Encyclopedia of New Jersey Maxine N. Lurie, Marc Mappen, 2004 Contains nearly original articles along with illustrations and maps collecting a wealth of information about the state of New Jersey The Catholic Library World John M. O'Loughlin, Francis Emmett Fitzgerald, 2000 Catholic Women Writers Mary Reichardt, 2001-07-30 Women have been writing in the Catholic tradition since early medieval times yet no single volume has brought together critical evaluations of their works until now The first reference of its kind Catholic Women Writers provides entries on 64 Catholic women writers from around the world and across the centuries Each of the entries is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography of the author a critical discussion of her works especially her Catholic and women s themes an overview of her critical reception and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources Authors writing in all genres including fiction autobiography poetry children s literature and essays are represented The entries give special attention to the authors use of Catholic themes structures traditions culture and spirituality The writers surveyed range from Doctors of the Church to mystics and visionaries to those who employ Catholic themes primarily in historical and cultural contexts to those who critique the tradition An introductory essay places the writers within the historical and literary contexts of women s writing in the Catholic tradition and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography New Catholic Encyclopedia

Supplement 2009 Robert L. Fastiggi, 2010 This Supplement 2009 not only provides new updates and articles on general Catholic topics but also focuses on the theme the Church and Science to ensure that Catholic contributions and perspectives related to this field are thoroughly covered Adapted from Foreword p XI The Works of Graham Greene Mike Hill, Jon Wise, 2013-03-14 A comprehensive reference guide to the published writings of Graham Greene this book surveys not only Greene s literary work including his fiction poetry and drama but also his other published writings Accessibly organised over five central sections the book provides the most up to date listing available of Greene s journalism his published letters and major interviews The Writings of Graham Greene also includes a bibliography of major secondary writings on Greene and a substantial and fully cross referenced index to aid scholars and researchers working in the field of 20th Century literature Bibliographic Index, 2001 The Peoples of Pennsylvania David E. Washburn, 1981 The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index, 2001 American Catholics in the Protestant Imagination Michael P. Carroll, 2007-11-12 Michael P. Carroll argues that the academic study of religion in the United States continues to be shaped by a Protestant imagination that has warped our perception of the American religious experience and its written history and analysis In this provocative study Carroll explores a number of historiographical puzzles that emerge from the American Catholic story as it has been understood through the Protestant tradition Reexamining the experience of Catholicism among Irish immigrants Italian Americans Acadians and Cajuns and Hispanics Carroll debunks the myths that have informed much of this history Shedding new light on lived religion in America Carroll moves an entire academic field in new exciting directions and challenges his fellow scholars to open their minds and eyes to develop fresh interpretations of American religious history Administration of Higher Education, an Annotated Bibliography United States. Education Office, 1966 These Catholic Sisters are all Mamas! Joan Burke, 2021-10-01 In Africa religion is very much embedded in the social structure and the organisation of the peoples of that continent That is why we will obtain a clear starting point for the eventual articulation of an African spirituality of religious life by examining closely how religious life is evolving on the ground in the everyday experience of religious women After considering how the political and Church culture fostered the inculturation of Catholic institutions this ethnographic work documents the unfolding African expression of the Sisterhood among women religious in the former Zaire Areas examined are perception of the sister in terms of the people incorporation of newer members understanding of community life local models of social relationships which affects sisters among themselves dynamics of group decision making expression and resolution of social conflict Problems and Prospects of the Search for a Catholic Spiritual Tradition in the Ghanaian Catholic Pastoral Ministry Norbert Okoledah, 2005 Today Christianity has become the most popular and fast growing religion in Ghana Paradoxically the Christian Church in whatever form it has taken has for a complexity of reasons basically remained a weak church with a weak foundation This book discusses from a theologico cultural anthropological perspective some of the ecclesial and social processes and factors that the author believes are responsible for the creation of this paradox in the case of the Ghanaian Catholic Church and demonstrates how they influence the search for a Catholic spiritual tradition in it Saints, Clergy and Other Religious Figures on Film and Television, 1895-2003 Ann C. Paietta, 2015-01-24 The portrayal of clergy saints missionaries monks and other spiritual leaders dates back to the very beginnings of motion pictures and television Over the years filmmakers have portrayed religious figures as heroes and villains sinners and saints and nearly everything in between Through their works filmmakers have influenced how society viewed these religious figures and by extension religion itself This work details over 900 films and television series made from the 1890s through 2003 in which a religious figure plays a prominent or recurring role or in which a character poses as a religious figure For each motion picture full filmographic data are provided including title studio running time year of release director producer writer and cast along with a synopsis focusing on the role of the religious figure Television series are covered in a separate section For each show the entry includes the title under which the show was commonly known the original broadcast network the years the show ran running time and cast and a brief discussion of the religious character's role in the overall series Extensively indexed Catholic Social Thought Anthony J.
