Diane DeSanders's genius lies in her ability to capture the intimate interiority of a very particular childhood while at the same time interrogating larger questions of class, race, and religion. Hap and Hazard and the End of the World is a gorgeous, profoundly original novel. Dawn Raffel, author of Carrying the Body and The Secret Life of Objects, Rollicking, tilted, and transporting. As the young narrator tries to manage her fraying family, war-wounded father, suffering mother, misbehaving relatives galore, DeSanders takes us deeper, always with such tenderness and beautiful observation into the ways we shape a narrative that keeps us whole. Victoria Redel, author of Loverboy and Before Everything, For Dick and Jane, Dallas after World War II is a place of promise and prosperity; the first home air conditioners are making summertime bearable, and Dick's position at his father's business, the Cadillac dealership, is assured. Jane has help with the house, and the children and garden parties and holiday celebrations are spirited social affairs. For the oldest of their three daughters, however, life is full of frustrating mysteries. The stories the adults tell her don't make sense. Too curious for comfort, she finds her questions only seem to annoy them. Why won't they tell the truth about Santa? What is that Holy Spirit business, and what is the difference between an angel and a ghost? Why is her mother often so tense and sad? And why does her father keep flying into violent rages? Hap and Hazard and the End of the World is an intimate, finely crafted novel about the innocence and vulnerability of childhood and the dangers posed by adults who cannot cope with life's complexities. It is also about the ingenuity born of loneliness and neglect and the surprising, strange beauty of the world. A fifth-generation Texan, Diane DeSanders is a history buff, theater lover, poet, mother, and grandmother. Between careers as a history teacher and antiques dealer, she has worked in regional theater in almost every capacity. She now writes, gardens, and sings in Brooklyn, New York. This is her first novel.

Refugee act of 1979 United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Immigration, Refugees, and International Law, 1979. Feeling Machines Shawn Bender, 2024-11-19. In recent years, debates over healthcare have accompanied rapid advances in technology, from the expansion of telehealth services to artificial intelligence-driven diagnostics. In this book, Shawn Bender delves into the world of Japanese robots engineered for care. Care robots, kaigo robotto, emerged early in the 21st century when roboticists began converting assembly-line technologies into responsive machines for older adults and people with disabilities. These robots are meant to be felt and programmed to feel. While some greet them with enthusiasm, others fear that they might replace a fundamentally human task. Based on fieldwork in Japan, Denmark, and Germany, Bender traces the emergence of care robots in Japan and examines their impact on therapeutic practice around the world. Social science scholarship on robotics tends to be either speculative, imagining life together with robots, or experimental, observing robot-human interaction in laboratories or through short-term field studies. Instead, Bender follows roboticists developing technologies in Japan and travels with the robots themselves into everyday sites of care, tracking the integration of robots into institutional care and the connection of care practice to robotics development. By exploring the application of Japanese robotics across the globe, Feeling Machines highlights the entanglements of therapeutic practice and technological innovation in an age of more than human care Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970 (oversight and Proposed Amendments) United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and Labor. Select Subcommittee on Labor,1975 Feeling Like a State Davina Cooper,2019-09-06 A transformative progressive politics requires the state s reimagining But how should the state be reimagined and what can invigorate this process In Feeling Like a State Davina Cooper explores the unexpected contribution a legal drama of withdrawal might make to conceptualizing a more socially just participative state In recent years as gay rights have expanded some conservative Christians from charities to guesthouse owners and county clerks have denied people inclusion goods and services because of their sexuality In turn liberal public bodies have withdrawn contracts subsidies and career progression from withholding conservative Christians Cooper takes up the discourses and practices expressed in this legal conflict to animate and support an account of the state as heterogeneous plural and erotic Arguing for the urgent need to put new imaginative forms into practice Cooper examines how dissident and experimental institutional thinking materialize as people assert a democratic readiness to recraft the state

Why Red Doesn't Sound Like a Bell J. K. O'Regan,2011-06-24 This work proposes a novel view to explain how we as humans can have the impression of consciously feeling things for example the red of a sunset the smell of a rose the sound of a symphony or a pain By His Scars Sharon Worrell Beshears,2021-03-02 We often feel our scars are unsightly and we try to hide them In By His Scars author Sharon Worrell Beshears helps you overcome your emotional scars and insecurities through scripture She encourages you to learn from the many lessons your scars can teach you because each scar has a story to tell Some speak of victory and triumph while others remind you of painful moments you long not to relive Emotional scars cannot be treated with ointment and she advises you to give those scars to God Through his word and his grace you can face your giants take control of these negative memories and find victory Inspired by the teachings of Jennie Allen author of Get Out of Your Head Beshears communicates that you have the power over your mind through scripture prayer and ultimate surrender to Christ Orthognathic Surgery Farhad B.
