Spurgeon, 2014-12-08 words it leads to the belief that the Ideal is the only Real Further if unity lies at the root of things man must have some share of the nature of God for he is a spark of the Divine Consequently man is capable of knowing God through this godlike part of his own nature that is through his soul or spirit For the mystic believes that as the intellect is given us to apprehend material things so the spirit is given us to apprehend spiritual things and that to disregard the spirit in spiritual matters and to trust to reason is as foolish as if a carpenter about to begin a piece of work were deliberately to reject his keenest and sharpest tool The methods of mental and spiritual knowledge are entirely different For we know a thing mentally by looking at it from outside by comparing it Mysticism in English Literature Caroline F.
