Caplan, 1986 Writing Mothers and Daughters Adalgisa Giorgio, 2002 The psychoanalytic discovery of the importance of the preoedipal mother daughter bond in the 1970s had an important impact on feminist literature This book offers a systematic study of this theme in western European fiction

Don't Bite Your Tongue Ruth Nemzoff, 2008-08-05 An empowering guide to creating rewarding relationships between parents and their adult children Parents work hard to raise their children into adulthood but popular wisdom tells them to bite their tongues and loosen the purse strings once their child is grown But increasing life spans mean that parents and children can spend as many as five or six decades as adults together actively parenting adult children is a reality for many families Dr Ruth Nemzoff an expert in family dynamics empowers parents to forge a close relationship with their children while respecting their independence Nemzoff shows parents how to Create an active relationship over long distances Discuss financial issues without using money as a form of control Voice opinions about an adult child s child rearing practices Respond to major changes in an adult child s life such as choice of partner religion career and more Don t Bite Your Tongue is a groundbreaking look at a relationship that s been invisible for far too long Unbecoming Mothers Diana Gustafson, 2013-10-08 Learn the who what and why of unbecoming a mother In a society where becoming a mother is naturalized unbecoming a mother the process of coming to live apart from biological children is regarded as unnatural improper or even contemptible Few mothers are more stigmatized than those who are perceived as having given up surrendered or abandoned their birth children Unbecoming Mothers The Social Production of Maternal Absence examines this phenomenon within the social and historical context of parenting in Canada Australia Britain and the United States with critical observations from social workers policymakers and historians This unique book offers insights from the perspectives of children on the outside looking in and the lived experiences of women on the inside looking out Unbecoming Mothers The Social Production of Maternal Absence explores how gender race class and other social agents affect the ways women negotiate their lives apart from their children and how they attempt to recreate their identities and family structures An interdisciplinary international collection of academics community workers and mothers draws upon sources as diverse as archival records a therapist s interview a dance script and the class presentation of a student to offer refreshing insights on maternal absence that are innovative accessible and inspiring Unbecoming Mothers examines five assumptions about maternal absence and the families that emerge from that absence the focus on parenting as highly gendered caring work done by women the idea that women share the same experience of unbecoming mothers and share the same circumstances and background the perception of maternal absence as a recent phenomenon the notion that women who want to manage their mother work will make choices to overcome life s obstacles the Western concept of womanhood being achieved through motherhood and the unrealistic ideal of the good mother Unbecoming Mothers The Social Production of Maternal Absence is a rich multidisciplinary resource for academics working in women's studies psychology sociology history and any health related fields and for policymakers social workers and other community workers Respiratory Regulation - Clinical Advances Mieczyslaw Pokorski, 2012-07-25 This book written for pulmonary and family doctors general practitioners allergologists and neuropsychologists presents cutting edge clinical research and therapy oriented knowledge in the field of respiratory medicine Clinical knowledge is undergoing dramatic improvement Respiration is one such prominent field A better understanding of the pathogenesis of respiratory ailments and the regulation of lung ventilation is essential for advances in pharmacotherapy and the patient's quality of life The book discusses a wide scope of topics notably innovations in detection and management of chronic inflammatory conditions such as COPD or asthma acute infections of the respiratory tract airway allergies and hyper responsiveness lung cancer interstitial lung diseases pulmonary function in health disease and aging sleep disordered breathing interaction between the respiratory system and other bodily functions and psychosomatic aspects of disease After all respiration is generated and integrated by the brain therefore brain function is influential in respiratory regulation The book is a platform that fosters the exchange of new clinical data between clinicians and academic neuroscientists bringing a unique blend of medical diagnosis and practice to the leadership in respiratory medicine Woman-Defined Motherhood Jane Price Knowles, Ellen Cole, 2014-02-04

Finally here is an enlightening and empowering book that defines motherhood from a feminist perspective and then explores the implications of that definition Feminist authors examine some of women's full rich and varied thoughts and experiences about motherhood In contrast to the too often accepted male notions of what constitutes a good mother or a normal family this important book presents a comprehensive and balanced view of motherhood as women have observed and experienced it The major issues surrounding motherhood today are closely examined the pervasive problem of mother blaming and mother hating and solutions to overcome it ageism sexism and motherhood relationships between mothers and daughters relationships between stepmothers and stepchildren motherhood and sex roles within the family adoption infertility and childlessness Special insight is also provided into the concerns of women who are mothers lesbians women of color mothers of biracial children and adoptive mothers of children from different cultures Woman Defined Motherhood is must reading for women including both mothers and daughters for therapists and other professionals supporting women and for anyone interested in mothering

Women's Sexuality Across the Life Span Judith C. Daniluk, 2003-06-09 Moving beyond a traditional focus on sexual functioning this book emphasizes the complex interaction of psychological social cultural and biological influences on women's sense of themselves as sexual beings Written for practitioners and educators its goal is to challenge contradictory messages and meanings that cause many women to feel disconnected from their bodies and from their needs and desires Themes explored include the development of sexual awareness and sexuality in childhood and adolescence the critical sexual choices of young adulthood and the multiple transitions characterizing the middle and later years of life The book features creative exercises and interventions to help girls and women construct more affirming sexual meanings

Bad Mothers: Regulations, Represetatives and Resistance Hughes Michelle Miller,2017-03-01 While the image or construct of the good mother has been the focus of many research projects the bad mother as a discursive construct and also mothers who do bad things as complicated agentic social actors have been quite neglected despite the prevalence of the image of the bad mother across late modern societies The few researchers who address this powerful social image point out that bad mothers are culturally identified by what they do yet they are also socially recognized by who they are Mothers become potentially bad when they behave or express opinions that diverge from or challenge social or gender norms or when they deviate from mainstream white middle class heterosexual nondisabled normativity When suspected of being bad mothers women are surveilled and may be disciplined punished or otherwise excluded by various official agents i e legal medical and welfare institutions as well as by their relatives friends and communities Too often women are judged and punished without clear evidence that they are neglecting or abusing their children Frequently they are blamed for the marginal sociocultural context in which they are mothering This anthology presents empirical theoretical and creative works that address the construct of the bad mother and the lived realities of mothers labeled as bad Throughout the volume the editors consider voices and acts of resistance to bad mother constructions demonstrating that mothers across time and across domains have individually and collectively taken a stand against this destructive label

You're Grounded Forever...But First, Let's Go Shopping Susan Shapiro Barash,2010-09-28 Susan Shapiro Barash s provocative new book examines the most difficult challenges any woman faces when raising daughters Sample chapters include What color would you like that Prada bag in material indulgence Do you need to be eating that fixations on food and weight Of course you can drink when you re home with me loose boundaries and rules I know she s your friend but underestimating female friendships I ll just say you aren t feeling well making excuses And much more

Horrible Mothers Loïc Bourdeau,2019-12 For too long the main narratives of motherhood have been oppressive and exclusionary frequently ignoring issues of female identity especially regarding those not conforming to traditional female stereotypes Horrible Mothers offers a variety of perspectives for analyzing representations of the mother in francophone literature and film at the turn of the twenty first century in North America including Qu bec Ontario New England and California Contributors reexamine the horrible mother paradigm within a broad range of sociocultural contexts from different locations to broaden the understanding of mothering beyond traditional ideology The selections draw from long established scholarship in women s studies as well as from new developments in queer studies to make sense of and articulate strategies of representation to show how contemporary family models are constantly evolving reshaping and moving away from heteronormative expectations and to reposition mothers as subjects occupying the center of their own narrative rather than as objects The contributors engage narratives of mothering from myriad perspectives referencing the works of writers or filmmakers such as Marguerite Andersen Nelly Arcan Gr goire Chabot Xavier Dolan Nancy Huston and Lucie Joubert

Excess and Embodiment in Contemporary Women's Writing Zeynep Zeren Atayurt,2011-08-01 The obese female body has often been portrayed as the other to the slender body However this process of othering or viewing as different has created a repressive discourse where excess has increasingly come to be studied as a physical abnormality or a signifier of a personality defect in contemporary Western society This book engages with the multifarious re imaginings of the excessive embodiment in contemporary women s writing drawing specifically on the construction of this form of embodiment in the works of Fay Weldon Jeanette Winterson Margaret Atwood Claude Tardat and Judith Moore whose texts offer a distinct literary response to the rigidly homogeneous and limiting representations of fatness while prompting heterogeneous approaches to reading the excessive female embodiment

We Have To Talk Samuel Shem,Janet Surrey,Stephen Bergman,1999-04-23 We have to talk For many men these are the four worst words in the English language especially when they re uttered by a female partner But it doesn t have to be that way argue Samuel Shem and Janet Surrey in their pathbreaking and practical new book Male relational dread that all too familiar reaction set off by women s relational yearnings can be tamed and in its place can emerge true satisfaction for men and women To demonstrate how this is done Shem and Surrey take us behind the scenes of their popular workshops We hear couples speak intimately about anger guilt resentment shame and sex We watch them wrestle collectively with the gender divide in their relationships the deep disconnects or impasses that reflect the vastly different developmental paths men and women have traveled We see couples learn to bridge the poles of dread and yearning to emerge from isolation into mutuality We witness their moments of sadness humor and ultimately discovery Filled with moving stories of real people struggling with real problems We Have to Talk shatters the rules and offers dramatic proof that men and women are not from different planets after all It is certain to be seen as the relationship book for the new millennium

The Faces of Intellectual Disability Licia Carlson,2010 The Faces of Intellectual Disability challenges current thinking about cognitive impairment in order to come to terms with what it means to treat people with intellectual disabilities in an ethical manner As she embraces the task of reassessing philosophical views of intellectual disability Licia Carlson shows how we can affirm the dignity and worth of intellectually disabled people by dropping comparisons to nonhuman animals and confronting fears and discomforts about mental impairment Carlson presents a complex history of ideas and notions about cognitive impairment the treatment of intellectually disabled people and social and cultural reactions to them Sensitive and clearly argued this book offers significant new thinking on recent trends in disability studies and philosophy The Story of 'M' SuAndi,2017-02-01 The Story of M is a solo performance that integrates visual projections and poetic language to portray autobiographical stories of racism poverty and sacrifice While sitting in a white screened hospital ward and as slides of family photographs flash all around her SuAndi travels from the multi racial Liverpool of the 1920s to life in Britain in the mid nineties Commissioned by the Institute for Contemporary Arts in 1995 The Story of M has received great critical acclaim in both the United States and Great Britain The Story of M is SuAndi s moving tribute to the life and death of her mother who raised her children in the face of frequent racism 1960s but never let them forget they were of African descent and to be proud of their heritages The Story of M is on the new A levels English Literature syllabus with a Black British list offered by EdExcel Examination Board 2017 101 Interventions in Group Therapy Scott Simon Fehr,2016-07-01 This newly revised and expanded second edition of 101 Interventions in Group Therapy offers practitioners exactly what they are looking for effective interventions in a clear and reader friendly format This comprehensive guide provides 101 short chapters by leading practitioners explaining step by step exactly what to do to when challenging situations arise in group therapy Featuring a wide selection of all new interventions with an added focus on working with diverse populations this comprehensive volume is an invaluable resource for both early career practitioners as well as seasoned group leaders looking to expand their collection of therapeutic tools Situating Sadness Janet M. Stoppard,Linda M. McMullen,2003-05-01 It is well known that depression occurs more often in women than in men It is the most commonly encountered mental health problem among women and ranks overall as one of the most important women s health problems Researchers have studied depression a great deal yet women s depression has rarely been the primary focus The contexts of women s lives which might contribute to their depression are not often addressed by the mental health establishment which tends to focus on biological factors Situating Sadness sheds light on the influence of sociocultural factors such as economic distress child bearing or child care difficulties or feelings of powerlessness which may play a significant role and points to the importance of context for understanding women s depression Situating Sadness draws on research in the United States and other parts of the world to look at depression through the eyes of women exploring what being depressed is like in diverse social and cultural circumstances It demonstrates that understanding depression requires close attention to the social context in which women become depressed Mothers and Daughters Alice H.
