

A man and a woman are walking along a pebbly beach at dusk. The man, in the foreground, is wearing a dark turtleneck and looking towards the right. The woman, slightly behind him, is wearing a dark dress with a light-colored shawl draped over her shoulders and is also looking to the right. The background shows the calm sea meeting a sky with soft, purple and blue hues of twilight.

The New Kind of Love E. W. Kenyon, 2025-07-15 The two greatest forces in the world today are love and selfishness Natural human love has failed because it is based upon selfishness Does God have a solution for this problem We believe that He has It is The New Kind of Love that has been overlooked by the church but has recently been rediscovered This book unveils the new kind of love that Jesus brought to the world This love comes into a barren life and makes it blossom as a rose It takes away the hardness and bitterness of life There will be no empty lives no barren lives Every life may become a garden of delight God has made it possible To walk in love is actually to live in God It is the realm where the Word dominates where faith functions Faith grows in the atmosphere of love It becomes a dominating and creative force when love really rules This new kind of love agape was born in the realm of divine revelation It is a deep and profound sacrificial love that transcends and persists regardless of circumstances A NEW KIND OF LOVE Patrick Aks ,1982 The Form of Love James

Kuzner, 2021-08-03 Can poetry articulate something about love that philosophy cannot The Form of Love argues that it can In close readings of seven metaphysical poems the book shows how poets of the early modern period and beyond use poetic form to turn philosophy to other ends in order not to represent the truth about love but to create a virtual experience of love in all its guises The Form of Love shows how verse creates love that can't exist without poetry's specific affordances and how poems can in their impossibility prompt love's radical re-imagining Like the philosophies on which they draw metaphysical poems imagine love as an intense form of non-sovereignty of giving up control They even imagine love as a liberating bondage to a friend a beloved a saint a God or a garden Yet these poems create strange striking versions of such love made in rather than through the devices structures and forces where love appears Tracing how poems think Kuzner argues requires an intimate form of reading close even too close attention to and thinking with the text Showing how poetry thinks of love otherwise than other fields the book reveals how poetry and philosophy can nevertheless enter into a relation that is itself like love The Origin of Love Ryūhō Ōkawa, 2003 Love is what we all admire it is our ideal True love is revealed in the beauty and brightness of our souls Love begins with the idea that we all originated from one God and that we are essentially one with others Why do people love each other or hate each other In this book spiritual teacher Ryuho Okawa answers this question by referring to the origin of love in relation to the secret of eternal life When you understand the Truth about love you will be awakened to the wonder of being given life and you will be filled with love for those around you

Family Bonding Giftly Agyemang, 2015-04-17 This book has come at this critical moment when families are tearing apart for various reasons It is therefore a voice crying in the cities towns and villages for families to be properly bonded as required by the chief architect of marriage God almighty The contents of this book therefore have the full potential to encourage families to stay and live together in peace This is against the backdrop of the collapse of the family system which not only affects individuals but also society at large The book passionately calls on all and sundry to endeavour to guard jealously the priceless family unit because what shall it profit a man if he gains the whole world but loses his family

Love and Other Technologies Dominic Pettman, 2006 Can love really be considered another form of technology Dominic Pettman says it can although not before carefully redefining technology as a cultural challenge to what we mean by the human in the information age Using the writings of such important thinkers as Giorgio Agamben Jean Luc Nancy and Bernard Stiegler as a springboard Pettman explores the tectonic movements of contemporary culture specifically in relation to the language of eros Highly ritualized expressions of desire love in other words always reveal an era's attitude toward what it means to exist as a self among others For Pettman the articulation of love is a technique of belonging a way of responding to the basic plurality of everyone's identity a process that becomes increasingly complex as the forms of mediated communication from cell phone and text messaging to the mass media multiply and mesh together Wrestling the idea of love from the arthritic hands of Romanticism Pettman demonstrates the ways in which this dynamic assemblage the stirrings of the soul have always been a matter of tools devices prosthetics and media Love is after all something we make And love this book argues is not eternal but external

The End of Love Eva Illouz, 2021-09-15 Western culture has endlessly represented the ways in which love miraculously erupts in people's lives the mythical moment in which one knows someone is destined for us the feverish waiting for a phone call or an email the thrill that runs down our spine at the mere thought of him or her Yet a culture that has so much to say about love is virtually silent on the no less mysterious moments when we avoid falling in love where we fall out of love when the one who kept us awake at night now leaves us indifferent or when we hurry away from those who excited us a few months or even a few hours before In The End of Love Eva Illouz documents the multifarious ways in which relationships end She argues that if modern love was once marked by the freedom to enter sexual and emotional bonds according to one's will and choice contemporary love has now become characterized by practices of non choice the freedom to withdraw from relationships Illouz dubs this process by which relationships fade evaporate dissolve and break down unloving While sociology has classically focused on the formation of social bonds The End of Love makes a powerful case for studying why and how social bonds collapse and dissolve Particularly striking is the role that capitalism plays in practices of non choice and unloving The unmaking of social bonds she argues is connected to contemporary capitalism which is characterized by practices of non commitment and non choice practices that enable the quick withdrawal from a transaction and the quick realignment of prices and the breaking of loyalties Unloving and non choice have in turn a profound impact on society and economics as they explain why people may be having fewer children increasingly living alone and having less sex The End of Love presents a profound and original analysis of the effects of capitalism and consumer culture on personal relationships and of what the dissolution of personal relationships means for capitalism

Toppling in Murmansk John Foster, 2006-06 In the grand tradition of Tristram Shandy and Tom Jones not to mention Huckle Finn and Holden Caulfield author John D Foster takes us on a journey through the American landscape of latter day 20th century It's a rollicking tale of being down and out or in and out with a smorgasbord of cads cons and other characters who populate the daylight demimonde of Southern California on the fringe Indeed it s a fringe tale of the edgy the offbeat and the oddball These are tales not oft told full of whimpers and whispers that are reminiscent of a whiplash in a hurricane Dark Side of Love Rafik Schami,Anthea Bell,2010-10-15 A dead man hangs from the portal of St Paul Chapel in Damascus He was a Muslim officer and he was murdered But when Detective Barudi sets out to interrogate the man s mysterious widow the Secret Service takes the case away from him Barudi continues to investigate clandestinely and discovers the murderer s motive it is a blood feud between the Mushtak and Shahin clans reaching back to the beginnings of the 20th century And linked to it a love story that can have no happy ending for reconciliation has no place within the old tribal structures Rafik Schami dazzling novel spans a century of Syrian history in which politics and religions continue to torment an entire people Simultaneously his poetic stories from three generations tell of the courage of lovers who risk death sooner than deny their passions He has also written a heartfelt tribute to his hometown Damascus and a great and moving hymn to the power of love
