Reminiscences of Anton Chekhov Maksim Gorky,Alexander Kuprin,I Bunin,2018-04-13 Anton Pavlovich Chekhov was a Russian playwright and short story writer who is considered to be among the greatest writers of short fiction in history His career as a playwright produced four classics and his best short stories are held in high esteem by writers and critics Along with Henrik Ibsen and August Strindberg Chekhov is often referred to as one of the three seminal figures in the birth of early modernism in the theatre Chekhov practiced as a medical doctor throughout most of his literary career Medicine is my lawful wife he once said and literature is my mistress Chekhov renounced the theatre after the reception of The Seagull in 1896 but the play was revived to acclaim in 1898 by Konstantin Stanislavski s Moscow Art Theatre which subsequently also produced Chekhov s Uncle Vanya and premiered his last two plays Three Sisters and The Cherry Orchard These four works present a challenge to the acting ensemble as well as to audiences because in place of conventional action Chekhov offers a theatre of mood and a submerged life in the text Chekhov had at first written stories only for financial gain but as his artistic ambition grew he made formal innovations which have influenced the evolution of the modern short story He made no apologies for the difficulties this posed to readers insisting that the role of an artist was to ask questions not to answer them

From the translator's note: when this book was originally published in 1921, the contents of this volume have not previously been translated into English. The first section consists of Chekhov's Notebooks, in which from 1892 to 1904 he jotted down thoughts, quotations, etc., which were the raw materials of his writings. The second section, Themes, Thoughts, Notes, and Fragments, was found among his papers, written on sheets in a special cover with that title. It contains material somewhat more elaborated than that in the Notebooks. It was his habit, if he used any of this material, to strike it out in the Notebooks. Both the Notebooks and the Themes were first published in Russia in a volume of Chekhov's literary remains in 1914. We have added some reminiscences of Chekhov by Gorky, which appeared in Russia in 1906 but which have not been translated into English. REMINISCENCES OF ANTON CHEKHOV Maksim 1868-1936 Gorky, Ivan Alekseevich 1870-1953 Bunin, A. Reminiscences of Anton Chekhov Maxim Gorky, Alexander Kuprin, I Bunin, 2012-06-07 A shadow of sadness crossed his beautiful eyes little rays of wrinkles surrounded them and made them look still more meditative Then looking round he said jestingly You see I have fired off at you a complete leading article from a radical paper Come I ll give you tea to reward your patience That was characteristic of him to speak so earnestly with such warmth and sincerity and then suddenly to laugh at himself and his speech In that sad and gentle smile one felt the subtle skepticism of the man who knows the value of words and dreams and there also flashed in the smile a lovable modesty and delicate sensitiveness Anton Tchekhov Anton Pavlovich Chekhov, 1965-05-01 Reminiscences of Anton Chekhov Kuprin, Gorky, Bunin, 2014-07-07 Once he invited me to the village Koutchouk Koy where he had a tiny strip of land and a white two storied house There while showing me his estate he began to speak with animation If I had plenty of money I should build a sanatorium here for invalid village teachers You know I would put up a large bright building very bright with large windows and lofty rooms I would have a fine library different musical instruments bees a vegetable garden an orchard There would be lectures on agriculture mythology Teachers ought to know everything everything my dear fellow He was suddenly silent coughed looked at me out of the corners of his eyes and smiled that tender charming smile of his which attracted one so irresistibly to him and made one listen so attentively to his words Does it bore you to listen to my fantasies I do love to talk of it If you knew how badly the Russian village needs a nice sensible educated teacher We ought in Russia to give the teacher particularly good conditions and it ought to be done as quickly as possible We ought to realize that without a wide education of the people Russia will collapse like a house built of badly baked bricks A teacher must be an artist in love with his calling but with us he is a journeyman ill educated who goes to the village to teach children as though he were going into exile He is starved crushed terrorized by the fear of losing his daily bread But he ought to be the first man in the village the peasants ought to recognize him as a power worthy of attention and respect no one should dare to shout at him or humiliate him personally as with us every one does the village constable the rich shop keeper the priest the rural police commissioner the school guardian the councilor and that official who has the title of school inspector but who cares nothing for the improvement of education and only sees that the circulars of his chiefs are carried out It is ridiculous to pay in farthings the man who has to educate the people It is intolerable that he should walk in rags shiver with cold in damp and draughty schools catch cold and about the age of thirty get laryngitis rheumatism or tuberculosis
