Looking Good:

Looking Good Margaret A. Lowe, 2003 Winner of the Bridgewater State College Class of 1950 Distinguished Faculty Research Award Toward the end of the nineteenth century as young women began entering college in greater numbers than ever before physicians and social critics charged that campus life posed grave hazards to the female constitution and women's reproductive health A girl could study and learn Dr Edward Clarke warned in his widely read 1873 book Sex in Education but she could not do all this and retain uninjured health and a future secure from neuralgia uterine disease hysteria and other derangements of the nervous system For half a century ideas such as Dr Clarke's framed the debate over a woman's place in higher education almost exclusively in terms of her body and her health For historian Margaret A Lowe this obsession offers one of the clearest expressions of the social and cultural meanings given to the female body between 1875 and 1930 At the same time the college girl was a novelty that tested new ideas about feminine beauty sexuality and athleticism In Looking Good Lowe examines the ways in which college women at three quite different institutions Cornell University Smith College and Spelman College regarded their own bodies in this period Contrasting white and black students single sex and coeducational schools secular and religious environments and Northern and Southern attitudes Lowe draws on student diaries letters and publications institutional records and accounts in the popular press to examine the process by which new twentieth century ideals of the female body took hold in America Looking Good Lynne Luciano, 2002-01-09 Men once dreaded being accused of vanity but now they are spending millions on fitness training bodybuilding hair replacement and cosmetic surgery in the relentless pursuit of physical perfection In this lively examination Luciano explores what this new world reveals about American society today Looking Good . . . Every Day Nancy Nix-Rice, 2014-09-01 Any woman can look and feel lovely regardless of her age bank balance or pant size and Looking Good Every Day defines a simple yet sophisticated standard for women to determine exactly which clothes and accessories will showcase their unique beauty The points of connection method explains that the more characteristics that exist in common between a woman and her outfit the more lovely she will look It shifts emphasis from hiding her perceived figure challenges and focuses on spotlighting her personal assets By choosing wardrobe additions in this way everything in her closet will work together She has more outfits from fewer garments allowing her to buy higher quality garments without increasing her budget Photography of real women ranging from 22 to 80 years old and from size 4 to 24 illustrates the universal impact points of connection make in their appearance Looking Good Keith Maillard, 2011-02-01 The Summer of Love is already like a distant memory the psychedelic underground has turned in on itself John Dupre has deserted a perfectly satisfying life as a student in Toronto drawn back to the US by the need to make a difference in the Revolution He's living in Boston under an assumed name because he's on the FBI's wanted list for draft evasion His best friend is Tom Parker an ex GI turned righteous drug dealer When John Tom and the militant feminist and Situationist Pam Zalman seize control of an underground newspaper and are put on the Weatherman hit list there's really no place to hide they're wanted on all sides It's the year of the Harvard Square riot the invasion of Cambodia and Kent State Campuses across America are host to demonstrations and riots Burning ROTC buildings has become an everyday pastime Pam and John forge a relationship where they're struggling against sex roles The Left is splintering into ever smaller and crazier micro factions And that's when things begin to get really weird Looking Good is a masterfully crafted meticulously reconstructed social history of the 60s counterculture and a searching examination of gender identity the magnificent explosive climax to Difficulty at the Beginning Looking Good Feeling Great Ladies 50 and Over Nina Bagnall,2009 Bagnall provides some of the best up to date information on how to stop lamenting one's age and start living life to its fullest Looking Good Dead Peter James,2008-09-04 Detective Superintendent Roy Grace has to solve a disturbing murder whilst protecting an innocent eye witness in Looking Good Dead by award winning crime author Peter James When a young woman's body is found butchered in Brighton Roy Grace cannot help but think of his own missing wife and her unsolved fate Elsewhere in the city when Tom Bryce finds a disc left on a train he simply tries to do the right thing return it to its owner But this attempted act of kindness makes him the sole witness to that same vicious murder Learning that Tom has made a statement to Grace's team the killers have to act But when they plan the murder of the Bryce family it's not just revenge it's entertainment Although the Roy Grace novels can be read in any order Looking Good Dead is the second gripping title in the bestselling series Enjoy more of the Brighton detective's investigations with Not Dead Enough and Dead Man's Footsteps Now a major BRITBOX series Grace starring John Simm Looking Good, Feeling Good Dr Bruce Miller,2016-01-01 In the past few years we have learned much about nutrition and beauty For instance while we cannot stop aging itself we can arrest and in some cases even reverse the visible effects of aging This book is loaded with all of the latest information on the nutrition and health of your hair skin and nails Various problems are addressed such as nails that crack and split wrinkles dry skin thin lusterless hair and many others While physical beauty shouldn't be all important most women do like to look their best and feel attractive Your body reflects your image of yourself and your feelings about yourself The way you look can influence your level of self confidence and self esteem As far back as ancient Greece Aristotle is recorded as saying Personal beauty is a greater recommendation than any letter of introduction True beauty radiates from within and the loveliest women are those whose outer glow reflects an inner harmony More than clothes cosmetics or coiffures beauty depends on good health physical emotional and spiritual A woman's natural attributes hair skin and nails when supplied with optimal nutrition can make her look attractive and appealing Many women willingly spend a great deal of money to make themselves look good from the outside After reading this book I hope you'll spend as much money and time to make yourself look healthy from the inside Your investment will be returned many times over Looking Good Even When You're Dead D.M.
