Reminiscences Of The Links:

Reminiscences of the Links Albert Warren Tillinghast, 1998      Reminiscences of Arbroath and St. Andrews David S. Salmond, 1905      The Aberdeen Golfers: Records & Reminiscences Charles Smith, 1909      Reminiscences of Golf on St. Andrews Links, 1887 James Balfour, 2016-09-27 This vintage book is a fascinating chronicle of the changes that took place in the forty years that the author had been playing golf on St Andrews Links One of the oldest courses in the world St Andrews links is widely considered to be the home of golf This volume is highly recommended for those with an interest in the history of this most venerable of golfing locations and would make for a fantastic addition to collections of vintage sporting literature Contents include Links Balls and Clubs Medals Players Professionals and Caddies Incidents in Golf and Merits of the Game Many vintage books such as this are increasingly scarce and expensive We are republishing this volume now in an affordable modern edition complete with a specially commissioned new introduction on the history of golf First published in 1887      Storying Later Life Gary Kenyon, Ernst Bohlmeijer, William L. Randall, 2010-12-20 In its brief but vigorous history gerontology has spawned a broadening range of specializations One of the newest of such specializations is narrative gerontology so named for its emphasis on the biographical or inside dimensions of the experience of aging Telling stories about our world our relationships and ourselves is fundamental to how we make meaning Everything from our history to our religion and our memories to our emotions is linked to the tales we tell ourselves and others about where we have come from and where we are going They are central to who we are The biographical side of human life is every bit as critical to fathom as the biological side if we seek a more balanced positive and optimistic perspective on what aging is about if we would honor the dignity and complexity the humanity and uniqueness of the lives of older persons no matter what their health or economic standing In this respect a narrative approach is particularly suited to the exploration of such topics as meaning spirituality and wisdom and the connections they share This volume reflects a selection of new directions and insights and constitutes a general broadening and deepening of narrative gerontology exploring its implications for theory and research in the field of aging and for the quality of life of older adults themselves Such deepening indicates a greater refinement of thought method and intervention The evolution of narrative gerontology is also evidenced by a significant increase in the number of faculty and graduate students engaged in research in this area as well as by increasing collaboration among researchers practitioners and administrators in applying narrative insights to contexts such as long term care indeed healthcare in general These initiatives have given rise to the phrase narrative care as core care health In the Zone is a concise and accessible book focused on children's learning and how as a teacher we can maximise this both at school and beyond It is hard to strike the right balance and the author helps with this by offering questions or tasks at the end of each chapter providing structured reflection and prompts to relate the content to personal practice and experience Furthermore the author's use of a wide range of research opinions and visual aids alongside real life examples was thought provoking Therefore the book is ideal as a point of reference if you want to try something new or want to be reminded of personal key motivators for becoming a teacher Isabelle Gulliver University of Buckingham
