Chaison, 2018-10-18

The past fifteen years have been difficult for the labor movements in industrial countries Gary N Chaison addresses questions implicit in the decline of unions in the United States Canada Great Britain Australia and New Zealand How and why do labor unions merge under pressure What role do mergers play in the unions strategies to deal with membership losses management opposition and hostile governments Are there distinctive national profiles of union mergers Chaison begins by describing the dynamics of the union merger process as large unions combine with each other in amalgamations as small unions are absorbed into larger ones and as local unions affiliate into nationals He discusses the reasons for mergers the barriers to consolidation and the problems of integration which may result The five chapters that follow are arranged in order of increasing intensity in merger activity ranging from the United States where interest in mergers is growing to New Zealand where changing legislation has catalyzed an enormous wave of mergers For each of the five countries considered Chaison characterizes the industrial relations climate and merger record since 1980 explains landmark mergers identifies the antecedents and assesses the chances that a sudden flood of mergers will occur The final chapter compares the national profiles extrapolating the significant differences and common threads Chaison concludes that while mergers can play a critical role in revitalizing labor movements and building the dominant unions of the future they are not necessarily solving the fundamental economic and political problems that plague unions Mergers and Economic Concentration United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Antitrust, Monopoly, and Business Rights, 1979

Mergers in Higher Education Rómulo Pinheiro, Lars Geschwind, Timo Aarrevaara, 2015-11-03 This book addresses the critical knowledge gaps of mergers involving higher education institutions It is based on a comparative research project spring 2013 spring 2015 investigating the phenomena of mergers involving higher education institutions across the Nordic countries Norway Sweden Finland and Denmark The study involved close to 30 scholars from the region and aimed at shedding critical light on and providing novel contributions around the following key aspects Conceptual and theoretical approaches strengths and limitations towards the study of the phenomena of mergers in higher education Historical developments leading to significant structural changes in the domestic higher education landscape and in turn how mergers have been used as a policy institutional mechanism to foster adaptation to a new external environment at the local national regional and international levels The complex dynamics inherent to merger processes by undertaking an in depth investigation of a series of selected case studies with a particular focus on the black box associated with the implementation process The implications of the findings as regards future policy and strategic endeavours theory development and future research agenda Premerger Notification United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary. Antitrust Subcommittee (Subcommittee no. 5),2001 The Pennsylvania Railroad Albert J. Churella,2024-11-26 The final volume of Albert J Churella s landmark series The Pennsylvania Railroad concludes the story of the iconic transportation company covering its long decline from the 1930s to its merger with the New York Central Railroad in 1968 Despite some parallels with World War I the experience of World War II had a substantially different impact on the Pennsylvania Railroad The introduction of new technologies personnel and commuter routes had significant effects on this giant of American transportation The recession of 1958 sparked a period of decline from which it and many other railroads struggled to fully recover The Pennsylvania Railroad The Long Decline 1933 1968 provides an unparalleled look at the final years of this legendary company which in its prime was the largest corporation in the world with a budget second only to that of the US federal government Trucking Mergers and Concentration United States.
