Folkers, Belinda A. C. van Buiten, 2019-07-22 This book offers unique insights into modern African architecture influenced by modern European architecture and at the same time a natural successor to existing site specific and traditional architecture It brings together the worlds of traditional site specific architecture with the Modernist Project in Africa which to date have only been considered in isolation The book covers the four architectural disciplines urban planning building technology building physics and conservation It includes an introduction with a historical outline and an analysis and comparison of a number of projects in various countries in Africa On the basis of examples drawn from practice the author documents and describes the hybrid architectural forms that have emerged from the confrontation and fusion with pre modern Western architecture and urban planning and in so doing he also narrates the history of African architecture Architecture and Power in Africa Nnamdi Elleh, 2002-12-30 Two of the most ambitious religious edifices of the 20th century are the Our Lady of Peace Basilica in the West African country of the Ivory Coast and the Hassan II Mosque in Morocco Nnamdi Elleh not only provides a substantial architectural and pictorial analysis of the buildings themselves Using these two buildings as case studies he also investigates questions of national memory urban form architectural styles concepts of democracy social hierarchies as well as the elites who make the decisions to build Africa's post independence monuments and capital cities His book is an exciting synthesis of theoretical and empirical analysis that is bound to stimulate debate about the form and content of post colonial identities in Africa Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1972 Architecture Henry-Russell Hitchcock, 1987-01-01 This book examines a period which is far more than a prelude to the age of steel and concrete The first half century culminated in the bold iron and glass of the Crystal Palace There follows the creation of the modern styles of the era based on traditions of the past and finally in the 20th century Art Nouveau and the modern architects in their generations Perret Wright Gropius Corbusier Mies van der Rohe and others in many parts of the world

Colonial Architecture and Urbanism in Africa Fassil Demissie, 2016-12-05 Colonial architecture and urbanism carved its way through space ordering and classifying the built environment while projecting the authority of European powers across Africa in the name of science and progress The built urban fabric left by colonial powers attests to its lingering impacts in shaping the present and the future trajectory of postcolonial cities in Africa Colonial Architecture and Urbanism explores the intersection between architecture and urbanism as discursive cultural projects in Africa Like other colonial institutions such as the courts police prisons and schools that were crucial in establishing and maintaining political domination colonial architecture and urbanism played a pivotal role in shaping the spatial and social structures of African cities during the 19th and 20th centuries Indeed it is the cultural destination of colonial architecture and urbanism and the connection between them and colonialism that the volume seeks to critically address The contributions drawn from different interdisciplinary fields map the historical processes of colonial architecture and urbanism and bring into sharp focus the dynamic conditions in which colonial states officials architects planners medical doctors and missionaries mutually constructed a hierarchical and exclusionary built environment that served the wider colonial project in Africa
