Remarkable World Of Frances Barkley 1769-1845:

The Remarkable World of Frances Barkley Beth Hill, Cathy Converse, 2011-07-06 Frances Barkley was just eighteen when she became the first European woman to set foot on the west coast of North America. After a sheltered upbringing in England, Frances found herself boarding the Imperial Eagle in 1786 to set sail on an adventurous round the world voyage with her husband, Captain Charles William Barkley. With great wisdom and wit, Frances recounted her eight years at sea in her Reminiscences as she found herself in a wider world, helping her husband in his business, giving birth to her children, surviving the tragedy of a young daughter's death, and meeting strange and foreign peoples. Today's place names of Barkley Sound, Frances Island, Imperial Eagle Channel, and others on Vancouver Island, as well as the ship Frances Barkley, are standing memorials to the enterprising and courageous Barkleys. Originally researched by writer Beth Hill, The Remarkable World of Frances Barkley has been expanded on by writer and historian Cathy Converse to bring the intrepid young bride and her world to life for a new generation of readers.

On This Day in Somerset Helen Pugh, 2025-11-03 A life-changing meeting on International Women's Day. A philosopher buried on St George's Day. A suffragette released from prison on Christmas Eve. With some familiar faces from Unsung Women in Somerset plus many new people to meet, including medics, human rights campaigners, witches, heroes, preachers, and more. From Roman times to the present day and from Athelney to the Zoylands, this book celebrates 366 days of women across the county of Somerset, a calendar where women from all walks of life take their rightful place centre stage. Readers can discover which woman is connected to their birthday or any special date, making this almanac a unique and personal way to engage with local history. It's a book that can be read one page a day throughout the year or be devoured in a handful of sittings.

Women Adventurers, 1750-1900 Mary F. McVicker, 2015-05-07 The past quarter century has seen a number of biographies and anthologies on women travelers, but to date there has been little comprehensive reference work done on the travelers themselves. Some of the women were eccentric, many were very adventurous, some were in search of a different world. British women make up the largest portion of the book's focus, these particular adventurers being backed in many cases by family money, scientific inquiry, and the ready availability of the British seafaring tradition. Entries include the woman's family background, her educational history, and a summary of her world travels, with in many cases evocative extracts from their writings; many are literary gems.

Glyphs and Gallows Peter Wilton Johnson, 1999 In 1995 Peter Johnson went looking for a rare set of petroglyphs located on the outer coast of Vancouver Island, near an abandoned whaling village. Encouraged by archival research that yielded court records, 90-year-old correspondence, and a tantalizing 1926 newspaper article, Peter sought to tie these glyphs to the 1869 wreck of the trading barque John Bright and the bizarre colonial trial that followed. He found more questions than answers. Why, for example, were two Nuuchahmuth men so readily hung from a gallows erected in front of their village at Hesquiat? And how did this event relate to the rock carvings that Peter knew existed in a cove many miles south, along the life-saving

West Coast Trail by the Graveyard of the Pacific This story explores the significance of particular petroglyphs colonial injustice and the European trading mentality on the west coast at the time of contact Peter interweaves a personal journal with historical narrative in order to produce a lively account of the relationship between our coastal history and a little known Aboriginal art form Historical Dictionary of the Discovery and Exploration of the Northwest Passage Alan Day,2006-01-03 This compendium of explorers navigators and expeditions tackles this broad topic with a convenient but extensive cross referenced dictionary A chronology traces the long succession of treks to find the passage the introduction helps explain what motivated them and the bibliography provides a means for those wishing to discover more information on this exciting subject A Voyage to the North West Side of America Robert Galois,2011-11-01 James Colnett a veteran of James Cook s second voyage to North America was an early participant in the maritime sea otter trade Between 1786 and 1789 his two vessel expedition traversed the Northwest Coast from Prince William Sound to Vancouver Island and wintered on the Hawaiian Islands Along the way he and his crew had some remarkable encounters with Native peoples of the Northwest Coast and the Hawaiian Islands they were the first Europeans to encounter the Tsimshian and the southern Heiltsuk peoples as well as the first to land on the southern Queen Charlotte Islands Colnett s journal of this expedition is published here for the first time Editor Robert Galois provides extensive annotations along with an introductory essay addressing the geopolitical context of the voyage and the intellectual background that shaped the writing of the journal Galois supplements Colnett s writings with extracts from a second journal also previously unpublished by Andrew Bracey Taylor third mate on one of the ships under Colnett s command Also included are illustrations from Colnett s journals and a variety of maps both contemporary and historical This fascinating and informative account offers a new understanding of the early European presence in the Northwest and of Native responses to these developments It will interest historians geographers and ethnographers of the Northwest Coast and beyond Queen Ka'ahumanu of Hawaii Thomas W.
