Remapping Ethiopia Socialism And After:

Remapping Ethiopia Wendy James, Donald L. Donham, Eisei Kurimoto, Alessandro Triulzi, 2002 Governance everywhere is concerned with spatial relationships Modern states map local communities making them legible for the purposes of control Ethiopia has gone through several stages of mapping in its imperial revolutionary and postrevolutionary phases In 1986 The Southern Marches of Imperial Ethiopia a cross disciplinary collection edited by Don Donham and Wendy James opened up the study of center periphery relations in the Ethiopian empire until the fall of the monarchy in 1974 This new volume examines similar themes taking the story forward through the major changes effected by the socialist regime from the revolution of 1974 to its overthrow in 1991 and then into the current period that has been marked by moves toward local democracy and political devolution Topics include the changing fortunes of new and historic towns and cities the impact of the Mengistu regime s policies of villagization and resettlement local aspects of the struggle against Mengistu and its aftermath and the fate of border regions Special attention is given to developments since 1991 to new local institutions and forms of autonomy the links between the international diasporas of Ethiopia and the fortunes of their home areas The collection draws on the work of established scholars as well as a new generation of Ethiopian and international researchers in the disciplines of anthropology political science history and geography

Reconfiguring Ethiopia: The Politics of Authoritarian Reform

Jon Abbink, Tobias Hagmann, 2016-04-22 This book takes stock of political reform in Ethiopia and the transformation of Ethiopian society since the adoption of multi party politics and ethnic federalism in 1991 Decentralization attempted democratization via ethno national representation and partial economic liberalization have reconfigured Ethiopian society and state in the past two decades Yet as the contributors to this volume demonstrate democracy in Ethiopia has not changed the authority structures and the culture of centralist decision making of the past The political system is tightly engineered and controlled from top to bottom by the ruling Ethiopian Peoples Revolutionary Democratic Front EPRDF Navigating between its 1991 announcements to democratise the country and its aversion to power sharing the EPRDF has established a de facto one party state that enjoys considerable international support This ruling party has embarked upon a technocratic developmental state trajectory ostensibly aimed at depoliticizing national policy and delegitimizing alternative courses The contributors analyze the dynamics of authoritarian state building political ethnicity electoral politics and state society relations that have marked the Ethiopian polity since the downfall of the socialist Derg regime Chapters on ethnic federalism revolutionary democracy opposition parties the press the judiciary state religion and state foreign donor relations provide the most comprehensive and thought provoking review of contemporary Ethiopian national politics to date This book is based on a special issue of the Journal of Eastern African Studies

Lands of the Future Echi Christina Gabbert, Fana

Gebresenbet, John G. Galaty, Günther Schlee, 2021-01-15 Rangeland forests and riverine landscapes of pastoral communities in Eastern Africa are increasingly under threat Abetted by states who think that outsiders can better use the lands than the people who have lived there for centuries outside commercial interests have displaced indigenous dwellers from pastoral territories This volume presents case studies from Eastern Africa based on long term field research that vividly illustrate the struggles and strategies of those who face dispossession and also discredit ideological false modernist tropes like backwardness and primitiveness Poverty Reduction Strategies in Africa Mike Odey, Toyin Falola, 2017-09-08 A fundamental question about contemporary Africa is why does Africa remain so poor long after the departure of the European Colonial domination and in the midst of so many natural resources Poverty Reduction Strategies in Africa provides new understandings of the persistent issue of poverty in Sub Saharan Africa and makes recommendations for policy frameworks to help African governments alleviate poverty Each chapters uses case studies to review the old strategies for resolving the problem of poverty in the continent and make the case for new initiatives to address poverty The contributors focus on practical and day to day issues as the best approach to formulate and implement poverty reduction strategies in contemporary Africa This book is invaluable reading for students and scholars of African politics and development The Horn of Africa since 2018 Jan Záhorský, Aleksi Ylönen, 2025-04-15 This book takes stock of developments in the Horn of Africa since 2018 a key time of political turbulence marked by revolution military coups and civil war as well as alliances peace deals reforms and reconciliation processes Bringing together a group of experienced and younger scholars from the Horn of Africa and Europe the book investigates the various multi layered and intertwined factors and consequences of political developments in Ethiopia Eritrea Sudan South Sudan Djibouti and Somalia The authors investigate the endemic political instability across much of the Horn of Africa while also reflecting on political continuities and transformations including attempts at peace and state building They consider the important role of regional organizations and intra and extra regional actors in the domestic politics of the states in the Horn of Africa The book concludes with a section focusing on the prospects for reform and conflict resolution in the context of shifting regional power relations This book will be an important resource for researchers working on contemporary politics history and society in the Horn of Africa Politics and Violence in Eastern Africa David M. Anderson, Øystein H. Rolandsen, 2017-10-02 Over the fifty years between 1940 and 1990 the countries of eastern Africa were embroiled in a range of debilitating and destructive conflicts starting with the wars of independence but then incorporating rebellion secession and local insurrection as the Cold War replaced colonialism The articles gathered here illustrate how significant widespread and dramatic this violence was In these years violence was used as a principal instrument in the creation and consolidation of the authority of the state and it was also regularly and readily utilised by those who wished to challenge state authority through insurrection and secession Why was it that eastern Africa should have experienced such extensive and intensive violence in the fifty years before 1990 Was this resort to violence a consequence of imperial rule the legacy of oppressive colonial domination under a coercive and non representative state system Did essential contingencies such as the Cold War provoke and promote the use of violence Or was it a choice made by

Africans themselves and their leaders a product of their own agency This book focuses on these turbulent decades exploring the principal conflicts in six key countries Kenya Uganda Sudan Ethiopia Somalia and Tanzania This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Eastern African Studies Localising Salafism Terje Østebø,2011-09-30 With a particular focus on the role of situated actors this book sheds light on the emergence and expansion of Salafism in Bale Ethiopia from the late 1960s through the Marxist period 1974 1991 before discussing the rapid expansion and fragmentation of the movement in the 1990s until 2006 The Other Abyssinians Brian J. Yates,2020 Reframes the story of modern Ethiopia around the contributions of the Oromo people and the culturally fluid union of communities that shaped the nation s politics and society Anthropologies of Orthodox Christianity Candace Lukasik,Sarah Riccardi-Swartz,2025-11-04 Anthropologically explores the entanglement of theology and politics among contemporary Orthodox Christians Much of the anthropological literature on Christianity tends to concentrate on Protestants and Catholics in the Global South The contemporary scholarly interest in such communities descends from histories of missionization and colonization of these regions as well as a sense of their theological kinship with the secularized visions of Western political and social life Orthodox Christianity however has largely been rendered marginal in mainstream anthropological engagement because of its theological and social alterity from such Western anthropological traditions of knowledge production Because of this Orthodox Christian lifeworlds in and beyond the academy are created contested and transformed in relation to various others whether they be religious political secular or historical with an eye toward a discursive opposition between modernity and Orthodoxy Each of the essays in Anthropologies of Orthodox Christianity texture a new trajectory in the study of this religious tradition that take seriously the theopolitical aspects of Orthodox life through anthropological inquiry The volume engages and moves beyond the tension between populist and institutional framings of religion and critically addresses the ontological gap in both anthropology and theology as social cultural and geopolitical interest in Orthodox Christianity continues to expand and grow A History of Modern Uganda Richard J. Reid,2017-02-17 This book is the first major study in several decades to consider Uganda as a nation from its precolonial roots to the present day Here Richard J Reid examines the political economic and social history of Uganda providing a unique and wide ranging examination of its turbulent and dynamic past for all those studying Uganda s place in African history and African politics Reid identifies and examines key points of rupture and transition in Uganda s history emphasising dramatic political and social change in the precolonial era especially during the nineteenth century and he also examines the continuing repercussions of these developments in the colonial and postcolonial periods By considering the ways in which historical culture and consciousness has been ever present in political discourse art and literature and social relationships Reid defines the true extent of Uganda s viable national history Unity in Diversity Christophe van der Beken,2012 This book argues that the development of federalism in Ethiopia fits in with a global trend towards increased attention to ethnic minority rights and to federalism as a mechanism for ethnic conflict prevention and management The Ethiopian federation is designed as a framework within which the Ethiopian ethnic groups can protect their rights and within which they are stimulated to develop a cooperative relationship To put it differently the constitutional objective of the federal structure is the creation of unity in diversity The book evaluates the capacity of Ethiopian federalism to achieve this objective by investigating the relevant historical political and legal aspects Series Recht und Politik in Afrika Law and Politics in Africa Vol 10 The Rise of the Infrastructure State

Seth Schindler, Jessica DiCarlo, 2023-12-12 Tensions between the US and China have escalated as both powers seek to draw countries into their respective political and economic orbits by financing and constructing infrastructure Wide ranging and even handed this book offers a fresh interpretation of the territorial logic of US China rivalry and explores what it means for countries across Eurasia Africa and Latin America The chapters demonstrate that many countries navigate the global infrastructure boom by articulating novel spatial objectives and implementing political and economic reforms By focusing on people and places worldwide this book broadens perspectives on the US China rivalry beyond bipolarity It is an essential guide to 21st century politics Inequalities and Conflicts in Modern and Contemporary African History Jan

Záhorík, 2018-11-16 The book deals with historical social economic political and international causes contexts and consequences of inequalities and conflicts in Africa In particular the book is to puts conflicts and turbulences in Ethiopia in a broader African comparative perspective It also identifies and analyzes multiple causes of conflicts which cannot be studied only as a result of one variable Inequalities and conflicts have a whole set of causes stemming from historically inherited as well as global international socio economic political and other contexts which cannot be analyzed separately This book is vital for anyone who is interested in the study of African history comparative politics and conflict in Africa Playing Different Games Dereje Feyissa, 2011-07-01 Focusing on ethnicity and its relation to conflict this book goes beyond sterile debates about whether ethnic identities are natural or socially constructed Rather ethnic identity takes different forms Some ethnic boundaries are perceived by the actors themselves as natural while others are perceived to be permeable The argument is substantiated through a comparative analysis of ethnic identity formation and ethnic conflict among the Anywaa and the Nuer in the Gambella region of western Ethiopia The Anywaa and the Nuer are not just two ethnic groups but two kinds of ethnic groups Conflicts between the Anywaa and Nuer are explained with reference to three variables varying modes of identity formation competition over resources and differential incorporation into the state system Conquest and

Resistance in the Ethiopian Empire, 1880 - 1974 Abbas Gnamo, 2014-01-23 This work examines the philosophical origins of Oromo egalitarian and democratic thoughts and practice the Gadaa Qaalluu system kinship organization the introduction and spread of Islam and the consequent socio cultural change It sheds light on the advent of the Ethiopian empire under Menelik II its conquests and Arsi Oromo fierce resistance 1880 1900 the nature and legacy of Ethiopian imperial polity centre periphery relations feudal political economy and its impacts on the newly conquered regions with a focus on Arsi

Oromo country The book also analyzes the root causes of the national political crisis including but not limited to the attempts at transforming the empire state to a nation state around a single culture contested definition of national identity and state legitimacy grievance narratives uprisings the birth and development of competing nationalisms as well as the limitations of the current ethnic federalism to address the national question in Ethiopia

Moral Pedagogies for Africa Theodoros A. Teklu, 2021-09-02 This volume engages with issues of moral responsibility and multiethnic co existence in the context of contemporary Africa Post colonial African states are by and large ethnically diverse Constructively managing ethnic diversity however has always been a challenge to these states which often fail to be democratic and all inclusive As a result ethnic enmity and conflicts that obliterate bonds of togetherness between ethnic communities have been rampant throughout the continent In dialogue with Africa s cultural and religious assets this interdisciplinary multi authored book aims at articulating the need to interpret past and present ethnic hostilities in Africa and generating moral resources of togetherness to foster a social pedagogy of responsible cohabitation for Africans The chapters of this volume categorized into two parts are framed according to these two niches

Sing and Sing On Kay Kaufman Shelemay, 2022-01-11 In Sentinel Musicians of the Ethiopian American Diaspora Kay Kaufman Shelemay shares more than forty years of research among Ethiopian musicians in the midst of a widespread and evolving diaspora Beginning on the eve of the Ethiopian revolution in 1974 all the way up to the present day Shelemay follows musicians as some leave Ethiopia for the US setting up essential networks of support in cities such as New York Boston and Washington DC Throughout this profound transition Shelemay shows how Ethiopian musicians serve a critical function in social and political life by both safeguarding community identity and challenging authority within Ethiopian society She coins the term sentinel musicians to express musicians double capacity to guard culture and guide it through periods of change transforming the world around them under political pressures and during times of extreme social stress While musicians held this role in Ethiopian culture long before the revolution began it has taken on new meanings and contours in the Ethiopian diaspora Some sentinel musicians have quite literally led the way as they migrated to new locales establishing transnational networks founding new institutions and undertaking numerous initiatives in community building Ultimately Shelemay shows that musicians are uniquely positioned to serve this sentinel role as guardians and challengers of cultural heritage

War and Survival in Sudan's Frontierlands Wendy James, 2007-10-04 This book completes a trilogy by the anthropologist Wendy James It is a case study of how the Uduk speaking people originally from the Blue Nile region between the north and the south of Sudan have been caught up in and displaced by a generation of civil war Some have responded by defending their nation others by joining the armed resistance of the Sudan People s Liberation Army and yet others eventually finding security as international refugees in Ethiopia and even further afield in countries such as the USA Sudan s peace agreement of 2005 leaves much uncertainty for the future of the whole country as conflict still rages in Darfur The Uduk case shows how people who once lived together now try to maintain links across borders and even continents through modern communications and where possible recreate their traditional forms of story telling music and song
