New Diary:

The New Diary Tristine Rainer, 1979-07-01 The New Diary is about a completely modern concept of journal writing It has little to do with the rigid daily calendar diary you may have kept as a child or the factual travelogue you wrote to recall the Grand Canyon Instead it is a tool for tapping the full power of your inner resources The New Diary is as much for those who already keep a journal as it is for those who have never kept one It does not tell you the right way to keep a diary rather it offers numerous possibilities for using the diary to achieve your own purposes It is a place for you to clarify goals visualize the future and focus your energies a means of freeing your intuition and imagination a workbook for exploring your dreams your past and your present life It is for everyone seeking concrete methods for dealing with personal problems It is for women and men interested in achieving self reliance and inner liberation for artists and writers seeking new techniques for overcoming blocks to creativity

The New Woman in Early Twentieth-century Chinese Fiction Jin Feng, 2004 Jin Feng proposes that representation of the new woman in Communist Chinese fiction of the earlier twentieth century was paradoxically one of the ways in which male writers of the era explored negotiated and laid claim to their own emerging identity as modern intellectuals

Bender's Lawyers' Diary and Directory for the State of New York, 1916 Daily Modernism Elizabeth Podnieks, 2000 Toronto based scholar Podnieks analyzes the diaries based on both the published volumes and the unpublished manuscripts Her work on the manuscripts focuses on their physical qualities exploring how the women designed their diaries as books with title pages prefaces indexes illustrations and other features and how elements such as handwriting edited words and phrases or torn out pages illuminate facets of self representation and self preservation c Book News Inc

Nomadic New Women Renée M. Silverman, Esther Sánchez-Pardo, 2024-11-08 Nomadic New Women Exile and Border Crossing between Spain and the Americas Early to Mid Twentieth Century examines how gender and sexuality border crossing and exile intersect in women s intellectual and artistic practices during the volatile historical period of the first half of the twentieth century in and around Spain and the Americas Each of the twelve chapters in this highly interdisciplinary volume analyzes the combined impact of gender and sexual identity and the traversing of particular national and world regional boundaries on creative work Together and separately the contributors push the limits of past and present research on exile and migration displacement and nomadism to reveal how the complex interrelationships among gender sexuality and cultural production come under intense pressure by the crossing of borders
