Looking At Stages A Review Of The New York And London Theater From 1970 To 1995:

Looking at Stages Joseph E. Geist,1996 The Gothic Novel and the Stage Francesca Saggini,2015-08-12 In this ground breaking study Saggini explores the relationship between the late eighteenth century novel and the theatre arguing that the implicit theatricality of the Gothic novel made it an obvious source from which dramatists could take ideas Similarly elements of the theatre provided inspiration to novelists The Cambridge History of American Theatre Don B.

Wilmeth,Christopher Bigsby,1998 This is an authoritative and wide ranging history of American theatre in all its dimensions from theatre building to playwriting directors performers and designers Engaging the theatre as a performance art a cultural institution and a fact of American social and political life the history addresses the economic context that conditioned the drama presented The history approaches its subject with a full awareness of relevant developments in literary criticism cultural analysis and performance theory At the same time it is designed to be an accessible challenging narrative All volumes include an extensive overview and timeline followed by chapters on specific aspects of theatre Volume Three examines the development of the theatre after World War II through the productions of Broadway and beyond and into regional theatre across the country Contributors also analyze new directions in theatre design directing and acting as well as key plays and playwrights through the 1990s The Stage Lives of Animals Una Chaudhuri,2016-10-04 The Stage Lives of

Animals examines what it might mean to make theatre beyond the human In this stunning collection of essays Una Chaudhuri engages with the alternative modes of thinking feeling and making art offered by animals and animality bringing insights from theatre practice and theory to animal studies as well as exploring what animal studies can bring to the study of theatre and performance As our planet lives through what scientists call the sixth extinction and we become ever more aware of our relationships to other species Chaudhuri takes a highly original look at the animal imagination of well known plays performances and creative projects including works by Caryl Churchill Rachel Rosenthal Marina Zurkow Edward Albee Tennessee Williams Eugene Ionesco Covering over a decade of explorations a wide range of writers and many urgent topics this volume demonstrates that an interspecies imagination deeply structures modern western drama Acting Mary Beth Osnes,2001-12-07 A groundbreaking cross cultural reference work exploring the diversity of expression found in rituals festivals and performances uncovering acting techniques and practices from around the world Acting An International Encyclopedia explores the amazing diversity of dramatic expression found in rituals festivals and live and filmed performances Its hundreds of alphabetically arranged fully referenced entries offer insights into famous players writers and directors as well as notable stage and film productions from around the world and throughout the history of theater cinema and television The book also includes a surprising array of additional topics including important venues from Greek amphitheaters to Broadway and Hollywood acting schools the Actor s Studio and companies the Royal Shakespeare performance genres from religious pageants to puppetry technical terms of the actor s art and much more It is a unique resource for exploring the techniques performers use to captivate their audiences and how those techniques have evolved to meet the demands of performing through Greek masks and layers of Kabuki makeup in vast halls or tiny theaters or for the unforgiving eye of the camera

Bernard Kops William Baker, Jeanette Roberts Shumaker, 2013-12-18 This is the first book length study of the work of contemporary writer Bernard Kops Born on November 28 1926 to Dutch Jewish immigrants Bernard Kops became famous after the production of his play The Hamlet of Stepney Green A Sad Comedy with Some Songs in 1958 This play like much of his work focuses on the conflicts between young and old Identified as an angry young man Kops like his contemporaries John Osborne Shelagh Delaney and Harold Pinter belonged to the so called new wave of British drama that emerged in the mid 1950s Kops went on to create important documentaries about the Blitz and living in London during the early 1940s He has written two autobiographies over ten novels many journalistic pieces and more than forty plays for TV stage and radio A prolific poet Kops has authored a long pamphlet poem and eight poetry collections Now in his mid 80s the prolific and versatile Kops still produces his creativity undimmed by age

Great North American Stage Directors Volume 6 Ann M. Shanahan, 2024-01-25 This volume assesses the work of Meredith Monk Richard Foreman and Robert Wilson three artists who have revolutionized the craft of directing and the art of theatre in both related and unique ways Though their early artistic backgrounds differ ranging from architecture music and dance to writing they are similar in that none of them began their career as a director per se or received formal training as such They each assumed the director's role based on the demands of their complex artistic visions which combine art forms but resist synthesis finding expression in the differences and tensions between the forms The essays in this volume explore how these auteur directors combine text movement film sound and music installation and visual arts to achieve their visions employing multi perceptual modes to evoke full and rich theatrical experiences The Great North American Stage Directors series provides an authoritative account of the art of directing in North America by examining the work of twenty four major practitioners from the late 19th century to the present Each of the eight volumes examines three directors and offers an overview of their practices theoretical ideas and contributions to modern theatre The studies chart the life and work of each director placing his or her achievement in the context of other important theatre practitioners and broader social history Written by a team of leading experts the series presents the genealogy of directing in North America while simultaneously chronicling crucial trends and championing contemporary interpretation
