Structured Reminiscence and Gestalt Life Review Steven D. Koffman,2000 First published in 2000 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Meaning of Reminiscence and Life Review Jon Hendricks,2019-04-04 Robert Butler s call for life reviews has exerted a key influence on the way gerontologists have looked at reminiscence and remembering Widely thought to be a helpful mechanism for integrating past and future the process of life review needs better specification and evaluation based on sound research The Meaning of Reminiscence and Life Review brings together both research and application pieces covering the range of possibilities It examines important controversies and asks Does it work and What is the evidence Given their own voice what do old people say about looking back

Understanding Quality Of Life In Old Age Walker, Alan,2005-06-01 What constitutes quality of life for older people How can quality of life be measured How might policy makers improve quality of life for older people This book considers key findings from the Growing Older research programme and presents them in a lively thematic format It discusses essential topics such as environment family bereavement identity and social interaction and describes key concepts and measures Using data drawn from a range of different research projects the book illustrates considerable methodological diversity to capture a broad picture of quality of life Key implications for future research on quality of life in older age are also proposed The book is a companion volume to Growing Older Quality of Life in Old Age edited by Alan Walker and Catherine Hagan Hennessy and is key reading on a range of undergraduate and Masters level courses including social gerontology social work sociology and social policy Contributors Sara Arber John Baldock Kate M Bennett David Blane Ann Bowling Elizabeth Breeze Jabeer Butt Lynda Clarke Peter Coleman Kate Davidson Murna Downs Maria Evandrou Ken Gilhooly Mary Gilhooly Jane Gow Jan Hadlow Catherine Hagan Hennessy Paul Higgs Caroline Holland Georgina M Hughes Martin Hyde Leonie Kellaher Mary Maynard Kevin McKee F McKiernan Christopher McKevitt Marie Mills Jo Moriarty James Nazroo Sheila Peace Thomas Scharf Philip T Smith Peter Speck Susan Tester Christina Victor Alan Walker Peter Warr Lorna Warren Dick Wiggins Fiona Wilson Reminiscence Work with Old People Clare Gillies,Anne James,2013-11-11 Perhaps being old is like having lighted rooms Inside your head and people in them acting People you know but can t quite name Philip lArkin This book is about those very old people who have a great many memories but few friends left to share them with It is about valuing and using their memories to enhance the quality of their lives that is about reminiscence work Many professionals offer this help to older people including nurses social workers occupational therapists and clinical psychologists as do families and voluntary workers Its elements can be incorporated into day to day contacts with older people or it may take place in more structured settings The transitional period from mature middle age to dependent old age is neither distinct nor precise It does not occur at an identifiable time it may be prolonged and it may not be obvious to the old people or their families Loss of autonomy the inability to cope unaided with the tasks of daily living and increasing physical and mental frailty probably signal the area of transition The diminished self confidence that some old people feel at this time may be compounded by personal loss and financial difficulties enforced changes in their lifestyles may also add to their confusion

The Art and Science of Reminiscing Jeffrey D. Webster, Barbara Haight, 2013-02-01 Although recognition of reminiscing as a potentially adaptive process can be traced back over 30 years to the seminal work of Robert Butler as discussed in the Foreword there has been little effort to consolidate the work and paint a complete picture of reminiscing as an entity Here reminiscing is presented as a multi disciplinary topic examining the theory of and research on reminiscing The book also discusses the different ways of conducting life review interviews and explores therapeutic applications Contributors to this book many of whom are pioneers and leading figures in the field discuss and elaborate their latest thinking and research findings from multiple perspectives The volume s strength derives from its multi disciplinary nursing psychiatry psychology gerontology community advocacy and multinational Australia Canada England Sweden and the United States treatment James Birren Irene Burnside and Phillipe Cappeliez are a few of the eminent scholars authoring this volume

Reminiscence and Life Story Work Faith Gibson, 2011-08-15 Reminiscence is a valuable tool for the professional carer as well as those looking after a family member or friend It enhances and enriches the care relationship and benefits both the person being cared for and the carer This fully updated fourth edition is full of practical information on planning and running successful reminiscence work
