Library,1962      The Stolen Notebooks SUSAN AUDREY GRUNDY,2019-09-29 Art Historian Susan Grundy delves into reasons biographers assume a Tuscan painter Leonardo da Vinci wrote the Notebooks It was only in the nineteenth century that European scholars began to access these Notebooks in more depth transcribing the arcane backwards Italian and translating them into English Yet they discovered a man who did not seem to be Tuscan Leonardo da Vinci as he seemed to be a man from the East Yet this reality was closed down by researchers who seemed determined to continue with the myth of the self educated genius from a farm in Tuscany      National Galleries Simon Knell,2016-01-22 Are national galleries different from other kinds of art gallery or museum What value is there for the nation in a collection of international masterpieces How are national galleries involved in the construction national art National Galleries is the first book to undertake a panoramic view of a type of national institution which are sometimes called national museums of fine art that is now found in almost every nation on earth Adopting a richly illustrated globally inclusive comparative view Simon Knell argues that national galleries should not be understood as great galleries but as peculiar sites where art is made to perform in acts of nation building A book that fundamentally rewrites the history of these institutions and encourages the reader to dispense with elitist views of their worth Knell reveals an unseen geography and a rich complexity of performance He considers the ways the national galleries entangle art and nation and the differing trajectories and purposes of international and national art Exploring galleries artists and artworks from around the world National Galleries is an argument about how we think about and study these institutions Privileging the situatedness of each national gallery performance and valuing localism over universalism Knell looks particularly at how national art is constructed and represented He ends with examples that show the mutability of national art and by questioning the necessity of art nationalism
