Remembering the Times of Our Lives Patricia J. Bauer, 2014-01-14 The purpose of Remembering the Times of Our Lives Memory in Infancy and Beyond is to trace the development from infancy through adulthood in the capacity to form retain and later retrieve autobiographical or personal memories It is appropriate for scholars and researchers in the fields of cognitive psychology memory infancy and human development

Successful Remembering and Successful Forgetting Aaron S. Benjamin, 2011-01-07 This volume provides a window into cutting edge research in cognitive psychology on inhibition in memory metacognition educational applications of basic memory research and many other topics related to the groundbreaking research of Robert Bjork It will appeal to graduate students and researchers in learning and memory

Remembering the Samsui Women Kelvin E.Y. Low, 2014-04-08 In the early twentieth century thousands of women from the Samsui area of Guangdong China migrated to Singapore during a period of economic and natural calamity leaving their families behind In their new country many found work in the construction industry with others working in households or factories where they were called hong tou jin translated literally as red head scarf after the headgear that protected them from the sun In Singapore the women have been celebrated as pioneering figures for their hard work and resilience and in China for the sacrifices they made for their families Remembering the Samsui Women looks at who these women really are and at how both countries have commemorated their experiences It is an illuminating study of the connection between memory and nation including the politics of what is remembered and what is forgotten

Theories of Social Remembering Barbara Misztal, 2003-07-16 brilliant an impressive tour de force Network Why does collective memory matter How is social memory generated maintained and reproduced How do we explain changes in the content and role of collective memory Through a synthesis of old and new theories of social remembering this book provides the first comprehensive overview of the sociology of memory This rapidly expanding field explores how representations of the past are generated maintained and reproduced through texts images sites rituals and experiences The main aim of the book is to show to what extent the investigation of memory challenges sociological understandings of the formation of social identities and conflicts It illustrates the new status of memory in contemporary societies by examining the complex relationships between memory and commemoration memory and identity memory and trauma and memory and justice The book consists of six chapters with the first three devoted to conceptualising the process of remembering by analyzing memory's function status and history as well as by locating the study of memory in a broader field of social science The second part of the book directly explores and discusses theories and studies of social remembering After a short conclusion which argues that study of collective memory is an important part of any examination of contemporary society the glossary offers a concise and up to date overview of the development of relevant theoretical concepts The result is an essential text for undergraduate courses in social theory the sociology of memory and a wider audience in cultural studies history and politics

Remembering Histories of Trauma

Gideon Mailer, 2022-03-24 Remembering Histories of Trauma compares and links Native American First Nation and Jewish histories of traumatic memory Using source material from both sides of the Atlantic it examines the differences between ancestral experiences of genocide and the representation of those histories in public sites in the United States Canada and Europe Challenging the ways public bodies have used those histories to frame the cultural and political identity of regions states and nations it considers the effects of those representations on internal group memory external public memory and cultural assimilation Offering new ways to understand the Native Jewish encounter by highlighting shared critiques of public historical representation Mailer seeks to transcend historical tensions between Native American studies and Holocaust studies In linking and comparing European and American contexts of historical trauma and their representation in public memory this book brings Native American studies Jewish studies early American history Holocaust studies and museum studies into conversation with each other In revealing similarities in the public representation of Indigenous genocide and the Holocaust it offers common ground for Jewish and Indigenous histories and provides a new framework to better understand the divergence between traumatic histories and the ways they are memorialized Memory and Migration Julia

Crete, Andreas Kitzmann, 2014-02-24 Memory plays an integral part in how individuals and societies construct their identity While memory is usually considered in the context of a stable unchanging environment this collection of essays explores the effects of immigration forced expulsions exile banishment and war on individual and collective memory The ways in which memory affects cultural representation and historical understanding across generations is examined through case studies and theoretical approaches that underscore its mutability Memory and Migration is a truly interdisciplinary book featuring the work of leading scholars from a variety of fields across the globe The essays are collaborative successfully responding to the central theme and expanding upon the findings of individual authors A groundbreaking contribution to an emerging field of study Memory and Migration provides valuable insight into the connections between memory place and displacement

The Remembering Self Ulric Neisser, Robyn Fivush, 1994-10-28 This book brings a surprisingly wide range of intellectual disciplines to bear on the self narrative and the self The same ecological cognitive approach that successfully organized Ulric Neisser's earlier volume on The Perceived Self now relates ideas from the experimental developmental and clinical study of memory to insights from post modernism and literature Although auto biographical remembering is an essential way of giving meaning to our lives the memories we construct are never fully consistent and often simply wrong In the first chapter Neisser considers the so called false memory syndrome in this context other contributors discuss the effects of amnesia the development of remembering in childhood the social construction of memory and its alleged self servingness and the contrast between literary and psychological models of the self Jerome Bruner Peggy Miller Alan Baddeley Kenneth Gergen and Daniel Albright are among the contributors to this unusual synthesis Media Technology and Cultures of

Memory Elwin Susan John, Amal P Mathews, 2023-11-29 Media Technology and Cultures of Memory studies narrative

Memory and Architecture Eleni Bastéa, 2004 An international study of cultural relationships with built environments Interreligious Reflections, Six Volume Set Alon Goshen-Gottstein, 2018-08-08 This set includes all six volumes of Interreligious Reflections

ABOUT VOLUME ONE Friendship is an outcome of as well as a condition for advancing interfaith relations However for friendship to advance there must be legitimation from within and a theory of how interreligious relations can be justified from the resources of different faith traditions Friendship Across Religions explores these very issues seeking to develop a robust theory of interreligious friendship from the resources of each of the participating traditions It also features individual cases as models and precedents for such relations in particular the friendship of Gandhi and Charlie Andrews his closest personal friend Contributors Balwant Singh Dhillon Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Ruben L F Habito Ryan McAnnally Linz Stephen Butler Murray Eleanor Nesbitt Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sender Johann M Vento and Miroslav Volf

ABOUT VOLUME TWO This book tackles the core problem of how painful historical memories between diverse religious communities continue to impact even poison present day relations Its operative notion is the healing of memory developed by John Paul II Chapters explore how painful memories of yesteryear can be healed and so address some of the root causes Strategies from six different faith traditions are brought together in what is in some ways a cross religious brainstorming session that identifies tools to improve present day relations At the other pole of the conceptual axis of this book is the notion of hope If memory informs our past hope sets the horizon for our future How does the healing of memory open new horizons for the future And what is the notion of hope in each of our traditions that could lead to a common vision of good Between memory and hope this book seeks to offer a vision of healing that can serve as a resource in contemporary interfaith relations Contributors Rahuldeep Singh Gill Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Flora A Keshgegian Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sender Muhammad Suheyl Umar and Michael von Br ck

ABOUT VOLUME THREE The essays collected here prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy explore the challenges associated with sharing wisdom learning teachings messages for good living How should religions go about sharing their wisdom These chapters representing six faith tradition Jewish Christian Muslim Hindu Sikh and Buddhist explore what wisdom means in each of these traditions why and how it should be shared internally and externally and the role of love and forgiveness in sharing This book offers a theory that can enrich ongoing encounters between members of faith traditions by suggesting a tradition based practice of sharing wisdom while preserving the integrity of the teaching and respecting the identity of anyone with whom wisdom is shared Contributors Pal Ahluwalia Timothy Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Sallie B King Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sendor Miroslav Volf ABOUT VOLUME FOUR All the world s religions are experiencing rapid change due to a confluence of social and economic global forces Factors such as the pervasive intrusion of globalizing political and economic developments polarized and morally equivalent presentations seen in the media and the sense of surety demanded in and promised by a culture dominated by science are some of the factors that have placed extreme pressure on all religious traditions This has stimulated unprecedented responses by religious groups ranging from fundamentalism to the syncretistic search for meaning As religion takes on new forms the balance between individual and community is disrupted and reconfigured Religions often lose the capacity to recall their ultimate purpose or lead their adherents toward it This is the situation we call the crisis of the holy It is a confluence of threats challenges and opportunities for all religions This volume explores the contours of pressures changes and transformations and reflects on how all our religions are changing By identifying commonalities across religions as they respond to these pressures The Crisis of the Holy recommends ways religious traditions might cope with these changes and how they might join forces in doing so Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Sidney H Griffith Maria Reis Habito B Barry Levy Deepak Sarma Michael von Br ck ABOUT VOLUME FIVE The chapters collected in this book prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy address the subject of religious leadership The subject is of broad relevance in the training of religious leaders and in the practice of religious leadership As such it is also germane to religious thought where reflections on religious leadership occupy an important place What does it mean to be a religious leader in today s world To what degree are the challenges that confront religious leadership today the same perennial challenges that have arrested the attention of the faithful and their leaders for generations and to what degree do we encounter challenges today that are unique to our day and age One dimension is surely unique and that is the very ability to explore these issues from an interreligious perspective and to consider challenges opportunities and strategies across religious traditions Studying the theme across six faith traditions Christianity Islam Judaism Sikhism Hinduism and Buddhism The Future of Religious Leadership World Religions in Conversation recognizes the common challenges to present day religious leadership Contributors Awet Andemicael Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Anantanand Rambachan Maria Reis Habito Meir Sendor Balwant Singh Dhillon Miroslav Volf VOLUME SIX One of the biggest challenges for relations between religions is the view of the religious Other The question touches the roots of our theological views The Religious Other Hostility Hospitality and the Hope of Human Flourishing explores the views of multiple religious traditions on how to regard otherness How does one move from hostility to hospitality How can hospitality be understood not simply as social hospitality but as theological hospitality making room for the religious Other on theological grounds What is our vision for the flourishing of the Other while respecting his otherness This volume is an exercise in constructive interreligious theology By including Abrahamic and non Abrahamic traditions it approaches these challenges from multiple perspectives highlighting commonalities in approach and ways in which one tradition might inspire another Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Richard P Hayes Lord Rabbi Jonathan Sacks Deepak Sarma Stephen W Sykes Dharma Master Hsin Tao Ashok Vohra The Ethics of Remembering and the Consequences of Forgetting Michael O'Loughlin, 2014-12-18 The Ethics of Remembering and the Consequences of Forgetting Essays on Trauma History and Memory brings together scholars from a variety of disciplines that draw on multiple perspectives to address issues that arise at the intersection of trauma history and memory Contributors include critical theorists critical historians psychoanalysts psychotherapists and a working artist The authors use intergenerational trauma theory while also pushing and pulling at the edges of conventional understandings of how trauma is defined This book respects the importance of the recuperation of memory and the creation of interstitial spaces where trauma might be voiced The writers are consistent in showing a deep respect for the sociohistorical context of subjective formation and the political importance of recuperating dangerous memory the kind of memory that some authorities go to great lengths to erase The Ethics of Remembering and the Consequences of Forgetting is of interest to critical historians critical social theorists psychotherapists psychosocial theorists and to those exploring the possibilities of life as the practice of freedom Hermeneutics, History and Memory Philip Gardner, 2010-01-21 This book presents a novel contribution to topical academic debate seeing the sceptical challenge as an opportunity for reflection on history's key processes and practices The Great Cryptogram Ignatius Donnelly, 1888

Commemorating War Graham Dawson, 2017-07-12 War memory and commemoration have had increasingly high profiles in public and academic debates in recent years This volume examines some of the social changes that have led to this development among them the passing of the two world wars from survivor into cultural memory Focusing on the politics of war memory and commemoration the book illuminates the struggle to install particular memories at the center of a cultural world and offers an extensive argument about how the politics of commemoration practices should be understood Commemorating War analyzes a range of forms of remembrance from public commemorations orchestrated by nation states to personal testimonies of war survivors and from cultural memories of war represented in films plays and novels to investigations of wartime atrocities in courts of human rights It presents a wide range of international case studies encompassing lesser known national histories and wars beyond the well trodden terrain of Vietnam and the two world wars in Europe Emerging from this book is an important critique of both state centered approaches to war memory and those that regard commemoration primarily as a human response to loss and grief Offering a wealth of empirical research material this book will be important for cultural and oral historians sociologists researchers in international relations and human rights and anybody with an interest in the cultural construction of memory in contemporary society Life Span Human Development Carol K. Sigelman, Linda De George, Kimberley Cunial, Elizabeth A. Rider, 2018-09-01 The third edition of Life Span Human Development helps students gain a deeper understanding of the many interacting forces affecting development from infancy childhood adolescence and adulthood It includes local multicultural and indigenous issues and perspectives local research in development regionally relevant statistical information and National guidelines on health Taking a unique integrated topical and chronological approach each chapter focuses on a domain of development such as physical growth cognition or personality and traces developmental trends and influences in that domain from infancy to old age Within each chapter you will find sections on four life stages infancy childhood adolescence and adulthood This distinctive organisation enables students to comprehend the processes of transformation that occur in key areas of human development This text also includes a MindTap course offering with a strong suite of resources including videos and the chronological sections within the text can be easily customised to suit academic and student needs The Chinese in Britain, 1800-Present G.

Benton, E. Gomez, 2007-12-18 This study points up the complex interplay of ethnic and national identities in the lives of Chinese in Britain arguing that transnational studies reinforce essentialist conceptions of identity and cultural authenticity in diasporic communities and thus frustrate the promotion of ethnic co existence and social cohesion in multi ethnic societies

Oral History Theory Lynn Abrams, 2016-03-18 Oral history is increasingly acknowledged as a key tool for anyone studying the history of the recent past and Oral History Theory provides a comprehensive systematic and accessible overview of this important field Combining the study of theories drawn from disciplines ranging from linguistics to psychoanalysis with the observations of practitioners and including extensive examples of oral history practice from around the world this book constitutes the first integrated discussion of oral history theory Structured around key themes such as the peculiarities of oral history the study of the self subjectivity and intersubjectivity memory narrative performance power and trauma each chapter provides a clear and user friendly explanation of the various theoretical approaches illustrating these with examples from the rich field of published oral history and making suggestions for the practicing oral historian This second edition includes a new chapter on trauma and ethics a preface discussing new developments in the field and updated glossary and further reading sections Supplemented by a new companion website www.routledge.com cw abrams containing a comprehensive range of case studies audio material and further resources this book will be invaluable to experienced and novice oral historians professionals and students who are new to the discipline The Harriman Alaska Expedition of 1899

John J. Michalik, 2021-08-11 In 1899 one of America's wealthiest men assembled an interdisciplinary team of experts many of whom would become legendary in their fields to join him entirely at his expense on a voyage to the largely unknown territory of Alaska The Harriman Expedition remains unparalleled in its conception and execution This book follows the team closely where they went what they did and what they learned including finding early evidence of glacial retreat assessing the nature and future of Alaska's natural resources making important scientific discoveries and collecting an astonishing collection of specimens A second thread involves the lives and accomplishments of the members of the party weaving biographical strands into the narrative of the journey and the personal experiences they shared This is the first comprehensive scholarly treatment of the Harriman Alaska Expedition since the 1980s It features the diaries letters home and post Expedition writings including unpublished autobiographies generated by the members of the party

We Remember, We Love, We Grieve Elizabeth Warner, Svetlana Adonyeva, 2021-03-23 This is a book about death comprehensive in its discussion of strategies for coping with loss and grief in rural northern Russia Elizabeth Warner and Svetlana Adonyeva bring forth the voices of those for whom caring for their dead is deeply personal and firmly rooted in practices of everyday life Thoroughly researched chapters consider lamenting traditions examine beliefs surrounding natural symbols and parse sensitive and profound funereal rituals We remember we love we grieve is a common epitaph in this part of the world As contemporary Russia contends with the Soviet Union's legacy of dismantling older ways of life the phrase ripples beyond individual loss it encapsulates communities' determination to preserve their customs when faced with oppression This volume offers insight into a core cultural practice exploring the dynamism of tradition

Intersections in Basic and Applied Memory Research David G. Payne, Frederick G. Conrad, 2013-06-17 In recent years there has been increasing interaction between basic and applied memory researchers ranging from heated debates to highly productive collaborations This collection of papers based on presentations at the Third Practical Aspects of Memory conference reviews the progress as well as obstacles to progress in the ongoing collaboration between basic and applied memory researchers This volume represents the state of the art in memory research domains that straddle the basic/applied divide The text is organized around three themes including theoretical and metatheoretical issues concerning the interaction of basic and applied memory research laboratory investigation of real world memory problems and solutions of everyday problems using theoretical concepts derived from basic memory research The first section illustrates why collaboration between basic and applied memory researchers should be beneficial and provides guidelines for avoiding some of the pitfalls The second and third sections present some of the most significant contemporary findings by researchers whose work is basic yet applicable or applied yet theoretically based Students and professional memory researchers will find the substantive results to be provocative and theoretically engaging making the information presented in this volume invaluable These examples of successful application will be of substantial pragmatic value and researchers are certain to be grappling with these issues for years to come
