Peacebuilding in Pakistan Heike Ruhland, 2019 When Pakistan was carved out of India in 1947 as a homeland for the Muslims of the subcontinent it was envisioned as a secular state where non Muslims would be granted freedom of religion and equal citizenship However the subsequent historical events led to a fast Islamization of nearly every part of public life and discrimination against the country's religious minorities who today make up less than 4 per cent of the overall population Based on extensive field work involving more than 100 non structured qualitative interviews this study explores the situation of the religious minorities and the dynamics of interfaith peacebuilding in the Islamic Republic of Pakistan Primary focus was laid on the practice of interfaith dialogue which given the draconic blasphemy laws differs from interfaith dialogue as conceived of in the West Additionally other peacebuilding measures as offered by various non governmental organizations were taken into account be they advocacy promotion of human rights and unbiased education or policy negotiation with the government Heike Ruhland holds two master s degrees one in Islamic Studies University of Zurich and one in International Information Management University of Hildesheim She attained her PhD from the Academy of World Religions University of Hamburg
