationship to the theistic position Wherever thought has moved to the specific content of the Christian disclosure in Jesus Christ I have stopped short Philosophy of religion and theistic philosophy in particular are only prolegomena to the task of the Christian theologian

The Philosophy of Religion on the Basis of Its History: Spinoza to Schleiermacher Otto Pfleiderer, 1886 Mimetic Theory and World Religions Wolfgang Palaver, Richard Schenk, 2017-11-01 Those who anticipated the demise of religion and the advent of a peaceful secularized global village have seen the last two decades confound their predictions Ren Girard's mimetic theory is a key to understanding the new challenges posed by our world of resurgent violence and pluralistic cultures and traditions Girard sought to explain how the Judeo Christian narrative exposes a founding murder at the origin of human civilization and demystifies the bloody sacrifices of archaic religions Meanwhile his book Sacrifice a reading of conflict and sacrificial resolution in the Vedic Brahmanas suggests that mimetic theory's insights also resonate with several non Western religious and spiritual traditions This volume collects engagements with Girard by scholars of Judaism Christianity Islam Hinduism and Buddhism and situates them within contemporary theology philosophy and religious studies

Cognitivity of Religion J. Kellenberger, 1985-06-18

Unitarian Principles Confirmed by Trinitarian Testimonies John Wilson, 1890 Revelation and Reason in Islam Arthur John Arberry, 2008 Originally published in 1957 The Scholastic Problem was the focus of much debate in Islam for some centuries before it became the chief crux of learned discussion in medieval Christianity When originally published this volume was the first survey of the subject to appear in English It reviews the conflict within Islam between Revelation and Reason and examines the attempts made by theology philosophy mysticism and authoritarianism to resolve the dilemma

Unitarian Principles Confirmed by Trinitarian Testimonies John Wilson, 1873 Studies, 1914 An Irish quarterly review

The Works of Orestes A. Brownson: Explanations and index Orestes Augustus Brownson, 1887 Jonathan Edwards Confronts the Gods Gerald Robert McDermott, 2000 It has long been thought that Edwards's polemical arguments were aimed against Arminianism a doctrine that denied the Calvinist idea of predestination In this book Gerald McDermott shows that Edwards's real target was a larger and more influential one namely deism the belief in a creator God who does not intervene in His Creation To Edwards's mind deism was the logical conclusion of most if not all schemes of divinity that appropriated Enlightenment tenets McDermott argues that Edwards was an inclusivist who came to realize that salvation was open to peoples beyond the hearing of the Christian gospel

The Works of Orestes A. Brownson: Philosophy of religion Orestes Augustus Brownson, 1883 Reasoning from Faith Justin Sands, 2018-01-16 An enlightening commentary on Merold Westphal's intricate thought and provokes new questions concerning the original project of his diverse philosophy. B. Keith Putt, editor of The Future of Continental Philosophy of Religion, considers Westphal to be one of the preeminent Continental philosophers of religion. His articulation of faith as the task of a lifetime has become a touchstone in contemporary debates concerning faith's relationship to reason. As Justin Sands explores his philosophy, he illuminates how Westphal's concept of faith reveals the pastoral theological intent behind his thinking. Sands sees Westphal's philosophy as a powerful articulation of Protestant theology but one that is in ecumenical dialogue with questions concerning apologetics and faith's relationship to ethics and responsibility, a more Catholic point of view. By bringing out these features in Westphal's philosophy, Sands intends to find core philosophical methodologies as well as a passable bridge for philosophers to cross over into theological discourses. An engaging and illuminating work.

Science and Religion in Mamluk Egypt

Nahyan Fancy, 2013-06-03. The discovery of the pulmonary transit of blood was a ground-breaking discovery in the history of the life sciences and a prerequisite for William Harvey's fully developed theory of blood circulation three centuries later. This book is the first attempt at understanding Ibn al-Naf's anatomical discovery from within the medical and theological works of this thirteenth-century physician, jurist, and his broader social, religious, and intellectual contexts. Although Ibn al-Naf did not posit a theory of blood circulation, he nevertheless challenged the reigning Galenic and Avicennian physiological theories and the then-prevailing anatomical understandings of the heart. Far from being a happy guess, Ibn al-Naf's anatomical result is rooted in an extensive re-evaluation of the reigning medical theories. Moreover, this book shows that Ibn al-Naf's re-evaluation is itself a result of his engagement with post-Avicennian debates on the relationship between reason and revelation and the rationality of traditionalist beliefs such as bodily resurrection. Breaking new ground by showing how medicine, philosophy, and theology were intertwined in the intellectual fabric of pre-modern Islamic societies, Science and Religion in Mamluk Egypt will be of interest to students and scholars of the History of Science, the History of Medicine, and Islamic Studies.
