European Immigrant Families Mihaela Robila, 2013-05-13 Immigration from Eastern Europe to the United States has grown significantly in the last few decades While Asian and Latin American immigrations have been central to the discourse of migration to the US the rapid growth of Eastern European immigrants has received insufficient attention Robila fills this gap by presenting key issues related to immigration from Eastern Europe such as child rearing beliefs and practices cultural beliefs second generational conflicts as well as the challenges faced by Eastern European immigrants as they immigrate around the world

Language, Race, and Power in Schools Pierre Orelus, 2016-12-08 In this edited collection authors from various academic cultural racial linguistic and personal backgrounds use critical discourse analysis as a conceptual framework and method to examine social inequities identity issues and linguistic discrimination faced by historically oppressed groups in schools and society Language Race and Power in Schools unravels the ways and degrees to which these groups have faced and resisted oppression and draws on critical discourse analysis to examine how multiple forms of oppression intersect This volume interrogates areas of discrimination and injustice and discusses possibilities of developing coalitions and concerted efforts across the lines of diversity

Five Generations of a Mexican American Family in Los Angeles Christina Chavez, 2007-04-09 Despite their citizenship and English monolingualism Mexican Americans have long been known to remain largely working class which academically has meant that they tend to be mostly high school graduates with low rates of college attendance and completion Attempting to understand this phenomenon Five Generations of a Mexican American Family in Los Angeles chronicles the home work and school lives of the author's multigenerational family throughout the twentieth century Using oral histories of 33 members across five generations the Fuentes story illuminates the interaction between race ethnicity and class at home in the labor market and in schools which circumscribe the opportunity and resources or lack thereof for academic success Generally findings show that these factors work together to reproduce the family's social standing over generations Equally important the analysis reveals how the persistence and strength of the Fuentes heritage cultural values buena educaci n and familism have insulated them from the continued threat of racial discrimination and economic hardship in American life The Fuentes story provides the reader with a keen view of the process by which Fuentes moved from immigrants to ethnic Americans and shows how they have gracefully survived the harsh and unpredictable nature of being of a racial minority and the working class

Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity Linda C. Tillman, James Joseph Scheurich, 2013-08-21 The rapid growth of diversity within U S schooling and the heightened attention to the lack of equity in student achievement school completion and postsecondary attendance has made equity and diversity two of the principle issues in education educational leadership and educational leadership research The Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity is the first research based handbook that comprehensively addresses the broad diversity in U S schools by race ethnicity culture language gender disability sexual identity and class The Handbook both highly values the critically important strengths and assets that diversity brings to the United States and its schools yet at the same time candidly critiques the destructive deficit thinking biases and prejudices that undermine school success for many groups of students Well known chapter authors explore diversity and related inequities in schools and the achievement problems these issues present to school leaders Each chapter reviews theoretical and empirical evidence of these inequities and provides research based recommendations for practice and for future research Celebrating the broad diversity in U S schools the Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity critiques the inequities connected to that diversity and provides evidence based practices to promote student success for all children Caring for a Living Francesca Degiuli,2016 The world is aging at a great speed While this is a remarkable achievement aging also brings new challenges among them a growing need for long term care Caring for a Living specifically investigates Italy s employment of home eldercare assistance an arrangement whereby long term care services are bought in the market in the form of private and individualized assistance predominantly female immigrants Marcha Amalia Pallares,Nilda Flores-Gonzalez,2023-12-11 Marcha is a multidisciplinary survey of the individuals organizations and institutions that have given shape and power to the contemporary immigrant rights movement in Chicago A city with longstanding historic ties to immigrant activism Chicago has been the scene of a precedent setting immigrant rights mobilization in 2006 and subsequent mobilizations in 2007 and 2008 Positing Chicago as a microcosm of the immigrant rights movement on national level these essays plumb an extraordinarily rich set of data regarding recent immigrant rights activities defining the cause as not just a local quest for citizenship rights but a panethnic transnational movement The result is a timely volume likely to provoke debate and advance the national conversation about immigration in innovative ways Exploring the Complexities in Global Citizenship Education Lauren Ila Misiaszek,2019-08-14 With a focus on the Global South this book argues that awareness and discussion of the politics of equity and inclusion in global citizenship education GCE research are essential to the future of nuanced and effective research in this area The book explores the notion of heavily regulated hard spaces to examine areas of institutional blindness and reflects on ways to negotiate the issue of sensitivity in an institutional context exploring how one s sensitivity relates to pedagogy and ethics Through this in depth metadiscussion of GCE research the book provides a complex portrait of unique challenges in this domain and explores the nuanced experience of navigating temporal intersections of the global the citizen and education in geographically and thematically obstructed spaces This book will be of great interest to researchers policymakers academics and postgraduate students in the fields of global education comparative education and educational policy
