Paul, the Community, and Progressive Sanctification James M. Howard, 2007 What role does the Christian community play in the process of growing in Christian maturity This book argues that in Pauline theology the redeemed community is a necessary means for the progressive sanctification of the individual believer an idea that is largely misunderstood in parts of the Western church It evaluates foundational theological considerations traditionally omitted from sanctification studies and places them within the context of Pauline theology Included are the missiological nature of holiness the initiatory character of God the creation of the new humanity as reflecting the image of God and the impact upon the church resulting from the radical redefinition by Christ of the cultural symbols surrounding the Jewish temple system This book offers a corrective to the individualized approach to Christian growth For Paul the focus of God's transformative activity culminates with the community rather than the individual the goal of which is to reveal God's glory to the broader creation The Story of Jesus

Huffman, 2025-04-15 A unique introduction to the Acts of the Apostles focusing on the book of Acts as an extension of the Jesus story With full color photographs maps and sidebars about history ancient literature and archaeological finds Douglas Huffman takes readers through different introductory and interpretive issues in the study of Acts including the genre purpose history culture and geographical setting of the story Equipped with these behind the scenes details in broad strokes the author traces Luke's well told recounting of the ongoing story of Jesus Sensitive to the purposes Luke had for his text as well as its connection to the Gospel of Luke Huffman concludes by demonstrating how the Jesus story is intended to continue into the present Specifically designed as a textbook the volume includes chapter overviews and summaries discussion questions and assignments lists of key terms and a glossary Paul and the Law Brian S. Rosner, 2013-05-14 Brian S Rosner seeks to build bridges between old and new perspectives on Paul with this biblical theological account of the apostle's complex relationship with Jewish law Rosner argues that Paul reevaluates the Law of Moses including its repudiation as legal code its replacement by other things and its reappropriation as prophecy and wisdom Jesus as the Pierced One Bret A. Rogers, 2020-06-08 How can John use Zech 12 10 to explain both Jesus first coming in humility John 19 37 and Jesus second coming in glory Rev 1 7 In this book Rogers demonstrates how God's self revelation in Jesus provides the key for understanding the fulfillment of Zech 12 10 in light of both John's high Christology and John's inaugurated and consummated eschatology In contrast to previous approaches Rogers proposes that John interprets Zech 12 10 not simply along a human messianic axiom but along a divine messianic axiom Moreover by treating Zech 12 10 John 19 37 and Rev 1 7 in a single study readers will better understand the unified narrative spanning the Testaments the nature of Jesus divine identity and mission in John's writings and how Jesus divine nature and mission compels the church to live between his two advents So All Israel Shall Be Saved Nathaniel Parker, 2025-01-28 Is it feasible to speak of a Moore School of Biblical Theology The biblical theology program at Moore Theological College can be traced back to Donald Robinson One unique contribution of Robinson to Moore's program was his distinction theology concerning the role of Israel in redemption history as his attempt at providing an alternative to dispensationalism and covenant theology By examining Robinson's view of Jew and gentile in the New Testament church the reciprocal role of the gospel going forth from Jewish Christians to the gentiles and back to unbelieving Jews to fulfill the Rom 11 promise so all Israel shall be saved and Robinson's eschatological concept of both Jew and gentile forming a new man and by tracing how his view has been affirmed revised rejected or ignored by biblical theologians at Moore College who were influenced by or who followed Robinson including Graeme Goldsworthy Lionel Windsor D Broughton Knox and William Dumbrell this book seeks to clarify the reception of Robinson's legacy at Moore College as well as offer an assessment on the plausibility of a distinct Moore School of Biblical Theology Inductive Bible Study Richard Alan Fuhr, Al Fuhr, Andreas J. Illumination and Interpretation M. X.

Seaman, 2013-03-06 The Holy Spirit's ministry of illumination is a commonly misunderstood doctrine both pragmatically and theologically. As a result, this divine activity is often neglected, but it should be recognized that it is indispensable for the hermeneutical endeavor. This distinctive work seeks to take an apparently abstract concept and make it concrete by establishing proper categories and definitions for the doctrine of illumination while reemphasizing the cooperation of Word and Spirit. In doing so, this book treats issues such as the relationship between illumination and other hermeneutical doctrines, the accessibility of the Spirit's illumination when interpreting the Scriptures, and the question of unregenerate biblical interpretation. Accordingly, Illumination and Interpretation presents a biblical theological evaluation of the Spirit's work of illumination for the transformative purpose of understanding how to appropriate this vital hermeneutical doctrine into one's faith and practice.

The Gospels Through Old Testament Eyes Nicholas P. Lunn, 2023-09-22 Recognising veiled allusions to the Old Testament in the four Gospels has long contributed to our understanding of the Gospels' message. Nicholas Lunn takes the investigation of allusion a significant step further in The Gospels Through Old Testament Eyes. He explores allusions not just in isolated verses but rather occurring throughout whole passages, demonstrating that many Gospel episodes interact with specific Old Testament accounts through an extended sequence of allusions. Furthermore, his examination is not restricted to episodes presented by a single Gospel but includes allusions distributed across two or more Gospel treatments of the same event. In The Gospels Through Old Testament Eyes, Lunn offers a series of self-contained studies that bring to light allusions, many of them previously unnoted, that affirm the intricate interweaving of New Testament texts with those of the Old. This volume will greatly enhance your appreciation of the Gospels' presentation of Jesus's life and ministry. It will inform and equip scholars, pastors, preachers, Bible teachers, and readers to appreciate new depths in the Gospels.

At-Home Seminary Rich O'Brien, 2025-07-15 My goal upon entering Moody's MABS program was then, as it is now, to know God better and to love Him more. Before completing the program, I began praying to know what God had in mind for me next. While praying, I realized that some, if not much, of the biblical knowledge I had recently gained would likely slip from my mind if I did not take steps to prevent that. I was then led to compile my written assignments into a well-organized anthology. As I prayerfully worked on that project, I realized that the finished product could well serve as a Christian discipleship or small group study. That led me to prayerfully consider making the project available to everyone. Now, along with WestBow Press, I am blessed to invite you to embark on a journey through your own At-Home Seminary.

In All the Scriptures Nicholas G. Piotrowski, 2021-12-28 Biblical interpretation is both a science and an art, and it has powerful implications for what we believe and how we apply God's Word. In this accessible introduction to biblical hermeneutics, Nicholas G. Piotrowski presents a contextualized approach that equips students, pastors, and thoughtful readers to build a strong foundation for interpreting the Scriptures.
