New Documentary In Action A Casebook In Film Making:

The New Documentary in Action Alan Rosenthal,1971 Making Documentary Films and Videos Barry Hampe,2007-12-10 Outlines each step in creating documentaries from conception to final film and offers advice on capturing human behavior and recreating past events with advice on how to get started in the field a section on researching and developing a project and current resources The Documentary Makers David A. Goldsmith,2003 A series of in their own words interviews with 15 directors whose work has in some way extended the boundary of the documentary They constitute a tiny proportion of those working in the field but they represent the state of the documentary across the world from the limited resources of China s only independent director with no access to his nation s television to the big budget series that attract tens of millions of American viewers Some will only work on film with all its paraphernalia of moviemaking while others insist on working alone with nothing more than a Handicam Some question even abhor the use of commentary others wouldn t dream of doing without Some work by the rules of cinema verite and some use dramatization while still labeling their work documentary Regardless of the where and the how they all seek to reproduce reality whatever that might be Book jacket A New History of Documentary Film Betsy A. McLane,2013-03-28 A New History of Documentary Film Second Edition offers a much needed resource considering the very rapid changes taking place within documentary media Building upon the best selling 2005 edition Betsy McLane keeps the same chronological examination factual reliability ease of use and accessible prose style as before while also weaving three new threads Experimental Documentary Visual Anthropology and Environmental Nature Films into the discussion She provides emphasis on archival and preservation history present practices and future needs for documentaries Along with preservation information specific problems of copyright and fair use as they relate to documentary are considered Finally A History of Documentary Film retains and updates the recommended readings and important films and the end of each chapter from the first edition including the bibliography and appendices Impossible to talk learnedly about documentary film without an audio visual component a companion website will increase its depth of information and overall usefulness to students teachers and film enthusiasts A New History of Documentary Film Jack C. Ellis,Betsy A. McLane,2005-08-01 This history of documentary film concentrates mainly on the output of the film industries in the US the UK and Canada The authors outline the origins of the form and trace its development over the next several decades Each chapter concludes with a list of the key documentaries in that time period or genre Documenting the Documentary Barry Keith Grant,Jeannette Sloniowski,2013-12-16 Documenting the Documentary offers clear serious and insightful analyses of documentary films and is a welcome balance between theory and criticism abstract conceptualization and concrete analysis Salesman J.M. Tyree,2019-07-25 Selected by the Library of Congress as one of the most significant American films ever made Salesman 1966 9 is a landmark in non fiction cinema equivalent in its impact and influence to Truman Capote s non fiction novel In Cold Blood The film follows a team of travelling Bible salesmen on the road in Massachusetts Chicago and Florida where the American dream of self reliant entrepreneurship goes badly wrong for protagonist Paul Brennan Long acknowledged as a high water mark of the direct cinema movement this ruefully comic and quietly devastating film was the first masterpiece of Albert Maysles David Maysles and Charlotte Zwerin the trio who would go on to produce The Rolling Stones documentary Gimme Shelter 1970 Based on the premise that films drawn from ordinary life could compete with Hollywood extravaganzas Salesman was critical in shaping the documentary feature A novel cinema going experience for its time the film was independently produced designed for theatrical release and presented without voiceover narration interviews or talking heads Working with innovative handheld equipment and experimenting with eclectic methods and a collaborative ethos the Maysles brothers and Zwerin produced a carefully orchestrated narrative drama fashioned from unexpected episodes J M Tyree suggests that Salesman can be understood as a case study of non fiction cinema raising perennial questions about reality and performance His analysis provides an historical and cultural context for the film considering its place in world cinema and its critical representations of dearly held national myths The style of Salesman still makes other documentaries look static and immobile while the film s allegiances to everyday subjects and working people indelibly marked the cinema Tyree s insightful study also includes an exclusive exchange with Albert Maysles about the film

Methodology of the Oppressed Chela Sandoval, 2013-11-30
In a work with far reaching implications Chela Sandoval does no less than revise the genealogy of theory over the past thirty years inserting what she terms U S Third World feminism into the narrative in a way that thoroughly alters our perspective on contemporary culture and subjectivity
What Sandoval has identified is a language a rhetoric of resistance to postmodern cultural conditions
U S liberation movements of the post World War II era generated specific modes of oppositional consciousness
Out of these emerged a new activity of consciousness and language
Sandoval calls the methodology of the oppressed
This methodology born of the strains of the cultural and identity struggles that currently mark global exchange holds out the possibility of a new historical moment a new citizen subject and a new form of alliance consciousness and politics
Utilizing semiotics and U S Third World feminist criticism Sandoval demonstrates how this methodology mobilizes love as a category of critical analysis
Rendering this approach in all its specifics
Methodology of the Oppressed gives rise to an alternative mode of criticism opening new perspectives on any theoretical literary aesthetic social movement or psychic expression
