Office of Education, 1970      Treating Reading Disabilities Carl Bernard Smith, Barbara Carter, Gloria Dapper, 1972      DIAGNOSIS AND REMEDIATION OF BASIC ACADEMIC SKILLS AND LANGUAGE JESSINA MUTHEE, 2018-12-13 This book covers Principles and techniques of assessment Diagnostic indications of a possible learning disability Factors to consider when diagnosing a true learning disability Adopting and adapting assessment tools Principles for teaching learners with learning disability Strategies for teaching and remediating learners with the following specific learning disabilities Reading writing arithmetic and spelling Development and implementation of an I E P and remedial techniques in various resource r Facets of Dyslexia and its Remediation S.F. Wright,R. Groner,2013-10-22 Developmental Dyslexia has been a subject of interest to practitioners for more than a century Despite its long research history however dyslexia the terms specific reading disability reading disability and learning disability are also used interchangeably in this volume still provides a challenge for contemporary cognitive psychology education neurology and physiology By bringing together contributions from researchers and scholars working in a wide range of fields and perspectives it is hoped that this publication will offer a means of considering different facets of dyslexia and enable a greater understanding of reading disorders and their remediation to emerge The book is divided into eight major sections the focus in each section being on a different facet of dyslexia It is hoped this framework enables the reader to assimilate the wide range of pure and applied research and even give rise to a new perspective for the understanding of dyslexia

Handbook of Reading Disability Research Anne McGill-Franzen,Richard Allington,2010-09-17 Bringing together a wide range of research on reading disabilities this comprehensive Handbook extends current discussion and thinking beyond a narrowly defined psychometric perspective Emphasizing that learning to read proficiently is a long term developmental process involving many interventions of various kinds all keyed to individual developmental needs it addresses traditional questions What is the nature or causes of reading disabilities How are reading disabilities assessed How should reading disabilities be remediated To what extent is remediation possible but from multiple or alternative perspectives Taking incursions into the broader research literature represented by linguistic and anthropological paradigms as well as psychological and educational research the volume is on the front line in exploring the relation of reading disability to learning and language to poverty and prejudice and to instruction and schooling The editors and authors are distinguished scholars with extensive research experience and publication records and numerous honors and awards from professional organizations representing the range of disciplines in the field of reading disabilities Throughout their contributions are contextualized within the framework of educators struggling to develop concrete instructional practices that meet the learning needs of the lowest achieving readers Converging Methods for Understanding Reading and Dyslexia

Raymond M. Klein,Patricia McMullen,1999 This book offers an interdisciplinary look at the acquisition loss and remediation of normal reading processes Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1983 Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal ,1980 Resources in Education ,1998-04 Theory and Research in Learning Disabilities J.P. Das,2013-11-11

Although a number of books have appeared on learning disabili ties we feel that the present book has two distinct features which are not found in most others It is multidisciplinary and it com bines theory with practice A group of researchers from the disciplines of Psychology in cluding medical psychology and information processing Reading Special Education and Physical Education interacted with each other before and after their presentations in a conference November 1980 at the University of Alberta Edmonton Canada and then wrote their chapters for this book We hope that their chapters were enriched by the discussions and arguments which happened in formal and informal settings during the authors stay in Edmonton Dr Leong could not attend the conference but was asked to write the introductory chapter for the book The contributors to this volume have been involved with basic research as well as with clinical and educational research in learning disabilities Some of them have a theoretical rather than a practical interest However a serious interest in a handicapping condition perhaps compels one to consider its amelioration no matter how pure is the researcher It is because of such a feeling that those who do basic research have suggested procedures for applying their findings The result is a balanced product entailing theory and practice
