Reluctant Bride 34:

Accepted Tigris Eden, 2025-10-28 ACADEMY OF THE GODS ACCEPTED YEAR ONE ORIENTATION Twenty years ago Nenet Summers was abandoned at the Statue of Liberty with nothing but a name that means Goddess of the Deep Now living paycheck to paycheck in a cramped New York apartment she's convinced her biggest problem is making rent She's wrong When a seven foot shapeshifter in traditional Egyptian robes appears at her door with an invitation to a school she's never heard of Nenet's world tilts off its axis The Academy of the Gods isn't just any university it's a hidden realm where the children of deities learn to wield their divine heritage And according to Femi her mysterious guardian Nenet is the daughter of Anubis Egyptian God of Death and Iya Nla West African Goddess of Creation The first Xtheo born in centuries Nenet possesses the unprecedented power to bridge life and death and every pantheon in existence wants to control her At the Academy ancient prophecies collide with modern desires Nenet is destined to mate with Tariq The Lion Kosey the arrogant son of Ra but their mutual rejection of fate sparks dangerous consequences When Massika her assigned handmaiden claims to be Anubis's true descendant and Tariq's chosen lover Nenet discovers that some lies run deeper than blood Caught between duty and desire prophecy and free will Nenet must master abilities that could either create true life after death or destroy the cosmic balance forever But in a world where gods play politics and love defies destiny the greatest threat may come from those sworn to protect her Because someone doesn't want the prophecy fulfilled and they'll cross realms to ensure Nenet never lives to bridge them all A spellbinding blend of Egyptian and West African mythology where ancient magic meets modern attitude and destiny has never been more dangerous to defy Renewing Tradition Mark W.

Hamilton, Thomas H. Olbricht, Jeffrey Peterson, 2006-11-10 We offer this collection as a token of our affection and admiration of our friend and colleague James Weldon Thompson His studies of the letter to the Hebrews and of Paul in their intellectual contexts especially Middle Platonism have contributed significantly to the ongoing quest for placing the New Testament in its socio intellectual setting Although his publications in this area date back more than thirty years his best work is occurring now and we may anticipate path breaking contributions ahead His more recent work on preaching and pastoral care in Paul both situate the Apostle in his own world and just as importantly offer correctives of some contemporary ministerial practices and invitations for improvements Since 1993 Thompson has served as the editor of Restoration Quarterly a significant venue for research in biblical studies church history especially of the Stone Campbell Restoration Movement and contemporary theology His more popular works make available to a lay audience thoughtful well informed and spiritually rewarding interpretations of much of the New Testament His achievements however do not end at the printing press For more than thirty years he has taught ministers and others at the Institute for Christian Studies now Austin Graduate School of Theology and Abilene Christian University Students of the past and the present speak of him as a prepared stimulating and creative teacher unafraid of experimentation for a new generation of learners At both institutions he also served as an administrator first as President of ICS and then as Associate Dean of ACU's Graduate School of Theology His colleagues respect his ability to enlist them for work as needed and otherwise to get out of their way certainly a too rare set of skills in university administrators from the Preface Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, Deuteronomy Roy Gane, Eugene Carpenter, R. Dennis Cole, Bruce Wells, 2009 This series brings to life the world of the Old Testament through informative entries and full color photos and graphics Here readers find the premier commentary set for connecting with the historical and cultural context of the Old Testament Global Problems in Sexual Offenses Rahime Erbas, 2022-06-21 Sexual offences pose severe violations of human rights that necessitate criminal law intervention in every democratic society Using a holistic and integrated approach this book examines sexual offenses through criminal law and criminal procedure within different jurisdictions Impunity or lenient punishment enjoyed by perpetrators appears as a fundamental concern and contribute to lower reporting rates Attrition from the perspective of criminal law is not only caused by issues in criminal procedure like a lack of victim support or insufficient evidence but is primarily linked to the definition of sexual offences which is hugely influenced by society culture and political power Stereotypes that are deeply rooted in society in the form of common myths such as victim of sexual offences are always female s or sexual offences take place outside of marriage or that the victim has an obligation to manifest a resistance or a woman accepting a gift by a man shows she consented to sexual acts and many others that are impediment to combatting sexual violence These myths are not just maintained by society but they also affect the victim's decision to seek justice as well as the judiciary's approach to victims and the police's attitudes towards victims Using cases and legislation from Croatia Greece Italy North Macedonia Romania Serbia and Turkey and comparing them to United Kingdom Germany the Netherlands and the United States this book presents peculiarities stemming from society culture politics historical facts and even religion along with solutions to the global problems of sexual offenses This book is of interest to scholars studying criminal justice legal studies sociology and cultural studies Pearson's Magazine ,1901

Untouchable Poems Suryaraju Mattimalla, 2024-08-23 A summary of untouchable poetry would entail a discussion of the several topics and ideas that are typical of this genre Identity and Marginalization Untouchable poetry addresses the difficult issues of how identities are formed in response to marginalization and prejudice based on caste The poets consistently depict social exclusion experiences and the struggles they faced to maintain their humanity and dignity Social Injustice and Oppression Untouchable poets in fact raise powerful and audible voices in opposition to the atrocities and social injustices that continue to be meted out to them including caste violence and untouchability in addition to being denied access to desirable jobs and education in society at large Their poetry is a powerful cry for social fairness and reform Untouchable poets typically use this technique to attack the dominant cultural norms and traditions that uphold caste based inequalities and discriminatory practices Additionally he will present counterculture and alternative discourses that highlight the perspective and voice of the underprivileged Since untouchable poetry offers voice to a community that has been marginalized and silenced due to opposition from the ruling class and established structures it is generally seen as their resistance literature
