Never Stop Dancing:

The People Have Never Stopped Dancing Jacqueline Shea Murphy, 2007 During the past thirty years Native American dance has emerged as a visible force on concert stages throughout North America In this first major study of contemporary Native American dance Jacqueline Shea Murphy shows how these performances are at once diverse and connected by common influences Demonstrating the complex relationship between Native and modern dance choreography Shea Murphy delves first into U S and Canadian federal policies toward Native performance from the late nineteenth through the early twentieth centuries revealing the ways in which government sought to curtail authentic ceremonial dancing while actually encouraging staged spectacles such as those in Buffalo Bill s Wild West shows She then engages the innovative work of Ted Shawn Lester Horton and Martha Graham highlighting the influence of Native American dance on modern dance in the twentieth century Shea Murphy moves on to discuss contemporary concert dance initiatives including Canada s Aboriginal Dance Program and the American Indian Dance Theatre Illustrating how Native dance enacts rather than represents cultural connections to land ancestors and animals as well as spiritual and political concerns Shea Murphy challenges stereotypes about American Indian dance and offers new ways of recognizing the agency of bodies on stage Jacqueline Shea Murphy is associate professor of dance studies at the University of California Riverside and coeditor of Bodies of the Text Dance as Theory Literature as Dance

And Never Stop Dancing Gordon Livingston, 2008-10-20 In Dr Gordon Livingston s follow up to his national bestseller Too Soon Old Too Late Smart he offers thirty more true things we need to know now Among the fresh truths he identifies and explores in this book which has sold more than 50 000 copies in hardcover are Paradox governs our lives Forgiveness is a gift we give ourselves Marriage ruins a lot of good relationships We are defined by what we fear We all live downstream One of life s most difficult tasks is to see ourselves as others see us As we grow old the beauty steals inward Most people die with their music still inside of them Dr Livingston s sterling qualities are in evidence again a clear and deep understanding of the hidden hypocrisies desires evasions and emotional tumult that course through our lives an unerring sense of what is important and his own ability to persevere to hope in a world he knows is capable of inflicting unjustifiable and lifelong suffering
